HORÆ GERMANICÆ :

A

VERSION

OF

GERMAN HYMNS.

---

BY HENRY MILLS.

AUBURN:

H. & J. C. IVISON, GENESEE STREET.

1845.

---

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1845, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Northern District of New York.

THE Translator would premise : —

Hymns 28, 46, 81, and 121, were written before he could venture on an imitation of the German double rhyme ; and therefore fail to exhibit that trait of their originals. All the rest give the precise form of the German stanza.

As to the character of the version — it is so free as to furnish no apology for harshness or obscurity in its language : and yet sufficiently close to exclude him from all claim to merit for the thought.

It is offered as “ a specimen ” of an almost boundless store of German hymns ; and should it also prove an acceptable “ manual for the closet,” his highest hopes respecting it will be answered.

Auburn, N. Y., November, 1845.

L'ENVOY.

---

Go forth, little book ! — I to others now leave thee ; —
Go seek among strangers in future thy friends :
If worthy, — the worthy will kindly receive thee ;
If worthless, — neglect is thy worthy amends.

Throughout all thy growth, I have taught thee with pleasure,
What Germans have chanted, in English to tell :
Amid graver cares, and in seasons of leisure,
I've lov'd thee ; — and, loving, now bid thee Farewell !

And, for saint the most feeble, should GOD ever use thee,
One joy to impart, or one murmur restrain ; —
Though others, in scorn, should all favor refuse thee, —
My toil and my pleasure will not be in vain.

1. THE GOD OF NATURE.

---

- 1 THOU Great First Cause! when, of thy skill
And might, the traces viewing,
I see too how thy love is still
The good of all pursuing,
Astonish'd at thy matchless ways,
How can I render worthy praise, —
My God, my Lord, and Father!
- 2 The Earth, where'er I turn my eye,
Reveals her Maker's glory;
Through day and night the shining sky
Of praise repeats its story;
Who for the Sun there fix'd his place?
Who clothes him with majestic grace?
The starry hosts — Who leads them?

- 3 Who rules the fickle raging winds?
The clouds, in rain distilling?
And Who the lap of Earth unbinds,
Our stores with plenty filling?
Great God, thy praises shall abide,
And, with thy goodness, reach as wide
As wide creation reaches.
- 4 Praise thee the sunshine and the storm;
Thy praise the ocean raises:
“Come!”—says the meanest reptile form,
“Sing, to my Maker, praises!”
“Me”—says the tree in bloom array’d,
“Me”—says the grain, “thy God has made,
“Sing praises to our Maker!”
- 5 ’Tis Man,—a body, of thy hand
The marvelous formation;
’Tis Man,—a soul to understand
Thy wonders of creation;
’Tis Man,—who to himself supplies
Best proof that thou art good and wise,—
Who best should sing thy praises.
- 6 Now pay thy honors to his name,
My soul, his glories telling:
Thy Father and thy God proclaim,
The world’s glad anthem swelling:
Let all our race, with one accord,
Love, trust, and serve our common Lord:
Who can refuse to serve him!

C. F. Gellert.

2. THE GOD OF GRACE.

- 1 JEHOVAH is my light, his grace revealing,
In Him alone perfection finds a place,
The soul's best joys are in Jehovah dwelling,
Jehovah is the fount of holiness.
This light to me can endless wonders show,
Perfection! — 'tis to this my hopes aspire,
While joys of soul but quicken my desire
That I for holiness to Him may go.
- 2 Jehovah — Who can comprehend his being?
Here human thought is lost in wild'ring maze:
But from his word I much may learn, there seeing
How strangely wise and good are all his ways.
In these, Who had his mind and purpose known?
Or was his counselor, his course to guide?
Proud Reason, blush! — that sea is far too wide,
Too deep for thee. — His plans are all his own.
- 3 Jehovah, — Source of life to all that's living!
For mortal eye thy glories are too bright;
Yet through my pilgrimage thy light receiving,
May I rejoice beneath thy watchful sight.
Thyself art light, — and light is thine abode,
Thou hatest him who in the darkness hides;
But him thou lovest who in light abides —
O let thy brightness shine on all my road!
- 4 Jehovah, God with me! — till life is ended,
Be all my days in thy communion pass'd;
My soul, till then, by thy kind eye attended,
Thou wilt to endless glory bring at last.

Blind sinner, think ! — in time thy danger see
 Refusing light, wilt thou the darkness take ?
 At death, all joy and hope will thee forsake,
 While Light and Love unite my God and me.

Joachim Neander.

3. THE GOD OF NATURE AND OF GRACE.

---

- 1 DREAD Majesty above !
 Of pray'r none else is worthy :
 The angels near thy throne
 With rev'rence bow before thee :
 In love and humble faith
 Make thou our souls sincere,
 That we may seek thy face
 With thanks and holy fear.

- 2 Thou art the highest good,
 To ev'ry ill a stranger ;
 Thy bliss, complete in thee,
 Of change can fear no danger :
 All glory too is thine,
 Nor creatures, great or small,
 Thy glory can increase,
 Great Maker, Lord of all.

- 3 Thou callest what was not
 To life and conscious pleasure ;
 And beings round thee spread
 In numbers out of measure :

Thy nature all is love,
And thy unbounded skill,
Unceasingly employ'd,
Thy schemes of love fulfil.

- 4    Thou speakest, and 't is done ;
When but thy word was given,
    The frame of nature rose —
The earth and starry heaven.
    Thy will through all the world
    Such deeds of power show,
    As creatures else would think
    Beyond all pow'r to do.

- 5    Thou art the Lord of lords ;
And earthly kings, the highest,
    Before thee are but dust, —
Thou all their strength suppliest.
    Whose pride thou wouldst depress,
    Who longer can sustain ?
    But whom thou wilt exalt,
    Shall envied glory gain.

- 6    'T is thine alone to live
And reign supreme forever.
    Life's thine to give or take,
We breathe but by thy favor.
    The soul that rules in us
    We have, Most High, from thee ; —
    Were such thy will, it dies,
    But thou must ever be.

- 7    Thee — who has ever seen ?
    Who can in flesh behold thee ?

No mortal eye could bear
The splendors that infold thee
Where thou, in glory thron'd,
Inhabitest the praise
Which angels evermore,
In songs of rapture raise.

8 What we, immortal King,
Are of thy nature knowing,
Thou hast thyself reveal'd,
Thy works and counsels showing.
Creation speaks thy power,
More clearly still thy Son
Displays thy wondrous grace,
And makes thy godhead known

9 Yet, what we learn of thee
With shadows here is shrouded ;
But soon we hope a light
And vision all unclouded,
When we to God shall come,
No shade or veil between ;
And there his glory see,
As we ourselves are seen.

10 Meantime would we below
Ne'er cease our honors bringing ;
Despise not, LORD, the praise
Our stamm'ring tongues are singing :
When we shall rise to thee
In realms of light above,
In higher, nobler strains,
We'll sing the God of love.

J. S. Dieterich.

4.

POWER OF GOD.

---

- 1 WHO, LORD, thy deeds can measure ?
Unbounded is thy might,
When men make crime their pleasure,
Thy sword for slaughter's bright.
Destruction, at thy bidding,
Sweeps o'er what thou hadst made,
Submissive to thy guiding,
And, at thy word, is stay'd.
- 2 'Gainst those thy will despising
Thy glory thou'lt maintain ;
Their wrath to fury rising
But proves their rage is vain.
Be still, ye proud, — nor longer
Provoke his fearful rod ; —
Dream not that ye are stronger
Than is the arm of God.
- 3 Vain hope, his church to trample !
Ye foes, mark well the word !
For her — resources ample
Are ever in the LORD.
His sword, high o'er her flaming,
Shall guard and banner be ;
Her host, in fight exclaiming —
“ The LORD and victory ! ”

P. F. Hiller.

5.

THE LOVE OF GOD.

---

- 1 God is love — then sing his praises !
Love that shall unchanging be ;
Tell what joys his Spirit raises,
Making known that love to thee !
While his holy vengeance flaming
Reaches to the lowest hell,
Love he still himself is naming —
All his saints approve it well.
- 2 Love ! which he to men revealing
Points them to his dying Son :
Love ! — all human thoughts excelling,
Measured by himself alone ; —
Broad art thou, through space extending ; —
Long, — to last when time shall cease ; —
Deep, — to hopeless guilt descending ; —
High too, — reaching heav'nly bliss.
- 3 Love ! — although my heart can never
Thy full measure comprehend, —
O make vain the foe's endeavor
From thyself my heart to rend !
Love ! — to thee my soul is plighted, —
Teach me more of thee to know,
That my soul, to God united,
May his love forever show !

P. F. Hiller.

6. THE WORD OF GOD.

- 1 I TRUST the LORD,
Upon his word
I rest my soul's well-being :
My walk with thee,
LORD, here must be
By faith, and not by seeing.
- 2 Thy word is sure,
May it secure
My confidence forever !
Let Reason's pride
Ne'er be my guide
From faith my soul to sever.
- 3 What but thy word
Could light afford,
To save from doubt and error ?
Where else is shown,
Than here alone,
Escape from guilt and terror ?
- 4 'Tis here made plain,
— Sought else in vain —
The soul is ever-living :
For endless days
Of future praise,
That thou this life art giving.

5    The only scheme
      Man to redeem
From death, sin's fearful wages,
      Would lie conceal'd,
      But as reveal'd
In these thy sacred pages.

6    And now shall grief
      Hope no relief,
My soul sink down despairing :
      No ! — here I see
      Thy grace for me
A father's love declaring.

7    By faith to live,
      Its fruits to give, —
This is the path to heaven :
      All strength and skill
      To do thy will
But through thy word are given.

8    Teach me, O LORD,
      To prize thy word,
This gift of matchless favor :
      Be it my wealth,
      Be it my health,
My strength and life forever !

C. F. Gellert.

7. THE TREE WITH GOLDEN FRUIT.

- 1 UPON a hill there stands a tree
Where golden fruit is found, —
'Tis meant for ev'ry land to see,
It shines for all around.
Here many come by day and night,
Its gold their fond pursuit,
They shake its branches with delight,
And bear away the fruit.
- 2 And yet its riches always stay,
The tree is never bare ;
Whatever fruit is borne away,
As much still glitters there.
“ What is its name ? — and where its place ?
“ How can this wonder be ?
“ Who now will tell us ? — Who can guess ?
The BIBLE is that tree.

C. G. Barth.

8. KNOWLEDGE OF GOD FROM HIS WORD.

- 1 IN glory bright, O God, thou dwellest,
On which no mortal eye can look ;
Yet all we need to know thou tellest
In clear instructions of thy book, —
Both what thou art, and, in thy plan,
What hopes and fears should govern man.

- 2 Be then this volume, through life's stages,
My light to shine in darkness here ;
And, when I meditate its pages,
To aid me, with thy grace be near !
To learn and practice all thy will,
Let eye and heart be open still !
- 3 Thy word — O may I so believe it,
That it shall be my spirit's food !
But error — let me not receive it,
And rob my soul of endless good !
Nor scoffers drive my heart astray,
Nor sceptic doubts impede my way !
- 4 To know thee — 't is a pledge of heaven !
Now help me, Father, that both Thee
And Him whom thou for us hast given,
I here may learn by faith to see,
As thy unerring truth has taught,
Till to thy glory I am brought.
- 5 And, as my knowledge shall be growing,
May I in heart and life improve ;
The kindred graces brighter glowing,
My faith, my rev'rence, and my love :
The more I comprehend thy will,
May it promote a purer zeal !
- 6 For, What though knowledge be expanding,
Unless to higher love it train ?
What aids me light of understanding,
If yet an evil heart remain ?
Guide then my will by what is true,
That I thy service may pursue.

- 7 To know thee, LORD, O may it ever
 On earth my spring of comfort be,
 That, when my soul and body sever,
 I may rejoice through faith in thee, —
 Then, see thee in full glory shown,
 And know thee, as myself am known.

Benj. Schmolke.

9. THE LAW AND GOSPEL.

---

- 1 THE holy law and gospel, both
 From God himself proceeded,
 And, in the scheme of christian truth,
 They both alike are needed :
 While yet there is diversity
 That's clearly seen by ev'ry eye
 Enlighten'd by the Spirit.
- 2 The Law's great rule of what is due,
 Our conscience well might show it,
 — That love to God and neighbor too,
 Immutably we owe it : —
 But that in love our God should give
 His Son to die, that we might live, —
 He only could reveal it.
- 3 The Law makes all our duty plain,
 Its kind and measure traces :
 The Gospel tells how to obtain
 From God his needed graces :
 By that, what we should do is shown,
 By this, what God for us has done ;
 This mercy speaks, — that, judgment.

- 4 The Law, 't is true, speaks of reward,
But we can ne'er attain it,
Since none, without a full regard
To all the law, can gain it :
The Gospel gives its promis'd good
To those who trust the Savior's blood,
And humbly own the ransom.
- 5 Where'er the Law the sinner finds,
It pierces him with sorrows :
His wounds the gracious Gospel binds, —
Hence he his healing borrows :
That threatens death, the curse for sin ;
This tells how endless life to win
Through sufferings of Jesus.
- 6 By that, our misery is known,
This comfort is declaring ;
That casts the stoutest sinner down,
This raises the despairing :
That points and urges on to death,
While this restores the fainting breath,
And brings the soul to heaven.
- 7 The Law fit message will afford
To those who conscience stifle ;
Who dream of merit and reward,
While yet with sin they trifle :
The soothing balm of gospel grace
Will find its meet and welcome place
With souls sin-sick and broken.
- 8 The destin'd aim of Law attain'd,
Its terrors all are ceasing :

Its thunders and its curses end,
 When man seeks gospel blessing.
 The cross of Jesus hope revives, —
 Who looks to this for mercy, lives ; —
 His peace shall be abiding.

- 9 May Law and Grace on ev'ry heart,
 Make each its due impression ; —
 When fear and grief have done their part,
 Let faith then take possession :
 Of vengeance may the dread alarms
 Bring all to hide within the arms
 Of our dear Lord and Savior.
- 10 O grant us, LORD, through gospel faith,
 Thy strength for holy living : —
 As children then, not fearing wrath,
 Thy Law our rule receiving,
 Will we, through grace, thy ways pursue,
 Will honor law and gospel too, —
Believing, and obeying.

10. ON THE SOUL.

---

- 1 MAN were better nam'd a spirit, —
 Would I call this body "I" ?
 'T is, of that I shall inherit,
 But the seed ; — and soon will die.
 For, as grain corrupting lies
 Fruit to yield, the body dies,
 That from it, as blade from kernel,
 One may spring to life eternal.

- 2 GOD ne'er form'd our soul — no, never !
Here to last some fleeting hours,
It was form'd to live forever
And disclose its noble pow'rs ; —
Form'd for holy joys on high,
Man — the soul — will never die.
Save us, LORD, lest boundless mercies
Change by sin to endless curses !

11. CARE FOR THE SOUL.

---

- 1 LORD, on the soul's enduring worth,
As in thy sacred word set forth,
So fix my deep reflection :
That care for its eternal weal
Shall ev'ry other care excel,
And rule my constant action.
- 2 Thyself hast for its int'rests car'd, —
For it what joy hast thou prepar'd,
Riches of grace expending !
Thine image, which at first it bore,
In all its brightness to restore,
Thy Son in mercy sending.
- 3 Superior to such life as this,
Design'd for pure and endless bliss,
In flesh 't is here in training, —
That exercise of faith and love
May nurture it for joys above,
Where Jesus now is reigning.

- 4 Thou 'rt ready, to thy promise true,
Life's fleeting cares to guide it through,
And for thy glory cherish ;—
O let me not, by unbelief,
Condemn this soul, in hopeless grief,
Beneath thy wrath to perish.
- 5 LORD, to thyself in cov'nant join
My soul :—be thy sure mercies mine,
My trust in thee unshaken !
This is my pray'r, and this my aim, —
O may I never know the shame
Of having thee forsaken !
- 6 In thee the wicked have no part ;—
Create in me an humble heart,
That feels for sin abhorrence ;
That for its guilt before thee mourns,
But to thy grace in Jesus turns
With hope and full concurrence.
- 7 Throughout my course, in all its length,
LORD, may I, strengthen'd with thy strength,
Strive for that crown of glory
Which thou hast set before my eyes, —
While earth's fair promises I prize
But as an idle story.
- 8 How blest the faithful, none can show ;
Sweet peace and joy their portion now,
Imparted by thy Spirit :
And, when th' appointed hour is come,
Thou wilt to glory take them home,
Thy kingdom to inherit.

12. SUDDEN DEATH OF A SINNER.

- 1 Now one in health Death, instant, crushes, —
Ye sleepers, wake ! your danger see !
A shudder through your spirits rushes,
The shudder of eternity.
Nor without cause your spirits quake,
God's midnight thunder cries — “Awake !”
- 2 This sudden death — to you it preaches,
And, with a deep and solemn tone, —
“Behold !” — it says — “God's vengeance reaches
“And casts the highest, strongest down.”
Wake, sinners ! and again, awake !
The thunder rolls, on you may break.
- 3 This brother came, — he saw, — departed, —
More of him scarcely can be said :
Now sighs and groans, by anguish started,
And clouds are hovering o'er the dead.
O what a fall ! — from one and all
Wonder extorts — “O what a fall !”
- 4 In health and dead ! — in sin, too, dying !
By call of God, in anger spoke,
Swift as the flash of heaven flying,
And awful as its thunder-stroke,
He's plung'd, from heights of earthly bliss,
Into eternity's abyss.
- 5 “In health and dead !” — the thought still urges
Upon the soul : — “in health and dead !”

Thought, troubled as the ocean's surges,
And, as the sweeping whirlwind, dread :
"In sin and dead!" — O 't is a dart,
That pierces through the tortur'd heart.

6 Yes! — fearful too as roar of ocean,
Its foaming waves by tempest driven,
Will be the sinner's wild commotion,
Cut off in sin, no warning given,
By single step, without a thought,
From time to retribution brought.

7 Now, sinner, think, and timely tremble !
This fearful doom still threatens thee :
Few, in their time of need, resemble
The thief who sigh'd — "Remember me!"
Nor is it ev'ry one that dies,
Who e'en a wish for mercy sighs.

8 God many means of death is sending,
Not always sickness, plague, or war,
Nor earthquake, — rocks and mountains rending,
Nor storm, — its fury spreading far,
Nor Lightning, — nor the raging flood : —
'Tis oft a mote, — or drop of blood.

9 Save, LORD! — O may the fear of dying
Make all these sinners fear to sin !
Let none of them in death be lying,
Before thy service they begin.
For death they're ripe, alas! 'tis true, —
Fit them for death, and judgment too !

- 10 We prostrate fall, and would implore thee,
 That we, O LORD, thy grace may meet ;
 Crush not in wrath poor worms before thee
 That creep in dust beneath thy feet.
 Spare us ! — we, that for mercy call,
 Are for thy vengeance far too small.
- 11 But no ! though weak and ill deserving,
 In thy regard our worth is high ;
 Since thy own Son, thy pleasure serving,
 To save us, gave himself to die,
 And shed that blood which cries to heaven —
“Let man in mercy be forgiven !”
- 12 Now, Jesus, — while of this our brother
 The open'd grave we're call'd to see,
 May each reflect — “ Soon too another
 “ Shall op'ning wait to cover me.”
 And do thou, LORD, this warning bless
 To fit our souls for happiness !

13. SINNERS WARNED IN VIEW OF JUDGMENT.

---

- 1 How sad will be the sinner's part !
 How dreadful in the bearing !
 The pangs of conscious guilt his heart
 With nameless tortures tearing, —
 When, to the truth at last awake,
 The trump of God on him shall break
 With voice of awful thunder.

- 2 His day of grace forever gone,
Spent all his hours of gladness,
Replete with sinful joys alone,
— These joys are turned to sadness, —
Eternity now makes it plain
The LORD has threaten'd naught in vain,
Nor vengeance always slumbers.
- 3 Where now is ev'ry earthly good
In which his soul delighted ?
Where now that pride and hardihood
Which ev'ry warning slighted ?
His guilty heart with terror quails,
His courage, all his boasting fails, —
Transform'd to shame and anguish.
- 4 Now curses fall upon his head
From those his guidance rueing ;
They, whose wrong passions he has fed,
Charge him with their undoing :
While ev'ry art he has employ'd,
And ev'ry good he has destroy'd,
Pass fearfully before him.
- 5 He hears the righteous Judge proclaim —
“ Depart, thou evil-doer ! ”
No more can he excuses frame, —
Conscience is his pursuer :
Cast out from God, where'er he goes,
He feels — this sharpens all his woes —
“ The doom is just, though dreadful ! ”
- 6 His tortur'd soul may wish — 't is vain ! —
Reversal of the sentence ;

Remorse — add torment to his pain, —
 No room now for repentance ;
 'T were vain from falling hills to crave,
 For his despair, a shelt'ring grave
 In dark annihilation.

- 7 Turn, careless sinners, flee in haste
 To Him who can relieve you !
 Your term of grace no longer waste,
 Nor let your hearts deceive you,
 To think — “ there yet is time to spare ;”
 The day of doom to you is near
 With all its retributions.
- 8 Whether ye cavil, or believe,
 'T will come — what God hath spoken,
 To Death should He commission give,
 At once your dreams are broken.
 Now mercy waits, — but short its stay, —
 Secure its blessings while you may,
 And be prepar'd for judgment !

J. C. Grot.

14. SCOFFERS CONFOUNDED AT THE JUDGMENT.

- 1 HE who once came as suff'ring man,
 To perfect Mercy's wondrous plan,
 Will come, as Judge descending ;
 Nor long his coming be delay'd,
 In glorious majesty display'd,
 Angels their Lord attending.
 Ye careless world, in time prepare,
 Nor put the evil day afar.

- 2 “ Why, LORD, so long thy judgment stay ?
“ Why slack thy promise ? ” — scoffers say, —
Braving the final sentence.
’Tis — Hear it, sinners, who presume
Thus to deride the solemn doom, —
That you may find repentance.
But if in sin you persevere,
Too soon you ’ll find the Judge is here.
- 3 And when he comes in glory bright,
You’ll see, with trembling and affright,
The horrors that abide you :
And Will you then God’s terrors brave ?
Nor sea nor mountain, death nor grave,
From his dread wrath can hide you.
Then, Mercy’s day forever gone,
O’er you his Justice rules alone.
- 4 When fearfully his thunders sound,
His trumpet-blasts are pealing round,
Earth’s deep foundations shaking :
The pillars of a sinking world,
With sudden crash, in ruins hurl’d,
His foes with terror quaking ; —
Then, dragg’d to meet the Judge’s view,
Scoffers believe, and tremble too.
- 5 Repentance ? — Hope ? — ’t is then too late ; —
And none succeed, by pride or hate,
Themselves ’gainst God to harden :
Ye, who your sins so fondly prize,
While mercy waits, in time be wise,
Seek now his gracious pardon, —
Lest ye shall curse yourselves at last,
When ev’ry hope of pardon’s past.

- 6 Great day ! — of days the most sublime,
 Thou teachest us the worth of time,
 Louder than many thunders.
 Sinners, provoke not, to his face,
 Your God, so wonderful in grace,
 Of wrath to haste his wonders, —
 When you must sink in dark despair,
 While saints shall endless glory share.
- 7 My soul is fill'd with trembling dread,
 No claims to favor can I plead,
 Guilty I stand before thee :
 Still, when thy sentence I shall hear,
 May I among thy saints appear,
 Forever to adore thee !
 For, Jesus, thou canst sinners save,
 And now thy mercy, Lord, I crave.

SELF-EXAMINATION.

- 1 IMPART, O LORD, thy light !
 I am to self a stranger :
 Show me myself aright !
 I know, whate'er the cause,
 I am not as I was ;
 For now I deeply feel
 All with me is not well.
- 2 Content with form and show,
 I had no fear of trouble
 In seasons past ; — but now
 Thick sorrows on me crowd,

Myself a weary load,
What lately cheer'd my heart
Can no relief impart.

3 No outward source of pain
Excites desponding sorrow,
Or leads me to complain ;
Many and kind my friends,
No foe my peace offends,
My frame, as I desire,
In health and strength entire.

4 O no ! — 't is grief of soul,
And from within arises,
Refusing all control.
'T is this, the anxious thought —
That yet I know it not —
If I am truly thine,
And, Jesus, thou art mine.

5 The things are far from one, —
To be — and call'd — a Christian.
I know that he alone
Is worthy of the name,
Who, by thy strength, shall tame
His darling lusts, — and lives
To Him who mercy gives.

6 It were but self-deceit,
If we the thought should cherish —
That gospel-claims are met,
And faith is prov'd sincere,
If we from crimes are clear
Which men of heathen name
Would shun through fear of shame.

- 7    He only Christ puts on,
Who is of self divested ;
Who cannot trust his own
Virtue, or strength, or will,
Or wealth, or rank, or skill,
But, these renouncing, prays —
“Jesus, direct my ways !”
- 8    Thus speaks the voice of faith,
In earnest supplication, —
“Save, Jesus, — save from wrath !
“My Lord, Redeemer, Shield,
“I to thy guidance yield, —
“Thou art my only trust, —
“O save a sinner lost !”
- 9    Who fails this truth to know,
Is still to faith a stranger, —
Of God remains the foe :
His hope, built on the sand,
Cannot the trial stand ;
Our safety’s only ground
Is in free mercy found.
- 10   The fear, LORD, troubles me —
Lest I in love am wanting ;
Lest what I feel for thee —
Deceptive, hollow, faint, —
Makes but almost a saint,
And leaves the world supreme
Above thy sacred name.

- 11 My heart, approach the test !
'Tis time it were decided,
I else can find no rest :
Say to the world — “ Away !
“ Away, my sins ! ” — but say
To Christ — “ Thou art alone
“ My joy ! ” — or nothing's done.
- 12 Poor worm ! — wouldst thou refuse
The King thy cheerful homage
By whom creation rose ?
Wilt thou resist His call
Who is the All in all ?
Who his own world sustains,
Supreme forever reigns ?
- 13 What else may pass away
That's found in earth or heaven,
Himself unchang'd will stay,
With pow'r to curse or save.
Before us is the grave,
But thence He'll call his friends
To bliss that never ends : —
- 14 While they, who here below
Neglect his great salvation,
Must sink in endless wo,
Far from the blest abode
Of them who love their God,
To wail in hopeless grief,
Where none can give relief.

- 15 He waits, — make no delay,
 Take now his offer'd mercy,
 My soul, — and to him say —
 “Flesh, spirit, time, estate,
 “My all I consecrate
 “Entire, O LORD, to thee,
 “Now and eternally.
- 16 “Do what thou wilt with me,
 “Only make me a vessel
 “Of praise to honor thee!
 “That I, by faith and love,
 “May seek thy joys above,
 “And there to Jesus raise
 “My song of endless praise!”

LIVING WATERS.

- 1 THE Fountain flows! waters of life bestowing:
 Come, thirsty soul, nor perish in thy pride?
 Take, as a gift, what from the throne is flowing, —
 So cry the Lamb, the Spirit, and the bride.
 Come! — nothing bars the way,
 And drink as thou shalt choose,
 There is no price to pay:
 The Fountain flows!
- 2 The Fountain flows! With heart and hands be ready,
 Ye sons of want, the proffer'd boon to meet!
 The sinner's friend, the helper of the needy,
 Your thither course will with his favor greet;

The waters each may take
 Who now his mis'ry knows ; —
 Who longs — 't is for his sake
 The Fountain flows.

The Fountain flows ! Thank God, the fullest measure
 Of grace and pow'r here meets our utmost need.
 Now, sinner, would thou ever share its pleasure,
 Haste, like the panting roe, with earnest speed ;
 Draw to the waters near
 Where thirst and languor close.
 With waters sweet and clear
 The Fountain flows.

The Fountain flows ! Then take the healing offer'd,
 Ye heirs of wretchedness, to all your grief ;
 From hopeless evils you so long have suffer'd,
 Ye weary souls, accept a free relief !
 No bolts, with vengeance rife,
 Shall here your way oppose ; —
 'T is nam'd the "Fount of life."
 The Fountain flows !

The Fountain flows ! Let devils rage with madness,
 Let sink in ruin all the world beside, —
 Still Zion, crown'd with never ending gladness,
 Shall with her fount of saving-health abide.
 God guards her walls from fear,
 And his deliv'rance shows ; —
 Her God is ever near.
 The Fountain flows !

The Fountain flows ! for all a fount of healing :
 He's blest, for whom it shall not flow in vain !

Who drinks — a well of water never failing
In him, to endless life, it shall remain.

For, whoso tries its pow'r
From thirst shall now repose,
And ne'er be thirsty more.

The Fountain flows !

CALL TO SINNERS.

1 HASTEN, ye who wish his favor,
And now in Jesus put your trust, —
Lest, failing of his love forever,
Your souls be number'd with the lost.
Redeem the time, — there's none to spare, —
And for eternity prepare !
Hasten !

2 Haste ! — ye who have idly wander'd
Year after year in paths of sin ;
Enough of life is madly squander'd,
Strive now eternal life to win.
To-day, for mercy there is room, —
Who knows what may to morrow come ?
Hasten !

3 Hasten, all your sins forsaking,
The least of them is far too great ;
And, of his holy grace partaking,
Like Jesus every evil hate !
Who sins against the truth he knows,
Prepares his soul for endless woes.
Hasten !

4 Hasten now, to Jesus bowing,
 Rich stores of good in him abound :
 Why should the fount in vain be flowing
 For you, where endless life is found ?
 You live, and still the way is free, —
 In this your pledge of welcome see !
 Hasten !

5 Haste ! — the Spirit, proff'ring mercies,
 Now calls you and will give his aid ;
 The season lost will leave its curses, —
 Let not a moment's loss be made !
 If now his call you disregard,
 His voice may never more be heard.
 Hasten !

6 Haste, while entrance yet is offer'd !
 Death soon will ever bar the way :
 No license for delay is suffer'd,
 Then hasten while 't is call'd to-day !
 For, if to-morrow you should cry
 For help, — no helper may be nigh.
 Hasten !

* * * * *

[7 Hasten, Jesus, we implore thee,
 And show these sinners now thy grace !
 Prepare them, LORD, to come before thee,
 And there forever sing thy praise !
 Blest time ! when all the world shall sing
 The praises of their Savior-King, —
 Hasten !]

J. A. Lehmann.

18.

REPENTANCE.

- 1 Repent ! — nor still delay
From one year to another :
Death may, at any hour,
Blast all thy hopes together :
And, after death, will God
His wrath for sin display ;
O sinner, think of this !
Repent, without delay !
- 2 Repent ! — nor still delay
Till life's late sands are gliding :
Thou canst not know that age
Will find thee here abiding :
Life now its light affords,
But short its longest day —
Ere noon how often quench'd !
Repent, without delay !
- 3 Repent ! — nor still delay
Till on a death-bed lying :
Is this a work to do
When panting, struggling, dying ?
What pains and fears will then
Thy trembling soul dismay !
Break now the cords of sin !
Repent, without delay !
- 4 Repent ! — nor still delay
While youth is vigor lending,
Wouldst thou in guilty joys
Thy prime of life be spending ?

The young die too, and then
 Who shall God's judgment stay?
 O turn, while yet there's time!
 Repent, without delay!

- 5 Repent! — no more delay!
 All hope will soon be over, —
 Let sin's deceit no more
 From thee thy ruin cover!
 Whoso the flesh, and world,
 And Satan will obey,
 Must hopeless sink to hell: —
 Repent, without delay!

- 6 Repent! — no more delay!
 While space to thee is suffer'd,
 Let prayer before thy God,
 With grief for sin, be offer'd.
 If thus, in Jesus' name,
 For grace thou wilt not pray, —
 Thy soul's forever lost.
 Repent, without delay!

- 7 Repent! — no more delay!
 Live now for God and heaven!
 Avow, with heart sincere, —
 "My all to God is given: —
 "On Jesus rests my hope,
 "He is my only stay!"
 How blest would be thy soul!
 Repent, without delay!

19. THE PENITENT'S PLEA.

- 1 Bow thine ear, I now implore thee,
Sov'reign of the earth and skies,
Hear the pray'r I bring before thee,
While my soul in anguish lies.
'Tis my guilt oppresses me,
Therefore, LORD, I come to thee,
And, with grief my sins confessing,
Seek thy pardon and thy blessing.
- 2 All the weary, heavy-laden, —
Such to thee are ask'd to come ; —
Surely then I'm one that's bidden,
And for me there must be room.
Mercy's door is open still ;
God in mercy can, and will
Hide my sins that so distress me,
And with pard'ning grace will bless me.
- 3 All thy word abides unbroken,
Safe the hope encourag'd there :
Who, if not thyself, has spoken —
“ Seek my face ? ” With humble pray'r,
Now thy face, LORD, do I seek,
And implore of thee to break
Sin's control : — thy Spirit sending,
Keep me from my God offending !
- 4 See, too ! Is it not recorded
By thy hand, beneath mine eye, —
“ As I live, ” — yes, so 't is worded, —
“ I've no wish that sinners die,

“ But that they their sins should mourn,
“ And from all their evil turn, —
“ Thus should humbly seek my favor,
“ And with me should live forever.”?

5 Thou art not one to deceive me, —
I thine oath of mercy plead ;
Here to die thou wilt not leave me,
Nor forsake me in my need, —
While with deepest grief I own,
I've disgrac'd the name of son,
Far from home and GOD have wander'd,
And thy gifts have basely squander'd.

6 What more would I now be saying,
If not, smiting on my breast,
With the publican be praying —
“ LORD, 't is thou that knowest best
“ All that I've offended thee,
“ O have mercy upon me !” ?
On thine arms of mercy falling,
“ Mercy ! Mercy !” — I am calling.

7 Sins or guilt I'll not endeavor,
LORD, before thee to excuse,
Yet would hope thy pard'ning favor, —
Nor wilt thou the grace refuse.
What thy holiness demands
All is paid by Jesus' hands,
Who the perfect ransom offer'd,
While for sinners here he suffer'd.

- 8 Now, my God, the ransom owning,
Be thy wondrous mercy shown !
Jesus, for my sins atoning,
Has above to glory gone ;
He has wrought my full release,
Hence alone I look for peace,
Drawing, from his death of anguish,
Life whose joys shall never languish.
- 9 Me, dear Savior, onward nourish !
Be my soul's abiding food !
Faith and love within me cherish, —
Here be thou my chosen good !
Then, when life on earth is past,
I shall rise to thee at last,
And, with saints how bow before thee,
Ever — ever — will adore thee.

20.

CONSCIENCE APPEASED.

- 1 WHAT meanest thou my soul,
In hopeless sorrow weeping : —
Through consciousness of guilt,
In fear and anguish keeping ?
So grievous is the load
Thy sins upon thee bind,
That peace or comfort, none
Thy troubled thoughts can find.

- 2 Full just is all the charge
'Gainst thee by conscience spoken,
Thy God thou hast despis'd,
His holy law hast broken; —
Thy false and evil ways
Are open to his view; —
Thou hast deserv'd to die —
'T is all, alas! too true.
- 3 Thy guilt well mayst thou own, —
And yet, wilt thou receive it?
God, in his word of truth,
Commands thee to believe it, —
That just as true and sure
As thy repented guilt,
So sure it is, that Christ
For thee his blood has spilt.
- 4 Though sinners he would save,
God's claims he well asserted;
Did what we ne'er could do,
— Our wills are so perverted, —
The Law we had despis'd
He honor'd and obey'd,
Bore too its threaten'd curse,
And suffer'd in our stead.
- 5 And through his merits now,
Of God's mere sov'reign favor,
By faith we're justified, —
So that how deep soever

The wounds that sin inflicts,
They cannot deadly be,
Since Jesus, by his death,
From guilt has set us free.

- 6    Fears I may well dismiss,
The power of Hell contemning ;
Wilt thou still doubt, my soul,
Thyself to wrath condemning ?
Yet God, who by his word
Would all my fears relieve,
Is greater far than thou,—
His word cannot deceive.
- 7    Thy Spirit send, O Lord,
Thy pow'r and mercy showing,
That I, in hope and love,
May evermore be growing :
Since thou my soul hast wash'd
From dead works by thy blood, —
Give me by faith to live,
And work the works of God !
- 8    Give strength, victorious King,
That, in thy steps pursuing,
Satan, the world, and flesh,
And all their rage, subduing,
I too may vict'ry gain :
Nor let my spirit dread
The wrath my sins deserve, —
For I to sin am dead.

21.

FAITH.

---

- 1    WITHOUT true faith, O LORD,
     None rightly comes before thee ;
     Our guilty doubts disperse —
We humbly would implore thee ;
     Establish in our hearts
     The faith thou wilt approve,
     'Tis thine alone to give
     The faith that works by love.
- 2    May we believe, O GOD,
     That thou art ever-living ;
     Nor suffer us to doubt, —
Thy care of all perceiving, —
     But that thou wilt reward
     With thy peculiar grace,
     Those who are earnest now
     To seek thy smiling face.
- 3    Thy word is ever sure ;
Grant that, in this confiding,
     Our hopes may ever be
Transforming, and abiding :
     Grant, too, in joy or grief,
     That, to thy guidance true,
     Whate'er thy word directs
     We steadily pursue.
- 4    Thy Son, in mercy sent
To die, for sin atoning, —
     Him, as our Lord and God,
With full reliance owning,

May we with thanks receive
 The grace his blood has bought ;
 And show our love to him,
 By doing what he taught.

5 To serve him with the heart, —
 Be this our great endeavor !
 Thus may we comfort find, —
 While, too, it shall deliver
 From servitude to sin,
 And give us strength to wage
 The war 'gainst ev'ry foe,
 Through all our pilgrimage.

6 What sacred peace and joy
 By faith to us are given !
 More glorious far the part
 Awaiting us in heaven.
There we shall see and know
What here believ'd is bliss ;
Nor sin, or fear, or doubt
Shall mar our happiness.

22.

SALVATION BY FAITH.

1 To us salvation now is come,
 God's wondrous grace revealing ;
 Works never can avert our doom,
 They have no power of healing.
 Faith looks to God's beloved Son,
 Who has for us deliv'rance won —
 He is our great Redeemer !

- 2 What God's most holy precept claims
No child of Adam renders,
But, from the throne, dread vengeance flames,
And speaks the curse in thunders.
The flesh ne'er prompts those pure desires
That, 'bove all else, the law requires ; —
Relief by law is hopeless !
- 3 'Tis then a vain delusive dream
That God the law has given,
That we thereby reward might claim,
And earn our way to heaven :
But 'tis a glass, where we descry
How many sins in ambush lie,
And in our flesh are hiding.
- 4 By our own strength to put aside
God's wrath, and win his blessing,
The task, though many oft have tried,
Is but our guilt increasing :
For God hypocrisy abhors,
And flesh with goodness ever wars, —
'Tis, in its nature, evil.
- 5 But all the Law must be fulfill'd,
Or we must sink despairing ; —
Then came the Son — so God had will'd, —
The human nature sharing,
For us the Law's demands obey'd,
And thus his Father's vengeance stay'd,
Which over us impended.

- 6 With all the Law 't is now complied
By one could well obey it :
Each humble soul, now justified
By faith in him, may say it —
“ Yes, I receive thee, gracious Lord,
“ Thy death to me shall life afford,
“ For me is paid the ransom !
- 7 “ Here all excuse for doubt were vain,
“ Thy truth cannot deceive me,
“ And thou hast said, — in words so plain,
“ No room for doubt they leave me, —
“ ‘ Whoso shall humbly trust my name
“ ‘ To save his soul from guilt and shame,
“ ‘ Is heir of my salvation.’ ”
- 8 This faith — whose heart is right with God,
And he alone can know it ;
A faith whose light will shine abroad,
While holy works shall show it :
’T is one God will himself approve,
A holy faith that works by love.
Art thou of God begotten ? —
- 9 Then by the Law will sin be shown,
Thy soul its guilt deploring, —
Till grace too make her message known,
To hope thy soul restoring ; —
She says — “ In Christ are sinners blest,
“ In Him, not in the Law, — is rest ; ” —
Thus faith is wrought with power.

- 10 From faith in Jesus that is right,
    Good works are always flowing ;
False is the faith that shuns the light,
    On works no care bestowing :
E'en if true faith alone could live,
It needs good works the proof to give
    That it is true and saving.
- 11 Hope, though deferr'd, let none destroy, —
    God's promise is abiding :
What day our hope shall end in joy —
    Most wisely he is hiding.
He knows the fittest time to give,
His promise never can deceive —
    With Him we well may leave it,
- 12 Nor, when thy wishes may be cross'd,
    Thy confidence give over ;
E'en when thy good He's seeking most,
    His purpose he may cover :
Though flesh and sense may oft repine,
His word of grace is ever thine, —
    On this repose securely !
- 13 Now to the God of matchless grace,
    To Father, Son, and Spirit,
We lift our highest songs of praise,
    Our praise his favors merit.
His promis'd grace He will perform,
And save us by his mighty arm, —
    His worthy name be hallow'd !

- 14 Thy kingdom come ! thy will be done
 On earth as done in heaven !
 Give us our bread, each day its own !
 And be our debts forgiven
 As we our debtors shall forgive !
 Far from temptation may we live !
 From evil save ! — So be it !

Poliander, i. e. Jno. Graumann, [D'Aubigne.]
 Paul Speratus, [A. Knapp.]

REDEMPTION.

- 1 I AM redeem'd ! — the purchase of that blood
 Which on the cross was shed :
 To GOD I'm reconcil'd, — my heart renew'd, —
 My terrors all are fled.
 The scheme of mercy — Wisdom made it, —
 The costly ransom — Love has paid it.
 I am redeem'd !
- 2 I am redeem'd ! — Nor can the thunder-roar
 Of Sinai yield alarm ;
 For me, the fearful curse my Savior bore,
 My soul it cannot harm.
 Repented sins, would ye appal me ?
 To joy and thanks God's mercies call me !
 I am redeem'd !
- 3 I am redeem'd ! — My Savior broke the band
 That chain'd me to the foe.
 The keys of Hell were in his friendly hand,
 He shut its portals to.

Now walk I free, secure of pardon ;
 From sin and Satan's weary burden
 I am redeem'd !

4 I am redeem'd ! What is there I should fear ?
 Death's gloom will beam with light ; —
 The Lord of life for me will then appear,
 And lead to mansions bright.
 And though in dust my dust shall slumber,
 My sleeping dust will he remember.
 I am redeem'd !

5 I am redeem'd — from guilt, and fear, and pain,
 To joys that will abide ;
 And Death to me will prove eternal gain, —
 With Jesus at my side.
 Then shall I rise to share his favor,
 And there resound his praise forever.
 I am redeem'd !

Wagner.

24. HOPE IN GOD'S MERCY.

Psalm 130.

1 FROM deep distress to Thee I pray,
 O God, hear my intreaty !
 Turn not thy face from me away,
 But show thy tender pity :
 As Judge, shouldst thou my deeds regard,
 In justice weighing due award,
 How could I stand the trial !

- 2 Should mercy with thee not prevail
To show to man thy favor,
His ev'ry act his guilt would swell,
Vain were his best endeavor.
His goodness in its utmost length,
Reveals his utter want of strength, —
He must rely on mercy.
- 3 On God alone, and on his grace,
Can I securely rest me ;
He sees my heart, He heals distress, —
To Him, then, why not trust me ?
He owns a Father's name, and knows
The full amount of human woes —
On Him be my reliance !
- 4 Should comfort seem afar to keep,
I'll not sink down despairing ;
They who in godly sorrow weep
Shall find a gracious hearing :
Thus Christians do, and they are blest
In God, their confidence and rest,
Their comfort, and Redeemer.
- 5 Many and great my sins, I own,
But greater God's free mercies :
From wrath I flee to his dear Son,
Who bore for me its curses :
And He will be my Shepherd, too,
Will all my troubles guide me through,
To rest with him in glory.

M. Luther.

THE LOVE OF GOD THE CHIEF GOOD.

---

- 1 How could I wish a greater blessing
Than that the God of love were mine?
If all the world I were possessing,
For this would I the world resign:
Yet, from his love, how many fleeing
Despise the fountain of well being!
- 2 Men hope elsewhere a good unchanging,
But wake and find their hopes a dream:—
Some, in the search, through earth are ranging,
But all their search deceives their aim:—
Some jeopard life in country's quarrels,
Yet gain at best but fading laurels.
- 3 Gives God no means his love of knowing?—
Forget ye who your souls would save?
Who, on the cross his life's blood flowing,
Such proofs of love for sinners gave?
Are ye indeed still left in blindness
How he has shown his loving-kindness?—
- 4 That He to earth came down from heaven,
The God in human form reveal'd?
What words of life by Him were given?
How many by his grace were heal'd?
And how, your endless good devising,
He bore the curse, its shame despising?

- 5 Can ye, unmov'd, now hear this message,
 And proofs of love still ask for more ?
 Nor to your hearts yield Him a passage,
 Who bars to you Hell's fearful door ?
 Why not to him your souls surrender —
 To him your highest service tender ?
- 6 Thou God of love, do thou receive me !
 Thou art my life, my hope, my all :
 Though worldly pleasures all should leave me,
 No loss would I their absence call ; —
 Thou'lt make it gain, — and I before thee,
 Rejoicing, ever will adore thee.

26. SINNERS RECEIVED BY JESUS.

---

- 1 “ THIS man sinners doth receive ! ”
 Well may we the saying ponder,
 Who in sin's delusions live,
 'And from God and heaven wander : —
 This alone can hope revive —
 “ Jesus sinners doth receive ! ”
- 2 We deserve but grief and shame, —
 Yet his words, rich grace revealing,
 Pardon, peace, and life proclaim :
 Here their ills have perfect healing
 Who with humble hearts believe.
 “ Jesus sinners doth receive ! ”

- 3 As a faithful shepherd seeks
Sheep that from the fold are straying,
He, with eye that ever wakes,
Watches us whom sin's betraying,
And from ruin would retrieve. —
“Jesus sinners doth receive!”
- 4 Come, ye wand'ers, one and all,
Come, we all have invitation, —
Come, obey his gracious call,
Come and take his free salvation!
He has died that we might live. —
“Jesus sinners doth receive!”
- 5 Savior, now I come to thee:
Great my sins, a weary burden!
Wilt thou kindness show to me?
Can I hope to find a pardon?
I will trust; my soul relieve!
Me, a sinner, LORD, receive!
- 6 Rich thy mercy! — strangely good!
O how oft have I offended!
But, through thy redeeming blood,
All my fear of wrath is ended:
Yes, I now can witness give,
“Jesus sinners doth receive!”
- 7 Now, though conscience be at rest,
Will the Law still urge its charges?
Who the Law has honor'd best,
He from guilt my soul enlarges;
Hence my comfort I derive, —
“Jesus sinners doth receive!”

- 8 "Jesus sinners doth receive!"
 Happy in his ceaseless favor,
 Here for heaven I will live,
 Then shall live with him forever.
 Joy in death these tidings give —
 "Jesus sinners doth receive!"

E. Neumeister.

27. THE FATHER-LAND.

- 1 Know ye the land — on earth 'twere vainly sought, —
 To which the heart in sorrows turns its thought?
 Where no complaint is heard, — tears never flow, —
 The good are blest, — the weak with vigor glow?
 Know ye it well?
 For this, for this,
 All earthly wish or care, my friends, dismiss!
- 2 Know ye the way — the rugged path of thorns?
 His lagging progress there the trav'ler mourns;
 He faints, he sinks, — from dust he cries to God —
 "O shorten, Father, now the weary road!"
 Know ye it well?
 It guides, it guides,
 To that dear land, where all we hope abides.
- 3 Know ye that friend? — In him a man you see; —
 Yet more than man, more than all men is He:
 Himself, before us, trod the path of thorns,
 To pilgrims now his heart with pity turns.
 Know ye him well?
 His hand, his hand
 Will safely bring us to that Father-land.

THE SAVIOR FOUND.

---

- 1 WHAT, without thee, would I have been?
Without thee, LORD, what should I be?
Before I had thy mercy seen.
No friend or hope appear'd for me.
What I desir'd I scarcely knew,
Upon the future darkness fell,
And, though my grief incessant grew,
To whom could I my sorrows tell?
- 2 With spirits sunk, and all alone,
The day to me was gloomy night:
Joyless I still was pressing on
Where others seem'd to have delight:
I vainly sought for peace abroad,
At home the prey of constant grief, —
How did I live without my God!
Endure so long without relief!
- 3 But thou hast brought thy mercy nigh, —
The purpose first was clearly thine; —
How soon the clouds of darkness fly,
When God commands his light to shine!
Till then my reason was debas'd,
But thou hast taught my soul to rise,
And what had been a dreary waste,
Blooms round me now a paradise.
- 4 Life, now, with halcyon days is crown'd,
The world breathes love and joy to me,
I find a balm for ev'ry wound,
My cheerful breast throbs full and free.

For this thy rich, unbounded grace,
 My heart and pow'rs to thee are giv'n ;
Here, 'mong thy friends grant me a place,
 Till thou receive my soul to heav'n.

5 There, He in upper glory stands,
 Whom, though unseen, we love below,
 His varied grief for us demands
 That grateful tears for him should flow ;
 That we our hearts should open wide
 To all who love Immanuel's name,
 Should pity those for whom he died,
 And to the world his grace proclaim.

6 Now go ye forth in all the ways,
 And hither bring poor wand'ers home,
 Urgent resist their vain delays ;
 All now is ready, — bid them "come!"
 'T is heav'n to be with us below,
 By faith its glories here we see, —
 But more than brightest faith can show
 Shall there our endless portion be.

Hardenberg.

GRACE ACCEPTED.

---

1 To THEE, Lord Jesus, now I come,
 From mercy's door no longer roam,
 But seek thy gracious pardon :
 With load of sins my soul oppress'd
 From sorrows cannot look for rest,
 Till thou remove the burden.

I else must sink in dark despair,
 And never hope His love to share
 To whom the heavens are unclean —
 An heir of death I must remain.

Lord Jesus Christ !

Thy mercy show ! :||:

And save me from eternal wo !

- 2 Sin's yoke, for me too heavy grown,
 Now weighs my sinking spirit down —

Let, Lord, the yoke be broken !

O think — beneath sin's grievous load
 Thy soul for mine to death was bow'd,

Think what thy mouth has spoken.

The guilt my sins upon me lay, —

Thy blood can wash it all away ;

For thy salvation now I plead,

Thy grace can meet my ev'ry need : —

Lord Jesus Christ,

That grace fulfil, :||:

Nor yield me up to Satan's will !

- 3 Thou art my confidence alone,
 Beside, no helper will I own,
 Physician of my spirit !
 None else can cheer the soul with faith :
 None else, by vict'ry over death,
 Can teach me not to fear it.

My shield of strength, my port of rest,

Thou rock and fortress of the blest,

My Savior, my almighty friend,

My hope of joys that never end —

Lord Jesus Christ !

Accept my faith, :||:

Increase it till I sleep in death !

- 4 Henceforth my willing neck shall bear
 Whatever yoke thou placest there,
 Nor will its weight oppress me.
 Beneath it, I shall find my peace,
 And by it, while I grow in grace,
 My sorrows too shall bless me.
 When, passing through this vale of tears,
 I meet with trials and with fears,
 Fresh hopes from thee, their living source,
 Shall help me end with joy my course.
 Lord Jesus Christ,
 Alone thy love :||:
 Gives hope below, or joy above !

J. A. Freylinghausen.

REST IN JESUS.

- 1 I now have found abiding rest
 For which I long was sighing,
 Now, on my Savior's faithful breast
 My weary head is lying :
 This is the place where sin, no more,
 And Death and Hell alarm me ;
 I now am safe, by Jesus' pow'r,
 From all that else would harm me.
- 2 He whispers me — " I'm wholly thine,
 " And thou art mine forever ;
 " Henceforth all fear and doubt resign, —
 " Confiding in my favor !

“Thy ev’ry want shall find supply
 “From my exhaustless treasures;
 “I’ll fill thy spirit with my joy,
 “The pledge of endless pleasures.”

- 3 From Jesus and his love, Who now,
 By terrors to divide me,
 My great and many sins would show? —
 His wounds from vengeance hide me:
 My sins are great, — I’ll not despair,
 Though conscience too arraigns me,
 Nor doubt my Savior’s watchful care —
 His arm of love sustains me.
- 4 I thank thee, God’s beloved Son,
 Thy boundless grace adoring,
 Which brought thee from thy glorious throne,
 Our peace with God restoring.
 O make my heart a shrine, where peace
 Shall keep her constant dwelling; —
 Where grateful praise shall never cease,
 Abroad thy glories telling.

31. SAFETY IN JESUS.

---

- 1 SINAI flames its awful wonders, —
 How can I its terrors meet?
 Where’s a Rock that, from its thunders,
 Yields a cleft of safe retreat?
 Rock — thou none wilt find but Jesus, —
 Such a cleft, his wounded side; —
 There, no dread of wrath can seize us, —
 Jesus bore our curse, and died.

- 2 Place of Refuge — where ? — O tell me !
That my soul may thither fly,
Now that guilt and fear o'erwhelm me,
With the blood-avenger nigh.
Refuge ? — there is none but Jesus, —
To his wounds for rescue turn !
He, from vengeance to release us,
Has the stroke of vengeance borne.
- 3 Wretched, naked, child of loathing,
Must I shame forever bear ?
Where can I obtain me clothing,
And before my God appear ?
Jesus' dying love can give it, —
Hence our robe of righteousness ;
All by faith may now receive it, —
None could wish a richer dress.
- 4 But my crimes, of countless number,
— More than sands upon the shore, —
With their load my soul encumber ; —
What can meet the dreadful score ?
Nothing but the blood of Jesus,
This a perfect ransom paid,
He from all our load will ease us,
While our faith on him is stay'd.
- 5 Where's a fountain ever-flowing,
That can slake my thirsty heart ?
And from filth of evil-doing,
Cleansing to my soul impart ?

Jesus' wounds — from these are bursting
 Living streams of sacred blood,
 Here may drink the heart that's thirsting,
 Here the soul be cleansed for God.

- 6 Are there mansions — who will show them? —
 That with constant peace are blest?
 Where afflictions — none shall know them, —
 And from care my soul may rest?
 Such a place is Christ preparing, —
 Faith, e'en here, secures our peace; —
 Who His suff'rings now is sharing,
 Soon shall share his home of bliss.

Waltersdorf.

32. CHRIST OUR ROCK.

- 1 I now have found the Rock of ages,
 And, with it, all that soul would crave;
 This Rock — unmoved when tempest rages,
 This Rock — from which the swollen wave
 With broken billows back is rolling —
 When storms from Hell's abyss were howling,
 Received me to its shelt'ring cleft.
 My soul, dismiss all doubt and terror,
 Thy faith is no delusive error,
Here safe retreat for thee is left.
- 2 Oppress'd with guilt of sins so many,
 My soul was as the troubled sea;
 Nor help for me appear'd there any,
 But dark despair awaited me.

While conscience, for my sins accusing,
All hope of light or life refusing,
    Disclos'd the world of wo beneath, —
As one that's toss'd on ocean's surges,
Where each to ruin onward urges,
    I struggled on the brink of death.

- 3 On me, when now all hope was dying,
    The Savior look'd ; — nor stood apart : —
He heard my voice for mercy crying,
    And pity moved his tender heart :
To me his wounded body showing,
And from the wounds his life's blood flowing,
    He cried — “ Come, weary sinner, come !
“ I am the rock for thee was riven,
“ A refuge in my wounds is given,
    “ Haste ! for thy shelter here is room ! ”

- 4 What comfort, now, my spirit borrows,
    Rock of my strength, — what joys from thee !
Where now is gone that flood of sorrows ?
    Lo ! — backward roll its waves from me.
Now finds my soul, to its full measure,
In thee its paradise of pleasure ; —
    What pure delights my bosom fill !
Of all the bliss I share before thee,
I deeply feel I'm all unworthy, —
    Yet thankful take it : — such thy will.

- 5 Let then the angry winds be roaring !
    Let sea and sky their fury wage !
The floods of Death their storm be pouring,
    And Satan double all his rage !

All this but little can alarm me, —
My Rock secures that nothing harm me,
Though darkness all my prospect hide.
Let sink with fear both hill and mountain,
My Rock will stand ; — a ceaseless fountain
Of life still flowing from its side.

33. TREASURE IN HEAVEN.

---

- 1 ASPIRE, my heart, on high to live !
For there is found thy treasure :
What's here, would all thy hopes deceive, —
That only suits their measure.
Poor is the wealth that soon must fail,
None other can for thee avail
Than riches stor'd in heaven.
- 2 'Tis all a gift, — not wages paid, —
This treasure none can merit ;
And Jesus, who atonement made,
He, only, can confer it.
The soul could have no higher good,
Than God's beloved Son, with blood,
For us has dearly purchas'd.
- 3 This is a treasure will remain, —
By faith in him, we seal it :
No foe can make its title vain,
No thief can ever steal it.
Nor Death, nor Time, its worth destroys,
'T will be a source of holy joys,
Long as the soul is living.

- 4 This treasure, Lord, to me commend,
And teach my heart to prize it; —
Compar'd with this, what earth can lend —
Sincerely to despise it.
For me to die will then be gain,
And when thy courts I shall attain,
I will forever thank thee.
- P. F. Hiller.

34. CHRIST THE BELIEVER'S PORTION.

---

- 1 JESUS, my chief pleasure,
Comfort's richest treasure,
Portion of my soul !
Pow'r and Grace revealing,
Sin's distemper healing,
Thou wilt make me whole.
Have I thee ? —
'T is wealth to me !
Earth, without thee, all else giving,
Were my wants deceiving.
- 2 Thou for me engaging,
Storms are vainly raging,
They can work no harm.
Let the rocks be shaking,
Earth itself be quaking,
Nature show alarm, —
Shall I fear ?
Though, far and near,
All conspiring would confound me,
Still thy arms are round me.

- 3 'Mid terrific wonders,
Sinai speaks in thunders ; —
Jesus quells my dread.
Death may o'er me hover,
Grave in darkness cover, —
Jesus meets my need.
Judgment, too,
I fearless view,
He my judge to sight is offer'd
Who for me has suffer'd.
- 4 Who, with smooth deceiving,
Lures me from believing,
Or would shake my faith ?
Scoffs let foes be flinging,
Songs will I be singing,
Praising God till death.
I'm secure
By Jesus' power ;
He of foes can rule the madness,
Crowning faith with gladness.
- 5 " Gold —'bove all things prize it !
" Honor — idolize it ! "
Say the worldly wise.
These shall never blind me,
Nor apostate find me
Who the faith denies.
Grief nor loss, —
Shame, death, the cross,
No disasters that betide me,
Shall from Christ divide me.

- 6 Earth's delusive bubbles,
 Source of human troubles,
 Countless victims make.
 World ! — your bondage breaking,
 All your joys forsaking,
 Now my leave I take.
 Envy, Pride,
 All sin beside —
 From your chains will Christ deliver,
 Freeing me forever.
- 7 Cares and fears have vanished, —
 All complaint is banished, —
 Jesus — He is mine !
 Whoso here shall love him,
 Though dark trials prove him,
 Light on him shall shine.
 Should distress
 My soul oppress,
 From my Savior still I borrow
 Joy in all my sorrow.

VANITY OF EARTH.

- 1 EARTH's boasted joys and splendor
 No real good can render,
 However fair they seem :
 What now may most delight us,
 With eager hopes excite us, —
 We soon shall find an idle dream.

2 Men toil with ceaseless trouble —
For what? — Some airy bubble
That can no profit give.
What's life? — A flick'ring taper
Emitting deadly vapor: —
Where flatt'ring most, 't will most deceive.

3 The fame which here we covet,
As if 't were endless, love it, —
Is all an empty breath;
Soon as we yield our spirit,
We never more shall hear it,
'T will sink, with us, forgot in death.

4 'T were vain, on skill or science
To set our fond reliance —
They cannot death abide.
Whose pride more room would borrow,
And finds this world too narrow —
They'll find a narrow grave too wide.

5 Our gains must be forsaken —
For which such pains are taken,
And toil — that rest denies:
Success in our endeavors
Can win from Death no favors,
And when we die, to us it dies.

6 E'en as a rose at morning,
Its parent-stock adorning,
Expands beneath the light;
But, ere the day is ended,
Or light with darkness blended,
Its bloom is struck by with'ring blight:

- 7 So we on earth are blooming,
    In hope, to greatness coming,
    From care and sorrow free ;
    But e'er we have attain'd it, —
    Or all our bloom — have gain'd it, —
The blast of Death sweeps us away.
- 8 Awake, my soul ! — remind thee !
    Of life that's here assign'd thee,
    What's now, alone is thine.
    The past — 't is as the river
    Whose waves roll onward ever, —
The future — who can say “ ‘T is mine !’ ” ?
- 9 Of man reject the story
    That vaunts his power and glory,
    And trust in God alone.
    His pow'r — o'er all 't is reigning,
    His time — 't is never waning, —
Of glory He awards the crown.
- 10 Blest he in God confiding
    For joys with Him abiding !
    Though here he soon may die,
    He there shall live forever
    In God's unbounded favor, —
He's blest whose portion is on high !

A. Gryphius.

36. VANITY OF THE WORLD.

- 1 WHY vex thyself with anxious fears,
My soul, or weary thee with cares
About mere earthly good ?
Confide thyself to GOD alone,
The earth and skies are all his own.
- 2 His pow'r and will can never fail
To meet thy wants. He knows them well,
He all thy burden knows :
He is thy Father, and thy God,
Will comfort thee on all thy road.—
- 3 My GOD and Father ! — Yes, thou art,
And well I know thy tender heart
Will ne'er thy child forget.
Besides thyself, I here below
Nor hope, nor consolation know.
- 4 Let others on their riches rest :
I build on GOD ; in him am blest,
In poverty am rich.
He is my wealth, I need no more ;
Who trusts in Him is never poor.
- 5 Thy riches, LORD, forever last,
To-day as in all ages past :
In thee I may confide.
Thy stores of grace in me display !
For other wealth I cannot pray.

- 6 All worldly pomp I well can spare,
If I may endless honors share
By thee for sinners bought,
Dear Savior, with thy precious blood :
For these I'll pray, my Lord and God.
- 7 Whate'er it be earth values most,
Gold, silver, jewels — or may boast
Of pleasure, — or of power, —
All these will quickly pass away,
Nor help to meet the judgment-day.
- 8 I thank thee, God's beloved Son,
Who, from thy great and glorious throne,
To me thy truth hast giv'n :
And by the truth do thou prepare
My soul thy glory, too, to share !
- 9 Love, honor, praise to thee be brought,
For that salvation thou hast taught !
My faith, dear Lord, confirm !
That I, in realms of endless light,
May ever live before thy sight.

Hans Sachs.

37. CHRISTIAN'S ESTIMATE OF THE WORLD.

---

- 1 CAN I this world esteem,
Or here repose my treasure,
When I alone in thee,
Dear Jesus, find my pleasure ?
Thou art my chosen good,
Without thee, joy's a dream ;
With thee, I need no more —
Can I this world esteem ?

- 2 This world is like the smoke
In air full quickly failing ;
'Tis like the shadow vain
Of clouds fast onward sailing :
All, all soon flits away, —
But Christ abides the same ;
He's my enduring Rock, —
Can I this world esteem ?

- 3 The world their honors seek,
To earthly great-ones bending ;
Nor will at all reflect
That these to dust are tending :
To Him who ever lives,
Whom I my glory deem,
To Christ — they scorn to bow ; —
Can I the world esteem ?

- 4    The world for riches strive,
      Their toil no respite suffers ;
      The best reward they hope
Is treasure in their coffers :
      I know a higher good,
      A treasure that's supreme ; —
      'T is Jesus, — He is mine ; —
      Can I the world esteem ?
- 5    The world feel deep the wound,
      If any are despising
      Or wish to lower, them,
Upon their ruin rising :
      But if it please my Lord,
      For him I'll suffer shame,
      In this my glory seek ; —
      Can I the world esteem ?
- 6    The world to darling lusts
      Admit no curb or measure,
      For seeking joys on high
They find no heart or leisure ;
      The wretch who scorns restraint
      Will meet his friends with them ; —
      While then I love my God,
      Can I the world esteem ?
- 7    Can I this world esteem ?
      How soon its honors vanish !
      These cannot from the brow
Death's pallid tokens banish :

Its riches — they are dust !
 Its joys — a lying name !
 But Christ — eternal bliss !
 Can I this world esteem ?

- 8 Can I this world esteem ?
 Christ is my life forever,
 My wealth, all my estate :
 I rest upon His favor
 My portion here, — above,
 My ev'ry hope and aim ; —
 Once more, then, I would say —
Can I this world esteem ?

G. M. Pfefferkorn.

38. VANITY OF EARTHLY PURSUITS.

- 1 BEWARE, O man, lest endless life
 From all thy thoughts be driven,
 And, when Death calls thee to the strife,
Then first thou think of heaven !
- 2 Are riches, honors, worldly show,
 For heav'n the soul's adorning ;
 That thou, pursuing these, should know
 Small quiet — eve or morning ?
- 3 To us the scriptures plainly say —
 This globe itself shall perish :
 As if they would forever stay,
 Shall we its baubles cherish ?

- 4 Art thou not daily made aware
How many Death has taken ?
Full poor they pass thee on their bier,
By all their wealth forsaken.
- 5 What has the earth with thee to send ?
With what can it enrich thee ?
Its pomp, its wealth, its pleasures end —
So Death, ere long, will teach thee.
- 6 All real good is found above, —
'Tis worth thy full endeavor ;
It well deserves thy constant love,
Its bliss endures forever.
- 7 Who can describe the boundless store
That there awaits the pious ?
What could we want, that Jesus' pow'r
And love cannot supply us ?
- 8 Nor eye has seen, nor ear has heard,
Man's heart it never enter'd,
What things God has for them prepar'd
Whose love on him is centred.
- 9 How long must I here grope in night ?
Could I his pinions borrow,
Swift as the eagle in his flight,
I'd leave this world of sorrow.
- 10 Come, take me, Jesus, — thither bring
Where angels bow before thee !
Take me where saints with angels sing,
That I may there adore thee !

39. JESUS AND THE WORLD.

- 1 O TELL me not of glitt'ring treasure,
Of pomp and splendor here below ;
The earth to me can yield no pleasure,
With all its pomp and glitt'ring show.
Let others love whate'er they will,
My heart prefers my Savior still.

- 2 In Him alone is joy abiding, —
He is my hope, my chief desire :
Upon his word my soul confiding,
To endless pleasures would aspire.
Let others love whate'er they will,
My heart prefers my Savior still.

- 3 The world — its joys are scarcely tasted,
The flesh — its beauty cannot last,
For time will these have quickly wasted ;
The pride of man will soon be past.
Let others love whate'er they will,
My heart prefers my Savior still.

- 4 His saving pow'r, rich grace revealing,
Shall in its strength forever stay ;
His throne, in glory never failing,
Shall stand when time has pass'd away.
Let others love whate'er they will,
My heart prefers my Savior still.

- 5 His wealth is always outward going, —
 Its store no diminution knows ;
 While other springs withhold their flowing,
 This fountain with full waters flows.
 Let others love whate'er they will,
 My heart prefers my Savior still.
- 6 He, to the skies my soul receiving,
 Can bless when other bliss is none ;
 Will there, my ev'ry want relieving,
 Delight me when all else is gone.
 Let others love whate'er they will,
 My heart prefers my Savior still.
- 7 Though many cares may here oppress me,
 While I a pilgrim seek my home ;
 Yet He has said all good shall bless me,
 When to his glory I shall come.
 With joy I'll seek to do his will,
 Confiding in his mercy still.

40. THE WISDOM OF THE JUST.

---

- 1 HERE many wise and prudent grow,
 A name for knowledge gaining,
 And much of understanding show
 In things to earth pertaining :
 But he whom Christ has taught, will choose
 A wisdom that the world refuse —
The wisdom of the righteous.

2 In GOD alone, for needed grace,
He places his reliance ;
To faith his heart accords its place,
And yields a glad compliance ;
His Savior's word and life he knows,
And then, by words and living shows —
The wisdom of the righteous.

3 Let all the wisdom earth has taught
Together be united, —
Can it avail to cleanse the spot
By which the soul is blighted ?
This work of pow'r is only done
Through faith in GOD's beloved Son —
The wisdom of the righteous.

4 Man's wisdom — will it fears allay
When Death shall o'er him hover ?
Or can it tell how near the day
When dust his dust shall cover ?
Here darkness fills the wise with grief,
One thing alone can work relief —
The wisdom of the righteous.

5 The worldly wise would gladly waive
All thoughts of Death, and dying ; —
Their wisdom, bounded by the grave,
No hope beyond supplying.
The gospel, gleaming through the night,
Brings immortality to light —
The wisdom of the righteous.

- 6 Dear Saviour, make me good and wise !
 Thy mercy spread around me !
 The world and flesh against me rise,
 With errors would confound me :
 O keep me safely in the road
 That leads to glory and to God, —
 Then, crown me with the righteous !

41. PRAISE TO CHRIST.

---

- 1 LOVE, honor, praise and thanks to thee,
 For, Jesus, thou art worthy ;
 But praises, that shall worthy be,
 Who, Lord, can bring before thee !
 Ere light arose, thy glory shone,
 Thyself God's equal, only Son,
 The glory of the Highest.
 Thine is the kingdom, — thine the pow'r,
 O'er all thou rulest evermore, —
 To all, thou all suppliest.
- 2 They're thine — for by whose sov'reign might
 Creation — has it standing ?
 When man and angels burst to light,
 Who spoke — “live ye !” — commanding ?
 Thou art the Word — unchang'd the same —
 By which the world to being came, —
 All that has life and motion ;
 Whate'er we see, what lives unseen,
 Whate'er the earth and sky contain,
 What shelters in the ocean.

- 3 And yet to us how strangely good !
For our sakes hither coming,
And to thyself our flesh and blood,
Of thy own will, assuming ;
What shame and grief to thee it cost
To seek and rescue what was lost,
The curse for us enduring !
A love like thine, none shows beside,
For sins our own, thyself hast died,
Thus life for us procuring.
- 4 Thou gavest life, — thou givest still,
On high in glory seated ;
Thou savest us from Satan's will,
With all our sins remitted, —
While thy delight from bonds to free
And cheer the heart that trusts in thee,
Excites our joy and wonder.
Of weary souls thou art the rest,
And them, who with thy love are blest,
Naught from thy love can sunder.
- 5 Thou hearest when thy people pray,
And stillest their complaining ;
Till earth and sky shall pass away,
Thy care for them retaining.
We are thy chosen heritage,
Let endless thanks our hearts engage,
For thy distinguish'd favor : —
To thee, O Lord, my all I give,
Grant that I here for thee may live,
Then live with thee forever !

42.

LOVE TO CHRIST.

- 1 I LOVE thee, Lord, with love sincere,
And pray thee ever to be near,
Thy needed grace bestowing;
The universe, I prize it not, —
Things here — above — alike forgot, —
While thou thy love art showing.
And when with griefs I am oppress'd,
To thee alone I look for rest; —
Nor let it, Savior, e'er be said
Thy blood for me was vainly shed.
Lord Jesus Christ,
I love thy name,
My love inflame!
And never turn my hope to shame!
- 2 Who was it, but thyself, who gave
My body, soul — all that I have,
And life — my term of trial?
For doing good I grace implore,
That all I have may praise thee more, —
Nor wilt thou give denial.
O save me, Lord, from error's path,
From Satan's wiles, from Satan's wrath:
My heart with courage too prepare,
That ev'ry cross I well may bear.
Lord Jesus Christ,
My King on high,
At death be nigh,
And teach thy servant how to die.

- 3 May waiting angels, when in death,
 Sustain'd by thee, I yield my breath,
     Convey my soul to heaven !
 My body sleep — no more to break
 Its rest, till — all the dead to wake, —
     Th' archangel's shout is given.
 Then, from the dust with joy I'll rise,
 To hail thee coming from the skies,
 On clouds of majesty enthron'd,
 And with eternal glory crown'd.
     Lord Jesus Christ,
     My song of praise
     To thee I'll raise,
 Nor cease to sing through endless days.
- Martin Schalling.

43. LOVE TO CHRIST TESTED.

---

- 1 ALL with Jesus are delighted,
 While he speaks of joys to come,
 Thinking that to them is plighted
 After death a happy home :
 But " The cross " — when he declares it —
 " None, but he who takes and bears it,
     " Can my true disciple be : " —
 Few — how few ! — to this agree.
- 2 All are pleas'd when — " Come ye weary ! "
 They can hear the Savior say :
 But 't is language harsh and dreary —
     " Enter ye the narrow way ! "

While "Hosanna!" men are singing,
All can love; — but when is ringing —
"Crucify him!" — at the sound,
Nothing more of love is found.

3 While his hands are food supplying,
All with joy his bounty take;
When in anguish he is lying,
None for his protection wake.
Thus may Jesus have our praises,
While our hopes and joys he raises;
But should he his favor hide,
Love to him would not abide.

4 Is thy joy in Christ arising
From thy love to him alone?
In his sorrows sympathizing,
Canst thou make his griefs thy own?
Should he cease with hope to bless thee, —
Should dark fears and doubts distress thee, —
Still confiding, couldst thou say —
"Jesus, thou art all my stay"?

5 In thyself, Lord, thou art worthy,
All our love is but thy due:
Saints and angels cry before thee —
"Thou art holy, just, and true!"
Whoso, in thy bright perfections,
Finds for him thy best attractions,
Has, in loving thee, a part
That shall satisfy the heart.

- 6 What thy love and mercy offer,
 Loving thee would I obtain ;
 And, if call'd for thee to suffer,
 It will be my endless gain.
 Here my soul, in all its sorrows,
 Peace from thee, and comfort borrows ;
 And if joys from earth remove,
 'Tis to flourish more above.

44. CONFIDENCE IN CHRIST.

---

- 1 LORD Jesus Christ, my spirit's health,
 My highest good, my only wealth,
 Whatever shall betide me, —
 My heart's delight thou'lt ever be,
 No joy or sorrow shall from thee
 And from thy love divide me.
 Thou makest me to know thy way,
 Thy hand of mercy is my stay,
 It guides my course in all its length,
 And in my weakness gives me strength.
 Lord Jesus Christ,
 Thou art my light
 Through nature's night,
 O never hide thee from my sight !
- 2 My all is govern'd by thy will,
 But this reveals thy mercy still,
 And to my good is tending :
 It oft my wish may strangely cross,
 But soon I see, what seem'd a loss,
 In gain as strangely ending.

With weary steps, by dreary road,
I yet may reach thy bright abode,
There with the saints whom thou wilt bless,
To wear the crown of righteousness.

Thou, Jesus Christ,

Art my desire,

All I require, —

My warmest hopes to thee aspire.

3 On thee alone I rest my all, —

With thee, for nothing else I call

When evils here oppress me :

Nay ! — what were heav'n aside from thee ?

'T would be a thankless gift to me,

Unless my Savior bless me.

What then has earth, without thy love,

That could my soul's affections move ?

Throughout the universe, beside,

There's none in whom I can confide.

Lord Jesus Christ,

My life thou art !

Shouldst thou depart,

All hope and joy forsake my heart.

4 And were it so, that I beneath

Shame, torture, agony and death,

Must, soul and body, perish : —

Should pains and fears still onward swell,

Till all around me were a Hell, —

My faith I yet would cherish.

But thou wilt be my spirit's health,
My chosen good, my only wealth : —
And I too shall — must ever be,
Both soul and body, blest in thee.

Lord Jesus Christ,
Thy word I take,
And those who make
Their trust in thee, thou'lt ne'er forsake.

5 Who will not thy free grace receive,
Nor, with the heart, in thee believe, —
He must to wo be driven :
Who for the world's vain pleasures lives,
To these his heart and service gives,
Is all unfit for heaven :

And he, on lusts of flesh intent,
Who will not for his sins repent,
Nor here on thee for mercy wait,
Must cry for mercy when too late.

Lord Jesus Christ,
For me appear !
Why should I fear ?
To faith thou art forever near.

6 I therefore bind myself to thee :
Thou, too, hast bound thyself to me,
And hence my joy I borrow :
My confidence on thee is fast,
My Rock, that firm shall ever last
In joy and, too, in sorrow ;

All thou hast done, thy deeds of grace,
 Shall fill my heart and mouth with praise,
 Till I shall rise to thee above,
 And see thee whom unseen I love.

Lord Jesus Christ,
 Haste on the day,
 Nor longer stay !
 Come quickly ! Why so long delay ?

E. Neumeister.

45. CHRIST THE GOOD SHEPHERD.

1 Good Shepherd and tender,
 Thy flock's great defender,
 Thy wide-scatter'd flock are now longing for thee.
 'Mid dangers they're straying,
 False guides are betraying, —
 Restore them thy presence, and troubles shall flee.

2 O come, spread thy cover,
 While storms o'er them hover,
 And days are all gloomy with terror and pain :
 In green pastures feed them,
 By still waters lead them,
 And make them rejoice in thy favor again.

3 Thy grace once were sharing
 The simple, way-faring ;
 The languishing soul with thy mercy was blest :
 Where hope was now failing,
 Thy glad voice was hailing —
 " Come near, heavy-laden, and I'll give you rest ! "

- 4            Thy church in their dangers,
              Wilt thou leave to strangers ?
Their hopes and their safety on thee must depend :
              The word thou hast spoken
              Can never be broken —
“ Behold I am with you until the world’s end ! ”

46.            CHRIST’S PRESENCE HIS PEOPLE’S JOY.

---

- 1 JESUS, our Lord, when thou art near,
              The soul enjoys a sacred peace ;
Thy gracious look calms every fear,
              And thrills our mortal frame with bliss
                 And gratitude.
- 2 Not that we see thy smiling face
              And outward mien, with nat’ral eye,
But still our souls thy beauty trace ; —
              For thou canst bring thy glories nigh,
                 Thy form unseen.
- 3 In showing mercy, truth, and love,
              Thy readiness to pardon sin ; —
To cleanse, to bless, to lift above
              And, as a friend, our hearts to win,
                 Thou art reveal’d.

[4 When round us earthly prospects smile,
And pleasures their temptation spread, —
Be near ! — lest these to sin beguile,
Show us the path where thou hast led
To better joys.]

5 When sorrows rise, our souls relieve
With mem'ry of thy vict'ry won ;
This shall our drooping hopes revive,
And thus thy presence, with us shown,
Be seen by all.

6 Be ever near us, gracious Lord,
To all our trials suit thy care :
And, happy in thy kind regard,
By faith and love would we prepare
Near thee to shine.

47. THE JOY OF GOD'S PRESENCE.

---

1 WHY is my heart so far from thee,
Thou only source of pleasure ;
While fear, and toil, and grief to me
From care permit no leisure ?
O leave me not in hopeless night,
Nor hide me, Father, from thy sight
Where spirits are rejoicing.

2 Thick darkness here is spread around, —
And must I struggle ever
For light and peace, — yet all be found
A fruitless, sad endeavor ?

With sin the never-ceasing strife,
The burdens of this mortal life,
To dust my soul are sinking.

3 Too weak am I, by strength of mine,
Where dwell thy joys, to tower ;
Too weak, where hosts of darkness join,
To quell their prince's power.
Within, around, I trouble see, —
Where look for help ? — O God, on thee
Alone is my reliance.

4 With humble faith upon thy word,
My all in all I take thee ;
Be thou my Rock, my shield and sword !
I never will forsake thee :
Though sin my soul has oft defil'd,
Through Jesus, I am yet thy child,
And Thou, my gracious father.

5 The vict'ry thou wilt guide : — 't is well !
The strife I'll dread no longer :
Of fears — no more would dare to tell,
The weak shall prove the stronger.
Thou wilt to me thy presence grant,
And, with thy smile, I nothing want
For earth, or yet for heaven.

JESUS REMEMBERED.

---

- 1 REMEMBER Jesus, God's dear Son,
My soul, — 't was thy salvation,
That brought him from his glory down
To live in humble station.
Forget him not ! — 't was for thy good
He took upon him flesh and blood, —
O thank him for this mercy !
- 2 Remember Jesus, God's dear Son ;
For thee his griefs were suffer'd ;
His death has thy deliv'rance won,
And life to thee is offer'd ;
The agonies by him endur'd
Eternal joys for thee procur'd, —
O thank him for this mercy !
- 3 Remember Jesus, God's dear Son ;
He, from the dead awaking,
In pow'r at God's right hand is shown,
Death's gloomy bondage breaking ;
From sin and death he sets thee free, —
In serving him is liberty ; —
O thank him for this mercy !
- 4 Remember Jesus, God's dear Son ;
The crown of vict'ry wearing,
Back to his glory he has gone,
A place for thee preparing :
That thou, in glory too, may see
His honors and his majesty —
O thank him for this mercy !

5 Remember Jesus, God's dear Son;
    Soon He, the Judge is coming;
When saints with favor he will crown,
    To wrath the sinner dooming:
Be earnest now to gain the prize,
That thou with him above may rise,
    To thank his grace forever.

6 O grant me, Jesus, God's dear Son,
    That, in thy love abiding,
I ne'er forget what thou hast done,
    But, in thy strength confiding,
May, through thy death, be dead to sin:
And, through thy life, the vict'ry win,
    To reign in life eternal!

PRAYER.

---

1 WHO, LORD, has any good whatever,
    That does not from thyself proceed?
Of all good gifts thou art the giver,
    Supreme in counsel and in deed.
In all our wants, with humble pray'r,
    Thou biddest us to thee repair.

2 Obeying, I would now implore thee,
    And, while my many sins I own,
I courage take to come before thee,
    Since for me intercedes thy Son.
On Him alone my hopes rely
    That thou wilt not my suit deny.

- 3 Grant then to me, as thou approvest,
All that befits a child of thine :
None loves me, Father, as thou lovest,
None else can meet such wants as mine :
From sin, from slavish fear release,
And bless my soul with holy peace.
- 4 Grant me a faith shall never fail me,
One that shall always work by love :
To rob of this should foes assail me,
May it in me new courage move,
More boldly for the truth to strive,
And more by faith on thee to live.
- 5 Give me a conscience unoffending,
And prompting only what is right,
A heart, to duty's call attending,
As ever open to thy sight :
And when I err, so chasten me,
That I a father's love may see.
- 6 A heart that, in my days of gladness,
May never from thy fear decline ;
A heart that, under clouds of sadness,
May still submit its will to thine ;
A heart that loves to trust in thee,
And patient too, create in me.
- 7 All other good be thou supplying, —
What 't is I need thou knowest best :
With cheerful hope, for grace relying,
My weakness on thy strength I rest :
Thy constant guidance I require,
For this O strengthen my desire !

- 8 While yet on earth I may be staying,
Give grace my life for thee to spend ;
Death often to my thoughts displaying,
Then bring the day my life shall end,
That, when I'm call'd to go from this,
I may attain the world of bliss.

50. MISSIONARIES' PRAYER.

---

- 1 ALL our hope on Him's suspended,
Who from the skies to earth descended,
And bought us with his precious blood.
We are his, both flesh and spirit,
All that we have his favors merit,
And in his love we seek our good.
Lord, take us for thy own,
And with thy glory crown
Us confiding !
Give us a place,
Where endless grace
Is beaming from thy smiling face.
- 2 Not our choice, nor our endeavor
Has earn'd for us thy pard'ning favor, —
'Tis due to sov'reign grace alone :
Strength of ours is unavailing,
And all in works are ever failing,
But they in whom thy strength is shown.

Our earthly hopes restrain !
 For poverty is gain,
     Winning heaven.
 Who trusts thy care
     In self-despair,
 And bears thy cross, — has riches there.

- 3 Lord of harvest ! — Hear us praying
 — And are we not thy word obeying ? —
     “ Now to thy field more reapers send ! ”
King ! — thy heralds send, inviting
 As guests, all who, in grace delighting,
     May wish thy supper to attend.
     They, only they, find rest,
     Who there with thee shall feast
     In thy glory :
     Where care shall cease,
     And perfect peace
 Forevermore the soul shall bless.

- 4 Look upon the millions lying
 In shades of death, and hopeless dying,
     Divided from thy kingdom far :
     Age on age to them declining,
 For them no gospel has been shining,
     Their night has known no morning star.
     O Light of truth divine,
     Upon their darkness shine —
     Come, Lord Jesus !
     Go thou before,
     Our way explore,
 And set for us an open door !

- 5 We, thy wounds and pity showing,
From which to us salvation's flowing,
The wonders of thy dying love
Will to them be ever telling, —
And on thy cross so long be dwelling,
That kindred grief their hearts shall move.
For mighty is thy word,
And pierces, as a sword,
Soul and spirit :
Thy yoke of ease,
Thy Spirit's bliss —
And, too, we'll tell of paradise.
- 6 Works, for thee most glory winning,
Are oft despis'd at their beginning ; —
What though we are frail worms of dust ?
Thou wilt ever be beside us,
Thy strength sustain, thy wisdom guide us, —
In thee alone we put our trust.
Thy mustard-grain will grow,
Till it a tree shall show
Widely spreading ;
For thou, O LORD,
Wilt be its guard, —
For this we plead thy gracious word.

A GENERAL PRAYER.

---

- 1    OUR blessings come, O God,
     From thine exhaustless treasure;
     Of earthly good our shares
Are portion'd at thy pleasure.
     Grant to my body, LORD,
     A health that may endure,
     And to my spirit give
     A conscience that is pure.
- 2    May I too strive to learn,
     By ceaseless observation,
     How best I may perform
The service of my station :
     Wherever duty leads
     May I delight to go,
     On all I undertake
     Thy blessing, LORD, bestow.
- 3    Keep me from saying what
     May after need recalling;
     Guard me, lest idle words
May from my lips be falling;
     But when my duty leaves
     For silence no pretence,
     O make me wise to speak
     The truth without offence.
- 4    When danger shall arise,
     I would not too much fear it;
     My cross, whate'er it be,
     O give me strength to bear it.

May I the rage of foes
By gentleness subdue ;
And, when I counsel need,
May I the best pursue.

5 With all around, may I
In peace and love be living,
As by the Savior taught.
And if thy hand be giving
Increase of earthly store, —
To all I thus obtain,
May there be nothing join'd
Of an unrighteous gain.

6 And if old age I reach,
Ere life on earth is ended,
And must its trials meet
With all its weakness blended, —
Against the sins of age
Awake my jealous care,
That I gray hairs may thus
A crown of glory wear.

7 And let me die at last
My Christian faith professing ;
Take then my soul to thee,
To share eternal blessing :
And to my body give
Among thy dead a place,
That, as their ashes sleep,
Mine too may sleep in peace.

- 8 And when thy saints shall rise,
Then, Jesus, I implore thee,
Complete in righteousness,
May I appear before thee ;
And hear my Savior say,
In voice of tender love,
“ Come, ye redeem’d, and share
“ My perfect joys above ! ”

PRAYER FOR MERCIES IN GENERAL.

---

- 1 Now in thy presence I appear,
O LORD, my supplications hear !
The record of my crimes efface,
Thou God of mercy and of grace !
- 2 A heart that’s pure, create in me,
A heart to love and honor thee,
An humble heart of thanks and praise,
A heart to trust thee all my days.
- 3 Be thou my help when dangers rise,
On thee I rest my waiting eyes :
No ills can do my spirit harm,
While guarded by thy friendly arm.
- 4 Myself and hopes are in thy hand,
From thee, all that I understand ;
But still increase my knowledge, LORD,
By sure instructions of thy word.

- 5 Thy name — that it may yield delight,
O keep it ever in my sight !
My faith — that it may work my joy,
Let works of faith be my employ.
- 6 So, LORD, my path of duty teach, —
That, learning, I may strive to reach,
In what I do, the perfect rule
Of virtue taught me in thy school.
- 7 In my own strength, I'm all unfit
The trials of the world to meet :
But, with thy strength to bear me through,
Can meet them, and can conquer too.
- 8 Of earthly good, to make me blest,
Grant, LORD, just what thou seeest best :
Of envied wealth I ask no store, —
What thou wilt bless — I ask no more.
- 9 The bounties thou to me shalt lend,
May I to others' wants extend ;
More pleas'd the needy to relieve,
Than when thy bounties I receive.
- 10 O grant me health for doing good,
For serving thee with gratitude :
While for my health I never take
Such care, as duty to forsake.
- 11 Ever a faithful friend supply,
To cheer my way to joys on high ;
One who, that both for GOD may live,
Shall counsel and example give.

- 12 Should thou old age to me assign,
And should its evil days be mine :
May still my trust in thee abide,
Nor clouds of age thy mercy hide.
- 13 And when my life on earth shall end,
Wilt thou my dying couch attend !
Be then, through thy dear Son, O LORD,
My endless life, my great reward !

53.                    WORTH OF PRAYER.

---

- 1 My richest comfort, here while living,
Is found in praying to my God :
This, in my weakness, strength is giving,
And cheers the roughest, darkest road.
In ev'ry toil, in ev'ry grief,
'Tis pray'r supplies my best relief.
- 2 Where can I peace or hope discover,
When conscience to its duty wakes,
And, all my sins recounting over,
The scourge of retribution shakes ?
No other hope or refuge near,
To God for mercy I repair.
- 3 And must I meet the scorn of scoffers,
If I with sin will not comply ? —
My soul its pray'r in secret offers
To God for grace. He hears my cry ; —
A father's love from fear relieves,
And courage for his service gives.

- 4 I would not for revenge be seeking,
Should any for my inj'ry seek ;
Nor ever meet with evil speaking
Those who of me may evil speak ;
All my revenge shall be the pray'r
That they with me His grace may share.
- 5 And when a trouble may distress me
For which the world I cannot blame,
I, to a God who hears, address me
For his support to bear the same.
From griefs which we to Him confide,
His mercy he will never hide.
- 6 And, for the duties of the calling
To me by providence assign'd,
I strength implore, before him falling ; —
Nor plead in vain. The strength I find :
'T is He that gives ; — and Him I bless
For strength, and skill, and all success.
- 7 Or, if an evil lust be raging, —
Too weak its violence to quell,
On God I call. For me engaging,
He nerves my heart to do his will ;
And, strong in his resistless might,
To vict'ry I maintain the fight.
- 8 And when, in life's last struggle lying,
To me none else can render aid ;
To God my voice shall then be crying,
Nor Death shall make my soul afraid.
Though voice should fail, my dying sighs
Accepted pray'r to him shall rise.

J. B. Miller.

54. PRAYER TO THE TRINITY.

---

- 1 THOU GOD the Father, now in love
And mercy, stand beside me !
Far from my soul my sins remove,
From dread of vengeance hide me !
And, by thy word, show me the way
That leads to an eternal day,
Nor leave me here to wander.
- 2 Guard me, Lord Jesus ; render me
Of self deception wary !
O keep me from hypocrisy,
Long as on earth I tarry.
I now to thee my soul confide,
Thou Son of God, with me abide —
In living, or in dying.
- 3 Thou Holy Ghost, true wisdom's source,
Of faith my measure heighten !
Sustain me in true wisdom's course,
What's dark in me enlighten !
Grant too that I my life may spend
In holiness, till life shall end,
And then depart to glory !
- 4 Thou Three in One, the only God,
What hopes or fears betide me, —
O let them never from the road
Of love and truth divide me !
My joys and griefs — a tangled maze, —
Direct them all to show thy praise, —
Then take my soul to heaven !

55. THE BELIEVER'S CONFLICT.

---

- 1 For help, O whither shall I flee ?
Who now to peace will guide me ?
To none, dear Savior, but to thee,
Can I with hope confide me.
'Tis thine to give the weary rest,
The mourning soul in thee is blest, —
Help, Jesus, the afflicted !
- 2 My sin, O Lord, is now my grief,
Against my will it rages : —
Thy grace alone can bring relief,
While sin its warfare wages.
All that I need is known to thee,
And now a part myself can see, —
Help, Jesus, the sin-burden'd !
- 3 Good Shepherd, bearest thou the weak ?
Sustain me in my weakness !
Thou Great Physician of the sick,
Heal thou my moral sickness !
A prey to Death I helpless fall, —
For health and strength to thee I call,
Save, Jesus, or I perish !
- 4 To those who trust thee — “ Nothing fear ! ”
“ I am the Life ! ” — thou criest,
Seeks not my soul, with strong desire,
The life which thou suppliest ?
Through all my sorrows thou canst lead,
In death provide for ev'ry need —
Help, Jesus, the confiding !

- 5 I would do good, but still I fail, —
Must I thus always waver ?
What grief it gives thou knowest well.
Who shall my soul deliver,
And set the slave forever free
From sin and death, to live with thee ? —
I thank thee, GOD, through Jesus !

J. Neander.

CHRISTIAN WARFARE.

---

- 1 AH ! when shall I be, from sinning
And from wrong affections, free ?
When, the vict'ry fully winning,
Be well-pleasing, LORD, to thee ?
I have still to own, with weeping,
Sin his watch within is keeping,
Still, full oft, with efforts strong,
Urges me to do the wrong.
- 2 Yet, in time of my devotions,
Musing on thy sacred word,
I have felt those sweet emotions
Which to saints their bliss afford.
Then I priz'd this holy pleasure
Far above all worldly treasure,
Wish'd a heart entirely thine,
Warm with virtue all divine.

- 3 Then too vow'd, full purpose making,
That I only thine would be,
And, my inmost pow'rs awaking,
From all evil would be free ;
Thee my service wholly giving,
Ever for thy glory living,
Sin in all its forms would shun,
And the ways of GOD would run.
- 4 But, alas ! — too soon, exerting
Hidden pow'r, some passion rose,
Marring, hind'ring, disconcerting
Ev'ry good I might propose.
Lures to pleasure, fears and troubles,
Ill examples, cheating bubbles, —
These on ev'ry side assail, —
And my schemes of goodness fail.
- 5 Wretched man ! — from evil turning,
Vain my utmost strength appears ;
Then, with deepest sorrow mourning,
Fruitless too are all my tears.
Still my heart with sin is teeming —
Is there none from sin redeeming ? —
Thanks ! — my GOD, through Christ, will free
From this load of misery !
- 6 Thou forgivest, GOD of mercies,
Those who 'gainst their errors strive :
They alone shall bear thy curses,
Who in sin consent to live.

May I not then hope for pardon,
 While I feel my sins a burden ?
 Trusting to thy gracious care,
 Can I yield me to despair ?

- 7 Since, while I am here remaining,
 Sin will new advantage seek ;
 And, perfection not attaining,
 I must still continue weak : —
 Bless me so in all my striving,
 So direct me in my living,
 That, in all sincerity,
 I may humbly walk with thee.
- 8 When I fall, make me observant,
 Careful lest I fall again,
 Haste to strengthen then thy servant,
 That my course I may maintain :
 Warn me ! — ever go beside me !
 Daily on — still onward guide me !
 Till I reach eternal rest,
 With thy perfect image blest.

57. PILGRIMAGE OF LIFE.

---

- 1 My Life is but a pilgrim-stand : —
 A trav'ler to my father-land,
 I seek the city with foundation,
 Whose builder, maker, is my God ; —
 And gaining there my blest abode,
 Would ever sing his great salvation.
 My Life is here a pilgrim-stand,
 I'm trav'ling to my father-land.

- 2    The hours of Life's uncertain day
      Haste on without a moment's stay,
And, when once gone, are gone forever ; —
      They bear me to eternity :
      Lord Jesus, give me eyes to see !
Whate'er I need to know, discover !
      Nor let earth's vain delusions hide
      Thee from my sight, my only guide !
- 3    No journey is without its cares : —
      Life's journey too the spirits wears ; —
It is not all a path of roses.
      The road is narrow, — foes are strong —
      And oft entice me to the wrong ; —
The tangled thorn my way opposes ; —
      O'er trackless wilds I'm forc'd to go,
      And, groping, toil my passage through.
- 4    At times to me the Sun is bright, —
      That Sun that sheds its gracious light,
Alone to bless the pure in spirit :
      Then comes the roaring, raging storm, —
      So loud, terrific its alarm, —
So dark, — I cannot help but fear it :
      But when I think of joys above,
      My terror yields its place to love.
- 5    Thou, Jesus, once a pilgrim too,
      Wilt prove thyself a helper true,
Of all my anxious cries, a hearer.
      Thy warning word in mind I'll keep,

And, by thy guidance, ev'ry step
Shall bring me to salvation nearer.
My life and strength are waning fast,
Lord, with thy consolations haste !

- 6 O grant me growth in holiness !
With stronger faith my spirit bless !
And thus of stumbling make me heedful !
I daily fall — help me to rise,
And, by each fall, yet more to prize
Thy helping hand, so often needful :
While, in this darken'd soul of mine,
Thy beams of mercy brighter shine.

- 7 And when my heart, O God of grace,
Shall faint with longings for thy face, —
O grant my soul thy full fruition !
Whene'er to earth my eyelids close,
May I with thee enjoy repose
Where sin and grief find no admission.
Thy weary child bid thither come,
To live with Thee — a blissful Home.

- 8 My lot is here with strangers thrown,
And by the world I'm little known ; —
But there friends wait with joy to meet me :
And there, with those I love the most,
I'll join in song the angel-host,
Whose glories with their welcome greet me.
My Saviour, come ! no more delay !
And bless me with that happy day !

F. A. Lampe.

REST IN HEAVEN.

---

- 1 WE are but pilgrims here below,
With loads of care oppress'd,
While through earth's dreary vale we go,
And vainly look for rest.
His way beset with griefs and fear,
The weary wand'rer sighs, —
He seeks, and ever hopes 't is near,
The good that from him flies.
- 2 Here is no father-land, — no home,
No resting-place is here ; —
For trial we are hither come.
The soul pants with desire,
But her desires can never fill ;
And cures, that here are found
The wounded heart of man to heal,
Add torment to the wound.
- 3 The pleasures, which on earth we find,
Are smoke, soon seen no more ;
They're billows which the angry wind
Is dashing on the shore.
With toil we build, and then destroy ; —
We oft new burdens choose : —
And, what to-day we count our joy,
To-morrow we refuse.
- 4 The pride of knowledge, falsely call'd,
Oft leads our souls astray :
The blind by blinder guides are told —
“ We've found a better way ! ”

Dear Savior, from thy throne above,
 Set us from error free !
 Grant us to serve thee here in love, —
 Then bear us home to thee !

5 When faith thy promise humbly takes,
 And seeks thy will to do, —
 Clear light upon our pathway breaks,
 The world to guide us through.
 Thy Spirit send, our souls to save !
 Thy wisdom make our own ! —
 That we may rest beyond the grave,
 And wear the pilgrim's crown.

PATH OF LIFE.

- 1 THE way of Christians leads through deserts dreary,
 And thorny is their road ;
 The mountain heights are fearful, steep, and weary,
 By which they rise to God.
- 2 But, trav'ler, falter not ! — God's hand extended
 Shall guide and strengthen thee :
 Look onward ! — Where their earthly course is ended,
 The crown of glory see !
- 3 This prize full well deserves thy utmost striving ;
 Not worthy to compare
 Are trials which, ere to the goal arriving,
 The faithful pilgrims bear.

4 Through all its straits would I still, uncomplaining,
The narrow way pursue : —
What joy and thanks, — when, to its end attaining,
I reach the garland too !

5 Oft now, while faith before my thoughts is bringing
The victor's happy crown ;
My raptur'd soul her flight from earth is winging
Up to the Savior's throne.

60. WAY TO HEAVEN.

---

1 STEEP and thorny is the way
Which to endless life is leading ;
Blest is he, with Christ his stay,
Who that narrow way is treading !
Happy, who its end attains,
And the prize of glory gains !

2 'Bove all measure his reward,
Who, till death, is persevering ;
Who from earth withholds regard,
But, to Jesus still adhering,
Firm in faith directs his eye
Ever to the crown on high.

3 He whom, though unseen, we love,
He has won our prize so glorious ;
From the cross, to God above
He ascended all-victorious, —
When "'T is finish'd !" he had cried,
And, for vict'ry, first had died.

- 4 Conq'ring Chief! — we, void of fear,
 Follow thee, no toil declining;
 Storms and night surround us here,
 There the light is ever shining;
 Dawn is beaming, seen by faith
 Through the gloomy shades of death.
- 5 Onward, comrades, urge your way!
 Let no fears or foes alarm us!
 Look to Jesus! — Watch, — and pray
 That our God with strength may arm us!
 In our weakness mighty shown,
 He gives vict'ry through his Son.

61. DESPONDING CHRISTIAN AND CHRIST.

---

- 1 JESUS, my Lord and God,
 Whose glories none can tell;
 My spirit's life and strength,
 My great Immanuel!
 Thy people thou dost form,
 And from their evil cleanse, —
 Grant then, O Lord, to me
 Deliv'rance from my sins!

Confide in my promise! — confiding, be still!
 Distrust not my power! — distrust not my will!
 Behold, from afar I salvation reveal!

- 2 Ah, Yes! my spirit's friend,
 I feel I'm far from thee:

O draw me to thyself !
 Reveal thy pow'r in me !
 A heart, O Lord, that's pure,
 Of all things wish I most, —
 But mine is all defil'd : —
 Alas ! must I be lost ?

Thou art not forsaken, — thy heart I renew ;
 I am thy Redeemer ; remain to me true !
 My perfect redemption in thee will I show.

3 Redemption! — I am yet
 By sin with fetters bound :
 And am I true ? Alas,
 I'm fickle, faithless found :
 And where is that new heart
 Should glow with love to God ?
 Guilt feel I more and more, —
 My sins a heavier load !

Thy pray'r I will answer : — in spite of all foes,
 From sin I will save thee, — from Hell's fearful woes :
I'll do it ! — Who can the Almighty oppose ?

4 'Tis well ! I own thy grace,
 And in thy word confide :
 Hope shall my anchor be,
 Till safe in port I ride.
 Dear Savior, through my course,
 To me thy guidance lend,
 Till I at length shall come
 Where sins and sorrows end.

Believer, be fearless ! — this anchor hold fast !
 Doubt not ! — I will guard thee, till dangers be past,
 And to a sure haven will bring thee at last.

62.

GODLY FEAR.

---

- 1 Most High ! with reverence to fear thee
Is both our duty and delight ;
None can with holy joy come near thee,
But those who fear before thy sight :
Work then, dear Father, work in me,
By thy good Spirit, fear of thee !
- 2 May it preside o'er all my goings,
Control my heart, direct my will ;
Thus guarding me, in all my doings,
From ev'ry known approach to ill :
For, till the love of sin be slain,
All show of love to thee is vain.
- 3 Grant that I ever may adore thee
As One who all my actions sees ;
And be afraid to do before thee
Aught that would thee my God displease.
What if the praise of earth were gain'd,
If thee, great God, I should offend !
- 4 May I, too, fear the Judgment coming,
Nor dare with scoffers to agree :
Despairing not, yet not presuming, —
Nor arrogant in serving thee :
Nor let thy grace be my pretence
For blind or careless confidence.

- 5 May I so dread all that would nourish
The lawless appetites of sin ;
So all the right affections cherish,
That I through thee may vict'ry win ;
And, when the conflict shall be past,
May triumph with thy saints at last.
- 6 Maintain my conscience pure, unswerving,
Fearless of shame or trouble here ;
And this, my heart with courage nerving,
For ev'ry trial will prepare :
While nothing shall allure, or fright
My soul from choosing what is right.
- 7 May rev'rence prompt all my reflections, —
And still, wherever I may be,
Direct in honesty my actions,
From all disguise and feigning free.
They who thus honor thee in heart —
None else — with thee shall have their part.
- 8 Thus may I fear thee while I'm living ;
Dying, I'll fear not death or grave :
And then, eternal life receiving,
For which thy Son the purchase gave,
Will rise to share thy joys above,
Where all is light, and peace, and love.

Benj. Schmolke.

JOY IN GOD.

- 1 IN thee, O God, I find my joy,
Thou art my trust, — What can annoy,
Long as thy love shall bless me ?
Lord, I am thine,
And thou art mine ; —
Can any want distress me ?
- 2 For thou hast chosen me by grace,
And with thy saints assign'd my place, —
The world in vain would hurt me :
Thy mercy will
Its measure fill, —
Thou never wilt desert me.
- 3 Thy patience too is strangely kind,
Of daily sins I pardon find :
To me, my guilt deploring,
Thou bring'st anew
Thy Son to view,
My comfort thus restoring.
- 4 Thou art to me the best of friends,
That to my ev'ry want attends :
None can thyself resemble !
Firm at my side
Wilt thou abide,
Though hills and mountains tremble.

- 5 Thou art my light, my life, desire,
My Rock : — and can I more require
That's found in earth or heaven ?
Lord, without thee,
All else to me
For joy were vainly given.
- 6 'Bove ev'ry good, thou art the best,
On whom my highest pleasures rest ;
In thee I live confiding :
Here, and above,
LORD, may our love
Be evermore abiding !
- 7 Thou blessest me : — let foes revile !
Since, for my harm, their rage and toil
Must prove all unavailing.
While thou art near
I will not fear,
But sing with song unfailing.
- 8 From thee is flowing endless peace,
Its streams with pleasure now I trace,
Thou source of true enjoyment,
To where thy praise,
Through endless days,
Shall be my blest employment.
- To human eye has not appear'd
What joys above thou hast prepar'd, —
But faith cannot deceive me :
There perfect bliss
I shall possess,
And of it none bereave me.

CONFIDENCE IN GOD.

---

- 1 What'er God does, is fitly done ;
To change my evil nature,
He gave his Spirit through his Son,
And form'd me a new creature.
His mercy's sure,
It will endure ;
And, on this firm foundation,
I rest me for salvation.

- 2 What'er God does, is fitly done ;
And right his sov'reign pleasure :
Since he has made my care his own,
I'll trust his ev'ry measure :
He is my God, —
Through all my road,
He knows how to sustain me,
And in his service train me.

- 3 What'er God does, is fitly done ;
He is my guide — defender ; —
In varied forms his love is shown :
To Him my will I render
In joy, or wo, —
And time will show
How well he has directed,
And all my way protected.

- 4 Whate'er God does, is fitly done ;
And all, for wisest reasons :
By best of paths he leads me on, —
E'en at the darkest seasons
I find his grace
In ev'ry place ;
And, conscious of his keeping,
I change to joy my weeping.
- 5 Whate'er God does, is fitly done ;
Of this I have assurance.
True ! — here my life its course may run
Through dangers and endurance :
Still, I shall share
His loving care ; —
His circling arms infold me,
And, when I die, will hold me.
- 6 Whate'er God does, is fitly done ;
His cup — shall I refuse it,
Because it is a bitter one ?
He sees it best, — I choose it :
And He at last
Will make me rest
Where duty has no trials,
And needs no self-denials.

Sam. Rodegast.

65.

TRUST IN GOD.

---

- 1 RULE thou my portion, LORD; my skill
I could not trust to guide it :
To my Creator's gracious will
I cheerfully confide it ;
Thou, by whose hands
All nature stands,
Through all the days decreed me,
My God and Father, lead me !
- 2 Thou sawest from Eternity
How much would best befit me ;
Didst fix what here my days should be,
What joys and griefs should meet me.
Why shrink my heart ?
Wouldst thou have part
In faith's rich blessings tender'd,
Without faith's service render'd ?
- 3 Thou knowest, LORD, my ev'ry want,
And, ere my pray'r is pleaded,
Art ready my request to grant,
As wisdom sees 't is needed.
Thy love to me
Is fatherly : —
Be not my wish the measure,
But, Father, thy good pleasure.

- 4 Full oft a course of wish'd success
Prepares for sorrows — firmer
Than any wrought by such distress
At which we're prone to murmur.
From earthly grief
Death brings relief, —
While cherish'd idols — failing,
Then bring remorse and wailing.
- 5 What 't is that forms our highest good,
All know who wish to hear it:
Nor honors, wealth, nor pamp'ring food
Can cheer the deathless spirit:
But if thy word
We will regard,
We hence may pleasures borrow,
To sweeten ev'ry sorrow.
- 6 What is life's glory here below?
Soon it will all have vanish'd:
What is the grief we suffer now? .
'T will soon be ever banish'd.
Trust in the LORD!
For His reward
To endless glory raises, —
Ye righteous, sing his praises!

GOD OUR DEFENCE.

- 1 A tow'r of safety is our God,
His sword and shield defend us ;
His mercy too relieves the load
Of evils that attend us.
But the ancient foe
Strives to work our wo ;
Fearful power and art
In him their force exert, —
On earth he has no rival.
- 2 By strength of ours naught could be done, —
The strife full soon were ended ;
But fights for us that righteous One
By God himself commended.
Needs his name be told ?
Jesus — from of old
LORD of Sabaoth, —
Our God and Savior both, —
He shall our souls deliver.
- 3 Though devils all the earth should fill,
Each gaping to devour us,
This Savior would our terrors quell,
And vict'ry guide before us.
Prince of this vain world,
Be thy fury hurl'd
On our heads ! — 't were vain !
He will thy rage restrain,
His smallest word subdue thee.

- 4 His truth our foes shall help to show, —
 For this no thanks they merit ; —
 Believing him we onward go,
 He cheers us by his Spirit : —
     Should they, in the strife,
     Quench our joys — and life ; —
     When their worst is done,
 For us the vict'ry's won —
 He'll crown us then with glory !

GOD'S GUIDANCE.

---

- 1 As God shall lead I'll take my way,
 Nor wish my own selection :
 The path He chooses cannot stray,
 Nor needs it my correction.
 His guidance I will ever keep,
 And cheerful follow step by step —
 As child would trust a father.
- 2 As God shall lead I'll follow still,
 Imploring his assistance, —
 Though far too often my self-will
 Might wish to make resistance :
 Let God for me the way explore,
 And I will now, and evermore,
 His counsel seek to honor.

- 3 If God will lead me — 't is enough, —
On Him is my reliance :
And let the road be smooth, or rough,
I yield a glad compliance.
Into his hands I all commit,
To guide for me as seemeth fit, —
For living, or for dying.
- 4 God leads me — and my ev'ry change
I leave to his good pleasure :
Though Reason may pronounce it strange —
His course reveals the measure
Of good, that He for me had thought
Before I was to being brought :
Can I refuse his guidance !
- 5 God leads me — I will true remain,
Nor faith, nor hope shall waver :
My spirit, if his strength sustain,
Who from his love can sever ?
With confidence I'll hold it fast,
And ills, endur'd from first to last,
Shall work my greater blessing.
- 6 As God shall lead I'll onward go,
E'en where Death's shadows lower :
But Death shall prove a conquer'd foe,
His terrors, lose their power ;
For He, — my Savior, — will be there,
Who died that faith might nothing fear ; —
This is my soul's sheet-anchor.

68. GOD OUR LIGHT, &amp;c.

- 1 God is my light! — Never, my soul, despair
In hours of thy distress!
The sun withdraws, and earth is dark and drear: —
My Light will never cease;
On days of joy with splendor beaming; —
Through nights of grief, its rays are gleaming, —
God is my Light!
- 2 God is my trust! — My soul, be not afraid!
Thy Helper will abide:
“I’ll not forsake thee!” — He has kindly said, —
He’s ever at thy side;
In feeble age will yet stand by thee,
No real good will he deny thee: —
God is my Trust!
- 3 His is the pow’r! — He speaks, and it is done;
Commands, it standeth fast;
Ere hope of rescue is in me begun,
Behold, the work is past!
When we our weakness most are feeling,
God loves to prove, his strength revealing,
His is the Pow’r.
- 4 The kingdom his! — Throughout the earth he reigns
With wisdom, grace, and might;
The stars go on, and time its course maintains,
Beneath his watchful sight;
In silence onward still proceeding,
The universe obeys his leading, —
The Kingdom his!

- 5 GOD is my shield ! — Of me he takes the care
 As none beside could do ;
 He guards my head, — he watches ev'ry hair,
 All dangers brings me through :
 While thousands, to vain helpers calling,
 On right and left are near me falling, —
 HE is my Shield !
- 6 GOD's my reward ! — Well pleas'd I therefore go
 The path that He has shown :
 It has no trials but my GOD will know,
 When he awards my crown.
 I'll gladly strive, the fight sustaining,
 Until in death the vict'ry gaining, —
 GOD's my Reward !

Hengstenberg.

69. FAITHFULNESS OF GOD.

- 1 GOD, to my soul benighted,
 Gave light and life to see :
 When earthly hopes are blighted,
 He'll not abandon me !
 He ever is the same !
 As day successive changes,
 He for my wants arranges,
 Always the great I am.
- 2 While human love or favor
 Soon cold or dead appears,
 His mercy glows forever, —
 He numbers all my tears,

He softens all my grief ;
From sin and dang'rous errors,
From guilt and gloomy terrors,
From death, he gives relief.

3 God, with his love, has bless'd me !

Bereft of all besides,
Upon his arm I'll rest me :
He my affliction guides, —
I'll leave it to his will :
My int'rests here, in heaven,
To God the LORD be given,
His pleasure to fulfil.

4 It ever is his pleasure

To work his people's good ;
'T was goodness, beyond measure,
Gave them a Savior's blood.
He, who so much has done,
Has said they shall inherit,
In body and in spirit,
All good through Christ his Son.

5 Away the world is gliding,

Its joys and empty show :
A bliss, pure and abiding,
On me will God bestow.
True ! — life on earth shall close, —
But when, by grave invested,
This weary frame has rested, —
He'll wake it from repose.

- 6 My soul, already living
In God's paternal hand,
Fit body then receiving
For my new father-land, —
It shall my glory be,
Where saints enjoy his blessing,
To praise, with song unceasing,
The Lamb eternally.
- 7 Though now I sorrows suffer,
Such as my sin requires ;
My future prospects offer
All that my heart desires
Of joys that shall endure :
Christ eye to eye appearing,
My soul his image wearing,
My lot will be secure.
- 8 It is the Father's pleasure,
Who here assign'd our place,
That now his Son's full treasure
Should yield us grace for grace :
His Spirit He supplies,
To us the pathway showing
Of bliss that's ever growing, —
To him let anthems rise !
- 9 Praise Him, with hearts and voices,
Who gave us all our pow'rs !
Blest he, who thus rejoices
To consecrate his hours !
The praise of God will prove
On earth our best enjoyment, —
Nay more ! — our blest employment
In realms of peace above.

GOD IS TRUE.

- 1 OUR GOD is true ! — Them he will ne'er forsake
For whom his love he shows ;
Our GOD is true ! — We shall his care partake,
In all our joys and woes :
His wings will spread their shelter o'er us,
Though mountains quake, — earth yawn before us : —
Our God is true !
- 2 OUR GOD is true ! — He is a faithful friend
We from experience know ; —
And rest assur'd he will our souls defend
From ev'ry watchful foe.
His cov'nant love gives no denial
To humble faith in hours of trial, —
Our God is true !
- 3 OUR GOD is true ! — His promise he maintains :
Lest we from life should stray,
Our feet to guide where bliss immortal reigns,
He onward lights our way.
God is not man that he should falter,
What He has spoke he will not alter. —
Our God is true !
- 4 OUR GOD is true ! — He has a father's love,
In all he does is good :
Our troubles here his faithful care will prove,
When all is understood.
In trials, grace and strength are growing,
And then, from these, good works are flowing. —
Our God is true !

- 5 Our God is true ! — 'Tis He who vengeance stay'd,
And now removes our guilt
Through his dear Son, who well the Law obey'd,
For us his life's-blood spilt :
His only Son for us was given,
To save from hell, and fit for heaven. —
Our God is true !
- 6 Our God is true ! — And we, forever his,
Shall ever meet his care,
Until we come to scenes of perfect bliss,
Eternal life to share.
And now with blessings he receives us,
Through faith all needed grace he gives us : —
Our God is true !
- 7 Our God is true ! — The watch, our father's eye
Of all his children takes ;
With pleasure sees when here his kind supply
Their gratitude awakes.
Would they despair ? — their hearts sustaining,
He stills the voice of their complaining : —
Our God is true !
- 8 Our God is true ! — My soul, what wouldst thou more ?
He is thy portion still.
Let God be true — there's naught to fear — tho' store
Of fraud the world should fill.
With hate let former friends be burning,
E'en this shall to thy good be turning, —
Our God is true !

9 Our God is true! — Never forget, my soul,
     How kind and true he is!
 Be true to God! — Let this thy life control,
     And be devoutly his!
 From loving him let nothing drive thee!
 And of this stay let none deprive thee, —
     “Our God is true!”

E. Liebich.

71. THE CHRISTIAN'S HOPE.

- 1 Dear Savior, when I here am blest
 With lively hope of future rest
     Where joys are ever flowing,
 And there, by faith, see my abode; —
 How light to me the heaviest load
     Beneath which I was bowing!
 Then, all the fond pursuits of earth
 Are in my view as nothing worth, —
 Chas'd by the dawn of endless day,
 Its glories pass like dreams away.
     Lord Jesus Christ,
     Sure ground of faith, :::
 All this is owing to thy death.

- 2 When, call'd the change of worlds to make,
 My soul shall from its fetters break —
     Thou, from on high, be near me!
 Thy rod and staff be then my stay, —
 Through Death's dark valley guide my way, —
     With hopes of glory cheer me!

The splendors of the world of light,
 Amid the all-surrounding night,
 Shall through the clouds of darkness shine,
 Revealing what shall soon be mine.

Lord Jesus Christ,
 With cheerful faith, :||:
 I then shall sweetly sleep in death.

- 3 But should my heart, reluctant, shrink ;
 The cup of Death still fear to drink ; —
 My sins begin to number ; —
 Then come the thought — “ My Lord has died,
 “ My sins — atoning blood shall hide,
 “ Nor God will more remember ! ”
 The hope for sinners thou hast wrought,
 Their life, which by that death was bought,
 Which, God-forsaken, thou didst meet —
 'T is this alone makes dying sweet.
 Lord Jesus Christ,
 My only faith, :||:
 Do not forsake me at my death !

- 4 In hope my weeping eyes I'll close,
 My flesh in dust find safe repose,
 From all its sorrows resting ;
 And He who died, from death to save, —
 His voice will call me from the grave, —
 I know whom I am trusting.

He lives ! — and foes I fear'd below, —
 The Grave and Death, — his pow'r shall know ;
 He lives ! — and I, with saints above,
 Shall know the wonders of his love.

Lord Jesus Christ,
 My spirit's faith, :||:
 For life prepare me by my death !

- 5 My confidence shalt thou remain
 When thou to earth shall come again, —
 The tombs be rent asunder :
 Before thy throne I there shall be,
 The Judge of all the nations see, —
 Shall see with joy and wonder.
 Then wilt thou, Lord, to me divide
 A portion always to abide, —
 And I shall share — by promise shown —
 A glory lasting as thy own.

Thanks, Lord, to thee !

With shouts I'll sing — :||:

“ Where, Grave, thy vict'ry ! — Death, thy sting ! ”

72.

CHRISTIAN LOVE.

- 1 When they may chance to meet together,
 In whom thou, Lord, hast thine abode ;
 Each will in each soon find a brother,
 Alike the purchase of thy blood.
 Thy Spirit has their spirits fill'd,
 Their griefs and fears by thee are quell'd ;
 Of all their trust they count thee worthy,
 And love, and bless, and pray before thee.

- 2 Though strangers to each other's faces,
In person each to each unknown,
They soon discern the christian graces,
And heart to heart is closely drawn
By love to thee, — which rules with pow'r
In all thy saints, from that blest hour
When, wak'd from sin, in which they slumber'd,
They were among thy people number'd.
- 3 Theirs is a precious, joyful greeting,
While each from each thy praises learns ;
That is a happy, cordial meeting,
Where with thy love each bosom burns.
Their inmost souls they now reveal,
The glories of thy kingdom tell,
Their guilt, ingratitude deploring,
The wonders of thy grace adoring.
- 4 The mouth of each is overflowing
With that of which the heart is full,
While all, in hope, are onward going
To see thy throne of endless rule :
Here is thy presence felt, — and more
Is learn'd of thee ; thy grace and pow'r
Permitting them to taste a measure
Of what shall form their endless pleasure.
- 5 O may I always be united
To such a blest society !
By those who are with thee delighted
Confirm yet more my faith in thee !
And from my heart, O Lord, remove
Whatever would offend thy love !
True vine, — wilt thou my spirit cherish,
A branch that shall forever flourish !

73.

ASSURANCE OF HOPE.

---

- 1 Firm is my hope of future good, —
By grace, and through my Savior's blood,
I hope for life in heaven :
To me my Father from above,
A pledge of his unfailing love,
Faith in his Son has given.
- 2 What, LORD, can speak my joy of heart,
To have in thy rich grace a part,
From which no force can sever !
My soul from sin has found a cure,
And, resting on thy word, is sure
To share thy love forever.
- 3 Thy word, — that word of life and peace, —
Makes every doubt and murmur cease,
If we aright will hear it :
It yields us comfort in our grief,
In ev'ry trial brings relief,
Or strengthens us to bear it.
- 4 Increase my faith and knowledge, LORD,
By study of thy sacred word !
For this I'll here adore thee :
Be it my light on all my way,
And thus prepare me, day by day,
To sing thy praise before thee.

C. F. Gellert.

74. CHRISTIAN THANKSGIVING.

- ' 1 Oh that I had a thousand voices !
A mouth to speak with thousand tongues !
Then, with a heart his praise rejoices,
Would I proclaim in grateful songs,
To all, wherever I should be,
What 't is the LORD has done for me.
- 2 O that my voice might high be sounding,
Far as the widely distant poles ;
My blood be quick with rapture bounding,
Long as its vital current rolls ;
And ev'ry pulse thanksgiving raise,
And ev'ry breath, a hymn of praise.
- 3 Be not, my pow'rs, in silence sleeping ;
Awake ! — inflame your utmost zeal !
Your strength in constant effort keeping,
The praises of my God to swell :
Soul, body, all your might employ !
Extol the LORD with sacred joy !
- 4 Ye trees ! — your growth his seasons nourish,
Now wave and rustle to his praise !
Ye flowrets fair ! — so soon to perish, —
Your forms with beauty he arrays, —
Let all your bloom now vocal be,
And join the song of praise with me !

- 5 And yet, should universal Nature]
Hear and obey my earnest call,
Should I have aid from ev'ry creature,
The strength would still be far too small,
His greater wonders to unfold,
Which all around me I behold.
- 6 Dear Father, endless praise I render,
For soul and body strangely join'd ;
I praise thee, Guardian kind and tender,
For all the noble joys I find
So richly spread on ev'ry side,
And freely for my use supplied.
- 7 What equal praises can I offer,
Dear Jesus, for thy mercy shown ?
What pangs, my Savior, didst thou suffer,
And thus for all my sins atone !
Thy death alone my soul could free
From Satan, to be blest with thee.
- 8 Honor and praise, still onward reaching,
Be thine too, Spirit of all grace,
Whose holy pow'r, and faithful teaching
Give me among thy saints a place :
Whate'er of good in me may shine
Comes only from thy light divine.
- 9 Who grants immortal hopes to bless me ?
Who, but thyself, O God of love ?
Who guards my way lest fears oppress me ?
'Tis thou, LORD God of hosts above.
And when my sins thy wrath provoke,
Thy patience, LORD, forbears the stroke.

- 10 I kiss the rod too, unrepining,
When God his chast'ning makes me feel :
My graces call for his refining,
The trial works no lasting ill :
It purifies, — and makes it known
That He regards me as a son.
- 11 In life I often have discover'd,
With gratitude and glad surprise,
When clouds of sorrow o'er me hover'd,
God from them sent my best supplies :
In troubles He is ever near,
And shows me all a father's care.
- 12 Why not then, with a faith unbounded,
Forever in his love confide ?
Why not, with earthly griefs surrounded,
Rejoicing, still in hope abide ; —
Until I reach that blissful home
Where doubts and sorrows never come ?
- 13 No more low vanities regarding,
To thee, in whom I find my rest,
I cry — my inmost soul according, —
“ My God, thou art the Highest, Best ;
“ Strength, honor, praise, and thanks, and pow'r
“ Be thine, both now and evermore ! ”
- 14 Of all thy goodness I'll be singing,
While yet my tongue has strength to move ;
To thee my grateful homage bringing,
Long as my heart has pow'r to love :
When feeble lips no voice can raise,
My dying sighs shall murmur praise.

15 Accept, O LORD, I now implore thee,
 The meagre praise I give below :
 In heav'n I better will adore thee,
 When I an angel's strength shall know :
 There would I lead the sacred choir,
 And raise their Hallelujahs high'r !

John Mentzer.

THANKSGIVING.

(Psalm, 103.)

- 1 Now to the LORD sing praises,
 My soul, and bless his holy name !
 From Death and Hell he raises, —
 What He has done for thee proclaim !
 Thy sins are all forgiven, —
 With fear no more oppress'd,
 Thou, with bright hopes of heaven,
 Reposest on his breast.
 When threat'ning dangers try thee,
 On him thy load is cast ;
 All evil that comes nigh thee
 But works thy good at last.
- 2 He has to us expounded
 His Law, most holy, good and just ; —
 His Grace, to those unbounded,
 Who on his faithful cov'nant trust.
 His wrath is soon abating,
 And lighter than our guilt ;
 His mercy, for us waiting,
 By kindness seeks to melt.

When we with grief are turning
From sin, — his rod he'll stay, —
Far as the eve from morning
Will put our sins away.

- 3 As throbs of pity move him
Who hears his helpless children cry,
So God, to them who love him,
Is in affliction ever nigh.
He knows we're dust ; — that sorrow
Makes our enjoyments brief,
Like grass that fades to-morrow ; —
That, as the falling leaf
Before the wind now flying,
And now forever gone, —
So, feeble man is dying,
His hasty course is run.

- 4 Unchanging is God's favor,
No portion else remains secure ;
But this abides forever
To all who in his love endure.
His truth has never falter'd
To faith in ages past ;
And never will be alter'd,
While time and faith shall last.
Then let us now be singing
His praise, as angels do —
To Him their honors bringing
In praises ever new !

- 5 Be honor, praise and blessing
 To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost !
 And pray'r — that He increasing
 Our love for what shall please him most,
 We may, in faith abiding,
 From Him our comfort find,
 And, in his strength confiding
 With heart, and soul, and mind,
 On earth may live before him,
 While life endures, — and then,
 With angels may adore him
 Through endless life — Amen !

Poliander.

GOD OUR FATHER.

- 1 Shall I not His praise be singing
 Who in glory reigns above ; —
 To him thanks and honors bringing,
 For the blessings of his love ?
 Those, who with sincere endeavor
 Keep the way that He has shown,
 He will as his children own,
 Yielding them a father's favor,
 All things else their time will last,
 But His love, when time is past.
- 2 As the eagle fondly hovers
 O'er its young defenceless brood,
 So my God from danger covers,
 Granting me all needed good.

With a father's love he ey'd me,
When began my infant days ;
Ere my heart could mean his praise,
He with watchful care supplied me.
All things else their time will last,
But His love, when time is past.

3 Gifts from every side, to nourish
Me, — lo ! at his bidding come :
Hills for me with verdure flourish,
Valleys, too, for me must bloom :
Beast, and grain, and herbage tender,
Fish, and fowl, and loaded tree,
From the earth, and air, and sea, —
All, their welcome tribute render.
Gifts, like these, a father prove,
God displays a father's love.

4 For me, wretched — hopeless lying, —
Worthy of his wrath alone,
He to shame, and griefs, and dying,
Gave his well beloved Son.
Who the love of God can measure ?
None of all our feeble race, —
While, on ev'ry side, we trace
Proofs that mercy is his pleasure.
Great my sins, but high above
Reaches his unbounded love.

5 As my teacher, to direct me,
He has sent his Spirit, too :
Who, to comfort and protect me,
Should his scheme of love pursue ;

And, while I am sin bewailing,
Give me hope ; — in weakness, strength,
Light in darkness ; — till, at length,
I might sing his grace unfailing,
And, though earthly griefs annoy,
Triumph still with holy joy.

6 Shall I, weary of confiding,
Fear what shall the future be ?
Since on earth I've been residing,
God has daily car'd for me.
When I think what he has sent me, —
Comforts for my earthly home,
Pledges for the life to come, —
What more need I to content me ?
Shall I my own weakness fear ?
He, my confidence, is near.

7 O how many springs of sadness
Has my God in mercy dried !
And how many streams of gladness
To my soul has He supplied !
When his purpose He's concealing,
On his wisdom I will rest, —
Still he's doing what is best,
All my ills and anguish healing :
His, a father's love to me,
Has been, and will ever be.

8 As a parent with affection
Still regards an erring son,
Whom aside from his direction
Some temptation may have drawn :

So, for faults, the God of mercies
Chastens them who share his love,
Not in wrath, such as they prove
Who despise his threaten'd curses ;—
But that chast'ning, understood,
May promote their greater good.

- 9 Now he tries them with distresses, —
But in these his love is found ;
Then at last in glory blesses,
And with joy the victor's crown'd.
They, who now in tears are sowing,
Shall a joyful harvest reap : —
Though, if need be, here they weep, —
Soon, with rapture ever growing,
They before the throne shall praise
Him who guided all their ways.

- 10 Since, LORD, by thy boundless favors
Thou hast shown a father's heart,
Strengthen thou my weak endeavors
Of a child to do the part !
What are sorrows here arising,
If thou love me ? And, for this,
I renounce all other bliss,
Hopes and joys of earth despising :
These but their brief time will last,
But thy love, when time is past.

P. Gerhard.

77. RELIEF TO THE POOR.

---

- 1 THE poor are waiting at your door,
In their relief be ready !
With lib'ral hand impart your store,
Be mindful of the needy !
There, hungry, naked, see them stand, —
With what the LORD has fill'd your hand,
Be mindful of the needy.
- 2 The poor — their sighing is not good —
O strive then to remove it !
The favor on the poor bestow'd —
God will himself approve it.
Clothe ye the naked when they plead,
And with your bread the hungry feed, —
Remember thus the needy !
- 3 They thirst — then freely give them drink,
As if to Christ 't were offered :
Of his return let christians think
Who for his people suffer'd,
And promises a full reward
To them who shall his poor regard :
Forget not ye the needy !
- 4 The poor for us their pray'rs will send
For blessings rich and endless.
And was not Jesus poor ? — a friend
To us — else poor and friendless ?
That, through his poverty and pain,
We might the bliss of angels gain ?
O Christians, help the needy !

- 5 But in God's name let all be done
That to the poor is given ;
Then Jesus will the doing own
On earth, and too in heaven.
And when he comes — on that blest day —
With joy you'll hear your Savior say —
Ye to myself have done it.

MARRIAGE.

- 1 FULL of wonder, full of skill,
Full of wisdom, full of might,
Full of mercy and good-will,
Full of comfort and delight, —
Full of wonder — once again —
Is of love the marriage chain.
- 2 Who have strangers always been, —
Never were together brought, —
Neither by the other seen, —
Never of each other thought —
These has God, their hearts and hands
Bound in love's endearing bands.
- 3 Here an infant is at nurse,
There another's born afar ;
Both pursue their random course,
Each of each is unaware :
But the wand'ers yet shall come
And together find a home.

- 4 This one proves a worthy son,
    That a lovely daughter grows,
Each to form the other's crown,
    Each to soothe the other's woes,
Each to be the other's light —
But to both 't is hid in night ; —
- 5 Till when best it pleases Him
    Who directs the lots of all, —
Where and how it best may seem
    Makes to each his portion fall ; —
Then will shine in open day
What before in darkness lay.
- 6 Man on earth at length shall see
    What his God saw long before ;
What on high was his decree,
    Done on earth, reveals his pow'r :
Counsels there his wisdom show
Guiding well events below.
- 7 We may often think, in pride,
    Things much better might have been ;
But shall night the sunbeams chide,
    Teaching brightness how to shine ? —
Better so — than feeble man
Should eternal wisdom scan.
- 8 Sunder not what God has joined !
    None but He knows what is best :
Often errs the human mind,
    In his thoughts no errors rest.
What He wills, he will sustain,
Other plans are made in vain.

- 9 See the pious loving pair
Whom the ties of marriage hold !
Who so much enjoy his care ?
Who, with blessings manifold,
Find the duties they attend
Leading to such happy end ?
- 10 Virtue here, extorting praise,
Blooms while life itself shall last ;
Other love in bloom decays,
Like vain shadows soon is past.
Perish, all around that's true !
Truth in them is ever new.
- 11 Love with them, as fresh as morn,
Vigor to itself affords :
Love and truth their board adorn,
Sweetly temper all their words ;
Love secures the heart repose
From its troubles and its woes.
- 12 When their comforts suffer loss,
Love abides their comfort still ;
Bowing, well they bear the cross,
Saying — “ 'Tis our Father's will ! ”
Cheer'd amid the present gloom,
Hoping better days to come.
- 13 Streams from God with blessings flow
All their varied wants to meet :
Olive-plants around them grow,
Till their house is now complete ;
What at first was weak and few,
Now is strong and many too.

14 And on earth when God has done
 All for them he meant to do, —
 Led by him, when they have gone
 Through, all he would lead them through, —
 With himself, to share his love,
 They shall rise to joys above.

15 Full of mercy, — say I still, —
 Full of comfort and delight,
 Full of wonder, full of skill,
 Full of wisdom, full of might,
 Full of wonder — say again —
 Is of love the marriage chain.

P. Gerhard.

MORNING HYMN.

1 AWAKE, my soul, from sleep arise!
 The night away is driven,
 The beams of morning cheer the skies,
 The sun is bright in heaven.
 Now raise thy thoughts in pray'r to God
 That he may shed his grace abroad,
 His mercy shine around thee.

2 The light brings work, to each his own —
 All should be up and doing:
 The birds with carols hail the dawn,
 Their Maker's praise pursuing:
 So, with the sun's reviving rays,
 Men to their God should offer praise,
 Whose light for them is shining: —

- 3 Then let them to their labors go,
Relying on his favor;
And teach their gratitude to flow
In cheerful, prompt endeavor,
That, while his goodness shines around,
No idle hour with them be found, —
But each with virtue shining.
- 4 Day after day its light affords,
Yet oft God's work is slighted;
While, without deeds, with empty words
His favors are requited.
LORD, may these idlers work at length, —
O give them grace, and will, and strength,
While light to them is shining.
- 5 Thy word our duty renders plain
To us thy faith professing;
Stand by us too — it else were vain —
And aid us with thy blessing!
Thy word and will, thy pow'r and grace,
Send through the world from place to place,
Far as the sun is shining!
- 6 In mercy, LORD, our hearts prepare
To answer thy good pleasure!
Be piety our constant care!
Of love increase our measure!
May godly fear our pathway lead
Afar from evil thought or deed —
Thy Spirit in us shining.

- 7 The light of faith be ever mine,
A light serene and steady !
May meekness my adorning shine,
By favors done the needy !
True wisdom let my lips impart,
A wisdom flowing from the heart —
And thus my light be shining !
- 8 Keep me, dear Savior, in thy sight,
And guard my soul from danger ; —
O guide me by thy holy light,
A pilgrim and a stranger,
Till I shall reach the city, where
The saints thy love forever share,
With endless glory shining.

P. Lackmann.

80. EVENING HYMN.

---

- 1 THE day is gone, — the weary sun declining
Behind the hills, — and now the stars are shining, —
But Jesus, Sun of righteousness, abide,
Nor from my soul thy gracious presence hide !
- 2 'T were utter darkness here, if thou should fail me,
Where all the pow'rs of evil would assail me,
And plunge me into deeps of endless night,
Without one star to shed its glimm'ring light.
- 3 Accept, O God of grace, for daily favors,
Which now and ever prompt to good endeavors,
My offer'd thanks ! — and may their incense rise,
By love's pure flame enkindled from the skies.

- 4 Of ev'ry wrong this day I've done before thee,
Through thy dear Son, for pardon I implore thee :
And when in sleep I rest my weary head,
Be still thy wings of love around me spread !
- 5 And from the foe — from injuries whatever
Beset my couch, I pray thee, LORD, deliver ;
May angels through the night their watch prolong,
Then wake my soul to join their morning song.
- 6 And when life's day by night shall be o'ertaken,
May then my soul, its faith in thee unshaken,
From Death's dark vale, with angels soar away
To where thy presence makes eternal day.

ON DEATH.

- 1 That I shall die, full well I know,
All human life is short and frail :
No lasting good can earth bestow,
All portion here must quickly fail ;
In mercy, LORD, direct my ways,
That I in peace may end my days.
- 2 WHEN I shall die, is all unknown,
Except to thy omniscient mind :
And lest, with life, my hopes be gone,
May I from thee such favor find,
That I may always be prepar'd
For death, and for thy great award,

- 3 How I shall die, to ask were vain ;
 Death does his work in varied forms ;
 To some, with agonies of pain ;
 And some sink peaceful in his arms.
Just as thou wilt ; — if, when 't is past,
 My soul be found with thee at last.
- 4 WHERE I shall die, — I know it not,
 Nor where my ashes shall be laid ;
 Only be it my happy lot
 With saints redeem'd to leave the dead, —
 Small care to me the place affords, —
 The earth throughout is all the LORD'S.
- 5 But when in death I shall recline,
 Then let my soul ascend to thee !
 Through Christ's redemption I am thine,
 By faith his glories now I see, —
 'T will all be well ! I little prize —
Where, How, or When, this body dies.

B. Schmolke.

82.

HAPPY DEATH.

- 1 HAPPY the man who seeks the prize,
 And in the faith of Jesus dies !
 Thrice happy ! when, his trials past,
 He finds his rest
 In God's own city with the blest.

- 2 Men, worn with cares till life is gone,
Seek many things, yet need but one :
Mortals, your vain pursuits forsake,
His counsel take,
And God your endless portion make !
- 3 Why toil for earth to dying day ?
You nothing brought, nor take away ;
This world resign, its joy and care !
For heav'n prepare,
And place your heart and treasure there !
- 4 See that your peace with God be made
Ere you are summon'd to the dead,
Who warn you — “ Yesterday was ours ;
“ To-day is yours ! ”
Be ready ! — this your all secures !
- 5 No one is found so rich — or poor,
No head so tall, — heart so secure,
Of none the morning dawns so fair,
That Death will spare : —
The common lot we all must share.
- 6 To tenants of this vale of gloom,
What ray of hope can cheer the tomb ?
'Tis thine, O Lord, whose sov'reign might,
From Death's drear night,
Brought immortality to light.
- 7 Thy words of grace are sounding high —
“ Who trusts in me shall never die ! ”
Thy cross, thy grave, thy life anew,
Thy glory too,
Bring our inheritance to view.

- 8 Our graves of rest are many here,
Many our glorious mansions there,
Our faith a place to us has shown
Before the throne,
Prepar'd for us by Christ the Son.
- 9 HE is the Lord of endless doom, —
He testifies — “ I quickly come ! ”
“ So come, Lord Jesus ! ” Hoping then
With thee to reign, —
We long to hear thy glad “ Amen ! ”

83. VIEW OF DEATH, A MEANS OF HOLINESS.

---

- 1 How heedless, how secure is man !
A child of dust, — his life a span, —
Lest thoughts of death his peace should mar,
He puts the evil day afar.
- 2 The stripling thinks old age is sure, —
The man, — that life will long endure, —
The old hope yet another year, —
And no mistake do any fear.
- 3 'T were vain pretence, if these should tell —
“ We oft on death have ponder'd well : ”
Whom death has none the wiser made,
No due regard to death has paid.

- 4 By Time Eternity is fix'd,
This world prepares us for the next;
And here our life we should employ,
To gain a life of endless joy.
- 5 Death to that bar the spirit brings,
Where God will judge all secret things:
What man from man conceals with care,
Would vainly hope concealment there.
- 6 Since Death then daily threatens thee,
Be active, — always ready be!
Thy faith by constant trial prove,
Whether 't is faith that works by love.
- 7 A sigh, reserv'd for dying breath, —
A wish, though the Redeemer's death,
Before his throne to stand approv'd —
Can never show thy guilt remov'd.
- 8 A heart that trusts the sacred word,
'Gainst ev'ry sin maintains a guard, —
Where faith, and hope, and love unite —
In this the Savior takes delight.
- 9 With care must holiness be sought,
Though by the pow'r of God 't is wrought;
He works, when, with a holy zeal,
Thyself would all the work fulfil.
- 10 The thing for which thou here shouldst live,
For its possession mainly strive,
And value most when it is gain'd, —
Is virtue through thy faith attain'd.

11 They who in life their God revere,
And, viewing their departure near,
In holiness shall seek to grow, —
The sting of Death will never know.

12 How oft this duty I forsake !
Do not for vengeance, LORD, awake,
But Death keep ever in my view,
That virtue's path I may pursue : —

13 That I my heart may daily try,
As under thine all-searching eye,
If there the Savior's love be found,
If there the Spirit's fruits abound : —

14 That I may trust thy grace alone,
When all my service here is done, —
And shout, while Death inflicts his doom,
“ 'Tis finish'd ! Come, Lord Jesus, come ! ”

C. F. Gellert.

84. THE CHRISTIAN IN VIEW OF THE GRAVE.

---

1 WHY so alarm'd, my deathless spirit,
On looking forward to the tomb ?
It cannot hold thee, nothing fear it !
'T will only give the body room :
From dust deriv'd, this mortal frame
Shall there repose from whence it came.

- 2 But thou, an heir of endless being,
Shalt wing thy way to upper light,
The Source of all existence seeing,
With steady and unclouded sight,
Forever to extol his pow'r,
His wisdom and his grace adore.
- 3 Thou there shalt learn, with knowledge certain,
What here no wisdom could explain :
From secrets shall be drawn the curtain,
Which now all hope to draw were vain :
While error shall be done away,
The gloom of doubt be turn'd to day.
- 4 There shalt thou see with open vision,
Now only seen with eye of faith,
Him who, amid the world's derision,
Once died for thee a cruel death ;
And shalt rejoice that fear, nor shame
Withheld thy praises to his name.
- [5 Fear not the grave, it cannot harm thee, —
Thy Savior waits thee in the skies :
Nor for the sleeping dust alarm thee, —
This dust shall in his image rise,
And join'd with thee in realms of peace
Will share and swell thy happiness.]

D. Schiebeler.

85. PRAYER FOR SUPPORT IN DEATH.

- 1 WE'RE thine, O GOD, for evermore,
Our times are subject to thy pow'r ;
All things obey thy wondrous plan,
    Ere life began,
Thy will had fix'd for us its span.
- 2 When, LORD, our journey's end is come,
And angels wait to bear us home, —
While parting friends around us weep,
    Our spirits keep,
And make our death a quiet sleep.
- 3 Or should it come with racking pain,
Our sinking hearts do thou sustain ;
A father's love to us fulfil,
    And make us still
Submissive to our Father's will.
- 4 And by the Holy Spirit blest
With hope of an eternal rest,
May we, by faith's unfailing light,
    Without affright,
Go onward through Death's gloomy night.
- 5 Reveal the glory of the LORD,
Where waits for us thy free reward !
And when our cries for mercy flow, —
    The Savior show —
Jesus, the friend to whom we go.

6 O'er justice must thy grace prevail,
 Adjudg'd by law, the best would fail :
 The holiest plead for mercy most, —
       'T is all our trust !
 Without thy mercy all were lost.

7 LORD, with thy grace stand by us then,
 Nor let our confidence be vain !
 Thus, when we yield our dying breath,
       Victorious faith
 Shall triumph o'er the fear of death.

Spalding.

HOPE IN DEATH.

1 WHO knows how near my life's expended ?
 Time flies, and Death is hasting on :
 How soon, my term of trial ended,
 May heave my last expiring groan !
 For Jesus' sake, when flesh shall fail,
 With me, O God, may it be well !

2 Death comes when night the world is hiding, —
 He comes too in the glare of day, —
 Wherever I am here abiding,
 At once I may be call'd away :
 For Jesus' sake, when flesh shall fail,
 With me, O God, may it be well !

- 3 LORD, lead me oft to think of dying,
That when the hour of trial's come,
My soul may then, on Christ relying,
Sink all its terrors in his tomb :—
And for His sake, when flesh shall fail,
With me, O God, may it be well !
- 4 And now, betimes, may I provide me,
That I may always ready be,
And cheerful say — “ What shall betide me,
“ LORD, as thou wilt, direct for me ! ”
And when my heart and flesh shall fail,
For Jesus' sake, may it be well !
- 5 Awake in me desires for heaven !
Help me to view the world aright ;
Far from my heart its wiles be driven,
While endless joys allure my sight :
For Jesus' sake, when flesh shall fail,
With me, O God, may it be well !
- 6 My many sins ! — O veil them over
With merits of thy dying Son !
I here thy richest grace discover, —
Here find I peace, and here alone :
And, for his sake, when flesh shall fail,
With me, O God, may it be well !
- 7 His bleeding wounds give me assurance
That thy free mercy will abide ;
Here strength I find for death's endurance,
And hope for all I need beside :
For Jesus' sake, when flesh shall fail,
With me, O God, may it be well !

- 8 Nothing from Christ my soul shall sever,
 Nor life, nor death ; — things high, nor low :
 I take him as my Lord forever,
 My future trust, as he is now :
 And for his sake, when flesh shall fail,
 With me, O God, may it be well.
- 9 Then come my end to-day, to-morrow,
 I know, through Christ, 't will work my good :
 The world may in the prospect sorrow, —
 But I rejoice through Jesus' blood :
 And for his sake, when flesh shall fail,
 With me, O God, may it be well !
- 10 I live, meantime, in thee confiding,
 Of death have no appalling fear ;
 Enough for me — My God is guiding,
 Through faith my future hopes are clear :
 Thy grace in Christ will never fail,
 And when I die, 't will all be well.

Aemilia Juliana,
 Countess of Schwarzburg-Rudolstadt.

87. RELEASE BY DEATH.

- 1 Soon, in the grave my flesh shall rest,
 My soul from earth remove,
 And, in the Savior's glory dress'd,
 Shall reach the Home I love ; —
- 2 My friends — the whole celestial choir,
 My every feeling — joy,
 To honor God — my one desire ;
 His praise — my one employ.

[3 Nor would I wait till angel-host
 Shall teach their song to raise :
 To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
 I'll here begin my praise.

4 Now to our God, the Father, Son,
 And Holy Spirit, sing !
 With praise to God the three-in-one,
 Let all creation ring !]

N. B. The first two stanzas are Hymn 3508 of Knapp's "Liederschatz," who adds the note "Found in the Hymn Book of my deceased wife."

88 AIMING FOR HEAVEN.

1 HEAVENWARD, still heavenward
 Urge thy ling'ring feet :
 What deserves thy chief regard
 Only there is met,
 Not here below.
 Earthly honors all are vain,
 Raise, if thou would glory gain,
 From earth thy view !

2 Heavenward thy wishes send,
 With each rising day !
 Life's brief portion to its end
 Swiftly glides away.
 Be this thy pray'r !
 " God, who madest me for heav'n,
 " Let thy strength and grace be giv'n,
 " To bring me there ! "

- 3 Heavenward He points thine eye,
There to seek thy prize :
Not depress'd, nor rais'd too high,
By earth's vanities.
Its wealth is poor ;
From the good that here is won,
Only what for heav'n is done
Will long endure.
- 4 Heavenward direct thy mind
When afflictions press :
While thy Father, ever kind,
Watches thy distress,
Wouldst thou despair !
In that land of light and peace
Sorrow shall forever cease, —
Full joys are there.
- 5 Heavenward, whate'er betide,
Move the saints of God ;
Scorn'd for Him — the crucified,
Pleas'd they bear the load.
This Savior own !
All for Him account but loss, —
Willing, first to bear the cross,
Then, wear the crown.
- 6 Heavenward the Savior led
Through reproach and wrong :
In his path they too must tread
Who to him belong.

Did He complain ?

Trust, like him, his Father's care, —
Murmur not, — but strive with pray'r,
And vict'ry gain !

7 Heavenward He'll be thy guide

All the desert through :
Draw thee closer to his side
As new dangers grow ;
Thus hope is given, —
Which, though earthly cares annoy,
Cheers the soul with holy joy,
And lifts to heav'n.

8 Heavenward shall lead thee on

Death's own night of gloom :
True — till Death's brief shades are gone,
Terrors thick may come : —
Thy courage rouse !
Death and Night themselves shall fail,
While with rapture thou shalt hail
Thy Father's house.

9 Hallelujah ! Heavenward

Send thy praises now !
Soon shalt thou, before the LORD,
With his angels bow
Forevermore,
Where the saints in glory rest,
And, with their Redeemer blest,
Praise and adore.

- 10 Hallelujahs shalt thou sing
 When thy Lord shall come,
 In triumphant joy to bring
 All his people home.
 Thy fears discard !
 From the cross He took the throne,
 He will help thee win thy crown —
 "On ! heavenward !

J. G. Schoner

89. CONFIDENCE OF IMMORTALITY.

- 1 YES ! I was born to live forever, —
 This world cannot my portion give :
 Though Death my ties to earth may sever,
 I shall not, dying, cease to live.
 'Tis not the time I here may spend, —
 Mine is a life shall never end.
- 2 What though the world to me were given,
 Its honors, pleasures, riches, — all !
 To fill my wishes without heaven, —
 The world itself would be too small.
 Far else than this the soul requires,
 To satisfy its large desires.
- 3 The God of love, my wise Creator,
 For my own good has seen it best
 To place the wish for something greater,
 With his own hand, within my breast.
 He who my soul its hunger gave,
 Will give the food he makes it crave.

- 4 My wish a perfect love to render,
And God in clearer light to see,
Which here my sins and darkness hinder,
Shall yet be fully granted me ; —
That I, for all his mercies done,
May make his grace and glory known.
- 5 God will adjudge a right decision, -
And virtue shall at last be crown'd ;
Though here, assail'd with wild derision,
It neither peace nor safety found.
The scoffers, who may triumph here,
Before his judgment shall appear.
- 6 'Tis so ! Could angels else adore him ?
Shall not the Lord of all do right ?
Can scorers, and who fear before him,
Find equal favor in his sight ?
Alike to all is death decreed,
But retribution shall succeed.
- 7 My soul would not in death be sleeping,
With this desire accords his word ; —
And, to his testimony keeping,
I can no room for doubt afford :
How swells my joy when he declares —
The soul shall live for endless years !
- 8 Yet more ! — I've Jesus now to teach me,
And show me what himself has wrought :
Instructions, from his mouth that reach me,
With mercy and with truth are fraught.
I am the purchase of his blood,
And thus redeem'd to live with God.

- 9 My Jesus lives ! Who can destroy me ?
 Or rob me of a Savior's love ?
 He's near ! Can fears of death annoy me ?
 He points my soul to joys above.
 This body too from dust shall rise,
 And share the glory of the skies.
- 10 Let valleys sink ! — the hills be quaking !
 My faith shall suffer no dismay, —
 For, on my soul the morn is breaking —
 The dawn of an eternal day ; —
 When, LORD, thou wilt thy blessing give,
 And I shall then begin to live.
- 11 Grant, Jesus, of the fruits of heaven,
 That I the seed may daily sow ;
 O may the Spirit now be given,
 That I the works of faith may do !
 Then Death shall open wide for me
 The gates of immortality.

90. CHRISTIAN'S VIEW OF ETERNITY.

---

- 1 I'M but a weary pilgrim here,
 Life's varied griefs sustaining ;
 The ills I feel, and those I fear,
 Would tempt me to complaining :
 But, LORD, the hopes of joys above
 The pains of pilgrimage remove,
 Or give me strength to bear them.

- 2 Oft now, while sin is plotting still,
My soul is filled with terrors ;
How oft its snares my heart beguile !
How many are my errors !
But I shall yet deliv'rance see,
From sin and its delusions free, —
In this my soul rejoices.
- 3 I see around me, day by day,
Those, Jesus, who despise thee :
Their heart of pride leads them astray,
Thy honors it denies thee :
Their scorn and pride will all be past,
When thou shalt come the Judge at last,
And saints shall shout thy welcome.
- 4 Oft, in the silence of the night,
My soul her griefs is sighing ;
And morn, with its returning light,
No respite is supplying : —
A glance at heaven relief bestows, -
That home of rest no sorrow knows,
But joys reign there forever.
- 5 And when the future gives alarm
Of evils to oppress me ;
And anxious fears of coming harm
Thick gather to distress me ; —
Eternity makes time so small, —
Its fleeting fears and sorrows all
No longer raise my terror.

6 When Death, so dreaded from afar,
Comes nigh, my days to number, —
That, free from ev'ry earthly care,
My head may sink in slumber, —
That peace and joy may banish fear,
Let then eternity appear,
With views of future glory.

7 Hope, LORD, makes ev'ry burden light,
Its strength from Thee it borrows :
That glory — fit me for its sight,
By all my pilgrim sorrows !
May it in death my doubts dismiss,
And form my endless store of bliss
With Thee, in life eternal !

C. C. Sturm.

LONGING FOR HOME.

---

- 1 WEARY now, that home of pleasure
Gladly would my soul enjoy,
Where is stor'd my only treasure,
Where no evil can annoy.
- 2 Happy home, — where peace is dwelling,
Such as earth can never bring ;
Seraphs bright, its glories telling,
Sweetly there its praises sing.
- 3 Home, — where bliss is ever growing
Which no mortal thoughts conceive ;
Joys, from God in rivers flowing,
Like their source forever live.

4 That dear home of pilgrim strangers
 Longing for their house above, —
 Free from earth, its strife and dangers —
 There my soul would dwell in love.

5 Then, — no more a child of sorrow,
 Where no sin or trials come,
 Through a day that has no morrow, —
 I shall learn the joys of Home.

92. PLEASURE IN HEAVEN.

- 1 WILL it no pleasure be,
 When faith shall end in knowing,
 Hope to fruition growing, —
 The Savior's face to see?
 To learn from him the story,
 What vict'ries won our glory —
 Will this no pleasure be?
- 2 Will it no pleasure be,
 When friends, who went before us,
 Our God shall there restore us
 From pain and sickness free?
 Where sorrows show no traces,
 To meet their glad embraces;
 Will this no pleasure be?
- 3 Will it no pleasure be,
 When foes that would destroy us
 Shall never more annoy us? —

Where dwells full harmony,
 Always to live a stranger
 To trouble, fear, and danger, —
 Will this no pleasure be?

4 Will it no pleasure be,
 Where angel-chorus raises
 To God most High their praises,
 With seraphs to agree?
 And, when the skies are ringing,
 To join "thrice Holy!" singing, —
 Will this no pleasure be?

5 O yes! — there's pleasure there!
 Away, earth's glitt'ring bubbles!
 Your joys are full of troubles,
 Your bliss not worth the care.
 Then do not, friends, bewail me,
 When heart and flesh shall fail me, —
 But think! — There's pleasure there.

93. AT THE DEATH OF AN AGED CHRISTIAN

---

1 THE reaper now is waiting,
 The corn to ripeness come:
 The evening sun is setting,
 The trav'ler seeks a home:
 Grown in thy service hoary,
 Thy servant longs for rest;
 LORD, take him to thy glory,
 There with his Savior blest!

- 2 With ills his life was blended,
Much patient toil he bore ;
Now all his ills are ended,
His trials are no more :
His day's fatigue is over,
With saints he there shall sleep,
Where angels round them hover,
And safe their ashes keep.
- 3 Thy counsel, LORD, directed,
And strangely oft, his way ;
Thy shield his life protected,
Thy promise was his stay :
Thy Spirit, to him weary,
Gave strength thy will to do ;
Full many straits and dreary
Has safely brought him through.
- 4 To him, when earth imparted
No joy, thy grace was near ;
To him, when broken hearted
For sin, did Christ appear.
While flesh, now wasted — dying,
Sank feeble to the tomb, —
In strength his soul was crying —
“ Come, Jesus, quickly come ! ”
- 5 Blest soul ! — thou shalt behold him
Whom thou hast loved below ;
The wishes thou hast told him
Be more than answer'd now :

His call from high receiving,
 Thou art to glory gone ;
 Thy blessing for us leaving,
 And pray'rs before the throne.

6 Do not, O LORD, deny us
 Like grace — so rich and true :
 In feeble age stand by us,
 And make us faithful too.
 Lead us, thy strength supplying,
 The path that Jesus trod,
 Till death, — that we, in dying,
 May show thy praise abroad.

94. CHILDREN ON THE DEATH OF A [ WIDOWED ] MOTHER.

---

- 1 ROBES of white thy form inclosing,
 Pale in death we see thee sleep,
 Free from ev'ry care reposing ; —
 Thanks we offer while we weep.
 Faithful mother ! — with the blest
 Thou hast enter'd into rest :
 Sleep thy dust ! — its slumber breaking,
 Only when in glory waking !

- 2 Eyes — that, with affection beaming,
 Oft upon her children fell ;
 While she bless'd, with tears were streaming,
 And a mother's love would tell ;

On us, while we here remain,
Ne'er will beam your light again ;
But our eyes hereafter meeting,
Brighter, then, will be your greeting.

3 Hand—our way so gently leading,
Which her gifts so kindly gave,
Joy, contentment, round us spreading,—
Thou art ready for the grave.
All thy toil has ceas'd at last,
Now thy day's fatigue is past,—
But, at Jesus' bright appearing,
Thou'lt be there, the palm-branch bearing.

4 Mouth—rever'd in childhood's wildness,
Lov'd, when riper years came round ;
All thy counsels were in mildness,—
Now no more we hear thy sound :
But whate'er thy lips have said
Deep in mem'ry shall be laid ;
And, when Christ his people raises,
We shall hear thee sing his praises.

5 Heart—whose ev'ry throb revealing
Love to kindred left to mourn,
E'en in death with love was thrilling,—
Must thy love no more return ?
Weeping, hoping, we implore —
“ LORD, to us that heart restore !
“ When the grave our dust shall render,
“ May it throb with love as tender ! ”

6 Then will grateful tears be flowing,
As they now in sorrow flow ;
We in joy our love be showing,
As in grief we show it now :
From thy grave that happy day
Rolls for us the stone away ; —
Dead in Christ, thou'lt live forever,
Blest with his eternal favor.

A. Knapp.

[7 Hear us, LORD, thy throne addressing !
Listen to the orphans' pray'r !
With thy chast'ning grant thy blessing !
Show us thy paternal care !
We in youth have felt thy rod,
Make us know the orphans' GOD !
Taking from us father, — mother, —
Be our stay ! — we have no other.

8 With thine eye of love be near us !
Guidance by thy hand impart !
May thy mouth with counsels cheer us,
Flowing from thy tender heart !
Then our griefs in joy shall end,
While in thee we have a friend,
Who, at death, will friends restore us,
That to glory went before us.]

95. TO A CHRISTIAN MOURNING THE LOSS OF PIOUS FRIENDS.

---

- 1 WHY weepest thou? — *Lov'd friends to thee are lost, —
Nor meet thy longing eyes.*
In dust to sleep retir'd the weary dust,
In earth's still bosom lies :
Life's blossoms, gaily blooming,
From with'ring naught could save ;
Its joys and griefs entombing,
Full welcome was the grave.
- 2 Why weepest thou? — Their father-land on high
Allur'd their souls away :
From earth's deep shadows, clouding all their sky,
They sought a brighter day.
Here anxious cares unnumber'd
Our hopes and peace destroy ;
There, with no fears encumber'd,
The soul has ceaseless joy.
- 3 Why weepest thou? — Here e'en the righteous fall
Oft into grievous sin ;
The world, or flesh can there no sense enthral,
The foe, no vict'ry win ;
There grace fulfils its measure,
The heart is free from stain, —
Nor, to its hours of pleasure,
Succeeds regret or pain.
- 4 Why weepest thou? — The future's dreary night
Obstructed all their view ;
Now happy prospects cheer their ravish'd sight,
With blessings ever new :

Apart the veil is riven
Which on their vision lay ;
Far off the clouds are driven,
And shines a glorious day.

5 Why weepst thou ? — The Savior's gentle hand
Has wip'd away their tears :
No sorrow enters that dear father-land
Which to our faith appears.
His arms of love inclosing
The weary and distress'd,
There, on his heart reposing,
They find a blissful rest.

6 Why weepst thou ? — He ever lives to save !
The dead shall hear his voice ;
He'll bring thyself too, fearless of the grave,
To Zion and its joys.
Thy friends with songs shall greet thee,
When thou shalt thither come :
Thy lost ones there shall meet thee,
In their eternal home.

96. AT A CHRISTIAN'S BURIAL.

1 WE give this body to the dust ;
But in the sure and joyful trust,
That, when the trumpet sounds, 't will rise
To life immortal in the skies.

- 2 The soul, releas'd, is now with God,
By death dismiss'd to its abode,
And, purified from ev'ry sin,
Adores the pow'r of grace divine.
- 3 The ills, which here the saint attend,
At death for ever have an end :
And all who Christ by faith receive,
On dying, shall forever live :
- 4 Shall live from sin and sorrow free ;
Their dust shall sleep in Christ, till He,
Reveal'd in pow'r, this dust shall raise
To share his glory, — show his praise.
- 5 Here rest thee sweetly till he come !
While we repair, each to his home,
Henceforward looking for the day
Which soon will call our souls away.
- 6 Dear Savior, now our souls prepare,
That we the call may nothing fear ;
May vict'ry through thy death obtain,
And find — for us to die is gain.

Michael Weiss.

97. THE CHRISTIAN IN PROSPECT
OF HIS RESURRECTION.

---

- 1 I HAIL the day, in prospect bright,
When, I from death awaking,
My Savior God shall meet my sight,
Forth in his glory breaking :
Then to the skies
With joy I'll rise,
Their crown of glory wearing
Who love their Lord's appearing.
- 2 Thou, Lord, wilt in due time reveal
This day of full redemption ;
The day, when I from ev'ry ill
Shall have complete exemption :
In heaven too,
As angels do,
With ev'ry good attending,
Shall live a life unending.
- 3 This endless life wilt thou impart, —
Thou art my hope unceasing ; —
Thy coming shall rejoice my heart,
My prison'd dust releasing :
Nor need I fear,
Before thy bar
Thy scoffers to resemble, —
Who shall in anguish tremble ; —
- 4 While I, in wonder and delight,
Shall stand, dear Lord, before thee,
With the redeem'd upon thy right, —
And then in heav'n adore thee.

With hopes so high,
 Thy grace supply, —
 To fit me for thy favor,
 And for thy joys forever !

J. Busch.

98. RESURRECTION OF THE SAINTS.

- 1 HARK ! The trump of God is sounding,
 Th' Archangel's shout the call resounding,
 Arise, ye saints, and leave the tomb !
 Children of your heav'nly Father,
 To Him, from your dispersions, gather,
 The LORD of glory calls you home.
 Behold the morning break,
 Death's night is gone, — awake !
 Hallelujah !
 Now is prepar'd
 Your full reward, —
That day, — the last great day is here !

- 2 Earth, and Sea, and Hell are quaking,
 Now the redeem'd to life are waking ;
 To new and perfect life they rise :
 Jesus comes in glory's brightness,
 Before him mercy, truth, uprightness, —
 How fair their crown ! How rich the prize !
 They live with God's dear Son,
 Their light, his shining throne ;
 Shout Hosannas !
 Redeemer, thou
 Dost give us now
 Sure mansions of eternal peace.

- 3 Praise shall be our glad employment
 Through endless day of pure enjoyment ;
 What stores in thee of grace unknown !
 Joys are now all hope excelling,
 New wonders still thou art revealing,
 Our friend, and God's beloved Son.
 Never to eye appear'd,
 Such things were never heard, —
 Thine the glory !
 Eternally,
 O LORD, to thee
 New songs and honors be address'd !

ADVENT OF CHRIST.

- 1 THE Savior comes ! Sing praise to Him,
 The God proclaim'd by seraphim
 “ Thrice Holy ! ” in their praises.
 Thou comest, God's Eternal Son,
 Descending from thy heav'nly throne,
 Whose grace to glory raises !
 May we
 By Thee
 Find deliv'ry
 From our slavery,
 And, in glory,
 Sing of grace the wondrous story !
- 2 We welcome thee, great Prince of peace,
 Through whom from sin we hope release, —
 Welcome to earthly dwelling !

Thou takest on thee flesh and blood,
Becomest man to work our good,
Thy heart with pity swelling.

And now
Art thou
Mercy reaching,
Kindly teaching
To transgressors,
How of grace to come possessors.

3 Thou bringest comfort from distress,
Life, health, enduring happiness ; —

To thee be praise forever !

What, dearest Savior, can we bring ?

How render thee fit offering ?

Thou, by thy matchless favor,

To men

In sin

Helpless lying,

Near to dying,

Op'nest heaven ; —

Greater boon was never given !

4 We bring a grateful heart to thee,
For sin aggriev'd, from feigning free,
And in thy service ready :

To thee, and to our neighbor true,

Where'er thou leadest would pursue,

With purpose ever steady.

Jesus,

To us

Make thy pleasure

Duty's measure !

All who cherish

Not thy love, by wrath must perish.

- 5 May we for endless glory strive, —
 By faith upon thy promise live, —
     Our hopes still upward rising;
 In sorrows look to thee above,
 Abiding ever in thy love,
     Earth's vanities despising; —
     Till we
     To thee
     Sing the praises
     Heaven raises,
     And, before thee,
 With the ransom'd throng adore thee.

100.

THE BIRTH OF CHRIST.

- 1 O BETHLEHEM! O Bethlehem?
     To envied honors growing;
 O sister of Jerusalem,
     What grace to thee is flowing?
 O Ephrata, once David's home,
 Now David's Lord to thee is come,
     His promis'd mercy showing.
- 2 The time of promise is fulfill'd,
     Now comes the great salvation;
 The sorrows of the heart are still'd,
     Restor'd our desolation:
 What boundless, what unearthly joy?
 Our hope and peace none can destroy,
     Or stay our exultation.

- 3 I, like the shepherds, sat, — the shade
Of darkness all around me, —
A darkness that my sins had made,
And there in fetters bound me :
When lo ! — a splendor from on high,
Whose glories, spreading o'er the sky,
With hopes and fears confound me.
- 4 Which should I look for, — weal — or wo ?
Then heard I sweetly pealing, —
“ To God on high new praises now !
“ To all mankind good feeling !
“ On earth shall endless peace abide
“ With all, who for His grace confide
“ In him this grace revealing ! ”
- 5 And I my darkness fain would leave,
This call of light obeying ;
But, like the shepherds too, receive
The bliss, no value paying :
I have no gold, or precious store, —
I give my heart, I have no more,
A heart full often straying.
- 6 And wilt thou take it at my hand,
Thy peace on me bestowing ?
O wondrous child of Canaan's land,
What in my heart is glowing !
O Prince of peace, — thy grace I own,
A peace and joy, before unknown,
Thy Spirit there is sowing.

- 7 Henceforth, when sin would seek my harm,
'T will have no pow'r to harm me ;
The night of Death, with its alarm,
No longer can alarm me :
O'er sin and trouble, fear and Death,
I'll rise triumphant, cheer'd by faith
In him whose love will arm me.

101. SIMEON AND THE INFANT
JESUS.

---

- 1 YE who with years are sinking,
To death so nearly gone,
Now on the grave be thinking,
With aged Simeon.
- 2 He, at the holy temple,
In pray'r employ'd his breath,
And was a bright example
Of hope and joy in death.
- 3 Gently his days were flowing,
As balsam gently flows ;
His spirit brightly glowing,
As day of summer glows.
- 4 He knew it was appointed
From death he should be free,
Until the LORD's anointed
His longing eyes should see.

- 5 He saw : — with transport thrilling,
He took him to his breast, —
The sight his wishes sealing,
His soul was fully blest.
- 6 And see ! — this saint beholding, —
Of death he has no fear ;
His feeble arms infolding
The Lord, — his triumphs hear ! —
- 7 “ Though head with age is hoary,
“ Young pleasure swells my heart ;
“ Now, to the realms of glory,
“ Would I in peace depart.
- 8 “ Him — What my joy can heighten ? —
“ Who Israel’s hope has been,
“ Who gentiles shall enlighten, —
“ At length my eyes have seen.”
- 9 As faith still mounted higher,
And rapture yet increas’d ;
He press’d his Savior nigher
Upon his heart, — and ceas’d.
- 10 When, LORD, with age encumber’d,
Or bow’d with ills and grief,
I here my days have number’d, —
May such be my relief !
- 11 Though not, in form as living,
My Savior greet my eyes ;
May he, his presence giving,
Release me to the skies :

- 12 And, while my soul is singing —
 “Hosanna! Lord, appear!”
 The heavens back be ringing —
 “Hosanna! He is near!”

102.

PRAYER OF SIMEON.

- 1 I too, through Jesus, may in peace
 Depart, like Simeon praying;
 And find in death my wish'd release,
 No grief or fear betraying; —
 For rest my weary eyelids close, —
 My flesh in quiet sleep repose, —
 My spirit rise to heaven.
- 2 What then will be my glad surprise,
 When, earthly cares all ended,
 My ransom'd soul shall mount the skies,
 By angel-guard attended!
 When I shall see, in glory bright,
 Those mansions of eternal light,
 By God for me made ready!
- 3 May I, LORD, ever ready be,
 Upon thy grace relying!
 May hope of glory strengthen me,
 To honor thee in dying!
 Then will I cry, with cheerful faith
 In Him, who dying conquer'd Death, —
 “Come, Jesus! Lord, come quickly!”

103.

VISIT OF THE MAGI.

---

- 1 KING, to Jews and gentiles given
For their healing and their light,
Saba sees thy star in heaven,
And rejoices at the sight :
Shem and Japhet come from far,
To the light of Jacob's star.
- 2 Join'd to those, who are inquiring
From the East, dear Lord, for thee, —
All we ask, or are desiring,
Is the royal child to see.
We our knees before thee bow,
With our arms embrace thee now.
- 3 Take our presents, nor refuse us
Giving what we value most ;
In thy gentleness, excuse us
That our hands no riches boast : —
Ours is no blest Araby, —
All our wealth is poverty.
- 4 Stead of gold and costly treasure,
Faith, and hope, and love receive !
May our incense meet thy pleasure —
We our hearts' devotion give ;
But for myrrh, — our penitence,
And of guilt an humbling sense.
- 5 Take in kindness what we offer, —
Willing gifts from souls sincere ;
Leave us not from foes to suffer
Rous'd to rage by guilty fear :

From the bloody Herod's sword,
Thy protection be our guard !

- 6 While we homeward shall be going,
    May thy blessing with us go :
Cheer us on, thy mercy showing, —
    Still the rage of ev'ry foe ;
Lead us with thy gentle hand,
Till we reach our father-land.

104. CHILDHOOD OF JESUS

---

- 1 THOUGH manhood's feeble nature
    Our Savior made his own,
The godhead's ev'ry feature
    In him was clearly shown.
- 2 Earth's wealth and pomp declining,
    His lowly way he trod,
While through the veil were shining
    The glories of the God.
- 3 By him God wrought with power,
    God's image he express'd ;
God's Spirit was his dower,
    As none beside possess'd.
- 4 Of prophets sent by heaven
    With him could none compare ;
He Israel's hope was given,
    A light to lands afar.

- 5 His god-head was discover'd
To Bethl'em's shepherd throng,
When angels o'er them hover'd,
And sang their raptur'd song.
- 6 While childhood yet was tender,
His piety was seen :
What fruit his graces render !
How godlike was his mien !
- 7 His perfect approbation
God gave him from above ;
Men show'd their admiration, —
None could withhold their love.
- 8 For highest worth he nerv'd him,
On this he kept his view ;
Ye angels here who serv'd him,
Make him your pattern too !
- 9 Here learn we virtue's measure ; —
His early days to fill,
It was his highest pleasure
To do his Father's will.
- 10 God's glory he is seeking,
Nor waits for riper years ;
He hears when Wisdom's speaking,
And ponders what he hears.
- 11 Assemble now, ye sages,
And listen while he speaks :
The wisdom of long ages
From lips of childhood breaks.

- 12 From doubt and error turning,
Ye teachers, hear him teach :
From him a knowledge learning,
Your schools could never reach.
- 13 'Tis wisdom all he's saying,
And, with attractions new,
The way of life displaying,
His doctrine all is true.
- 14 How blest the child that chooses
Religion for his part ; —
While evil he refuses,
To virtue gives his heart ! —
- 15 In size and knowledge growing,
Like Jesus he shall prove —
While men their love are showing,
God too will show him love.
- 16 The words of Christ regarding,
In youth he shall be blest ;
Honors his age rewarding,
His end be endless rest.

105. JOHN THE FORERUNNER.

- 1 THE world, enslav'd to sin,
Were loaded with its curses ; —
'T was then that God would show
The fulness of his mercies,
And sends a herald forth
The tidings to declare —
That now his Son, their King,
Is with salvation near.
- 2 The messenger is come,
And of the king gives warning ;
He shines, a steady light,
With holy zeal is burning ;
While sinners of all ranks
He bids their guilt deplore :
And on his spirit rest
Elijah's, and his pow'r.
- 3 The faithful John proclaims
Upon the banks of Jordan, —
“ The heav'nly King is nigh,
“ Repent, and seek for pardon !
“ Lo ! the Redeemer comes !
“ Bear fruits of righteousness ! —
“ And thus shall Israel's God
“ His mourning people bless.”

4    He own'd — “ I am not He !
     “ But show you the anointed : ”
     And to his hearers cried,
While he to Jesus pointed, —
     “ Behold the Lamb of God,
     “ Whose blood, for sinners spilt,
     “ A fountain shall supply
     “ To wash away their guilt ! ”

5    O what a word was that !
     To us the message reaches ;
     And shall we not accept,
The mercy that it teaches !
     Hail to the Lamb of God,
     By John so clearly shown
     The Savior of the world ;
     And be his praises known !

6    This word, O LORD, reveals,
     The myst'ry of salvation ;
     May it thy glory sound
To ev'ry clime and nation !
     Who penitent believes,
     Has joys unknown before ;
     And, when his course is done,
     Shall live forevermore.

Schlegel.

106. MINISTRY OF JESUS.

- 1 THAT men to truth might not be strangers,
— The truth that has its source above, —
Might thus escape sin's fearful dangers,
And purify their hearts in love ;
For this, Lord, thou wast hither sent,
For this thy life on earth was spent.
- 2 This daily was thy great employment, —
How active was thy ceaseless care !
In this was centred thy enjoyment,
Of love no efforts didst thou spare,
That, by display of truth so bright,
The darken'd world might see the light.
- 3 The light, that shows God's mercy given
And teaches all we need to know ;
The light, that shows the way to heaven
And how that way we should pursue ;
The light, that cheers our prospects here,
Till we in perfect light appear.
- 4 That thou might be this light of gladness
To wretched man, — what ills were borne
By thee ! — what load of shame and sadness !
No trials could thy purpose turn ;
So great thy patience to endure
Whate'er would make our blessings sure.
- 5 And, Lord, thy life abides forever —
The life which thou hast liv'd below, —
The richest blessing of God's favor,
For which to Him our thanks we owe.

A blessing, too, that bids us raise
To Thee, Redeemer, songs of praise.

- 6 Great Teacher, now accept our praises,
For thy salvation clearly shown :
May all in sin's delusive mazes
Thy grace and truth be brought to own !
And we, here faithful to thy love,
Enjoy thy perfect light above !

J. S. Dieterich.

107. JESUS OUR EXAMPLE.

---

- 1 JESUS, of what we should approve,
Thou art the bright example ;
Thy heart, warm in the Father's love,
Was virtue's living temple ;
And with his glorious image seal'd,
Thou, in thy lowly state, wast fill'd
With wisdom, pow'r and goodness.
- 2 To do the Father's will, Whose aim
Was ever shown so zealous ?
Who, for the honor of his name,
Was ever found so jealous ?
Thine was no selfish interest,
The ruling object of thy breast
Was but to work his pleasure.
- 3 When thou the wicked didst regard,
With grief thy soul was filling ;
But when was done thy Father's word,
Thy heart with joy was thrilling :

On his depended all thy will, —
To Him thine eye was looking still,
With meekness and reliance.

4 Before the world, by word and deed,
Thou praise to Him didst offer ;
Wast ready too, as he decreed,
For our relief to suffer :
And as the Father's name is Love,
So thy delight, all else above,
Was found in showing mercy.

5 Nor could the injuries or wrath
Of man, to murmurs move thee ;
True to thy God, in griefs and death,
Thou on the cross didst prove thee :
Thy courage never falter'd once,
In him was placed thy confidence,
So cheerful and unwav'ring.

6 Thy hope was constant in his name,
Though scoffers were deriding ;
And when thine hour of darkness came,
It found thee still confiding :
Thy hope was met ; — thy God was there,
He heard and answer'd then thy pray'r, —
Thou wast from death deliver'd.

7 By him wast thou in glory thron'd,
Angels on high adore thee ;
There saints their grateful songs resound,
And cast their crowns before thee, —
Proclaiming — “ Worthy is the Lamb
“ Who died for us, — and to his name
“ Be worship, praise, and power ! ”

- 8 Grant, Lord, that to resemble thee
May be our highest pleasure ;
That we too, in God's love, may see
Our noblest, richest treasure ; —
May in his providence confide,
And fearless all his will abide,
In living, and in dying.

JESUS OUR PATTERN.

- 1 Most holy Jesus ! — Fount unfailing
Of joy all other joys excelling,
Thou art the fount of holiness.
The brightest cherubim before thee,
The seraphim, who there adore thee,
Compar'd with thee sink in disgrace.
A pattern thou for me, —
O may I copy thee,
Holy Savior !
And, Jesus, now
Thy help bestow, ·
And teach me to be holy too !
- 2 Most humble Jesus ! — self-denying,
With all thy Father's will complying,
To death thou didst his will pursue :
My spirit with like temper arming,
My actions to thy will conforming,
My pride and waywardness subdue !

May I, like thee, be mild ;
With feelings of a child
Truly humble :
And, Jesus, now
Thy help bestow,
And teach me to be humble too !

3 O watchful Jesus ! — without slumber,
By toils and sorrows out of number,
Thou wast encircled night and day ;
By day, in ceaseless labor keeping,
Whole nights before thy God wast weeping,
Forgetful not to watch and pray.
Grant thou, O Lord, to me
That I may also be
Ever watchful !
Yes, Jesus, now
Thy help bestow,
And teach me to be watchful too !

4 O tender Jesus ! — kindest Savior,
What love and mildness of behavior
Didst thou maintain to friend and foe !
So God to all the sun is sending,
To all his fruitful show'rs extending,
Though thanks to him they never show.
Like thee, Lord, would I love,
Myself I thus would prove
Thy disciple :
And, Jesus, now
Thy help bestow,
And teach me to be tender too !

- 5 Most gentle Jesus ! — unoffending,
Thy foes, with injuries unending,
To wrath could not thy spirit rouse.
Unmov'd, while shame on thee is pouring, —
Indignant zeal thy soul devouring,
When shame is shown thy father's house.
My Savior, I would be
Thus gentle, — and like thee
Timely zealous :
And, Jesus, now
Thy help bestow,
And teach me to be gentle too !
- 6 Great Heir of all ! — Thou King most worthy !
Though angels ceas'd not to adore thee, —
Content with poor and mean estate,
Thou livedst here in deep depression,
A servant's was thy low condition,
For self thou soughtest nothing great.
O Lord, this temper give,
That I on earth may live
Ever lowly !
Yes, Jesus, now
Thy help bestow,
And teach me to be lowly too !
- 7 Unspotted Jesus ! — thy demeanor
Was chaste and pure in all its tenor ;
A perfect modesty was thine
In thought and word, in look and feeling ;
Thy manners, dress, and acts revealing
A soul of purity divine.

Dear Savior, I would strive
Like thee below to live
Pure and blameless.
And, Jesus, now
Thy help bestow,
And teach me to live spotless too !

8 Most temp'rate Jesus ! — here while living,
In meat and drink thyself wast giving
Example for our guidance still :
When hunger press'd, its force allaying,
For food, thy Father's call obeying,
And hung'ring most, to do his will.
Lord, teach me in thy school
My appetites to rule,
Temp'rance learning.
Yes, Jesus, now
Thy help bestow,
And teach me to be temp'rate too !

9 Now, hear me, Jesus — my chief pleasure !
Conform me fully to thy measure,
And let me bear thine image bright !
Thy Spirit and thy strength bestowing,
That I, in ev'ry virtue growing,
May ripen for the world of light.
O may thy love, with pow'r,
Constrain me more and more,
Faithful Savior !
Yes, Jesus, thou
Wilt grace bestow,
That I may reign in glory too.

G. Arnold.

109. MIRACLES OF JESUS.

- 1 How great the wonders wrought by thee!
At thy command diseases flee,
Thy pow'r and mercy telling;
While devils now their victims yield,
And Satan, baffled, quits the field, —
Thy arm his fury quelling.
The raging storm at once is still:
Thy steady feet, if such thy will,
Walk on the floods that vainly rave;
Thy path is o'er the foaming wave —
This is an hour
Displays a pow'r
All should adore,
And never doubt thy godhead more.
- 2 We see the blind restor'd to sight,
The deaf, now list'ning with delight,
Their way with thee pursuing:
The dying leave their bed of pain,
The buried walk on earth again,
Their ended life renewing:
Where crowds were famishing for bread,
There now by thee are thousands fed, —
Sweet as thy new-created wine
They drink thy heav'nly doctrine in.
Each soul distress'd
That seeks thy rest
Is fully blest, —
Of all good gifts thine are the best.

3 In thee all might and wisdom stor'd,
With goodness join'd, proclaim thee Lord, —
The rocks might well proclaim it. ,
But scoffers would more wonders see, —
In scorn of all thy works and thee,
New proof they ask, — and name it :—
“The sun must at his bidding stand,
“The moon, abide at his command;
“Let him of time roll back the course;
“Or rise through sky to God his source;—
    “When this is done,
    “It will be shown,
    “And we will own
“He is indeed God's equal Son.”

4 Ere shepherds to thy manger came,
The skies had witness'd to thy claim,
Unwonted light displaying :
Again their op'ning vault appear'd, —
The Father then his love declar'd
To thee, at Jordan praying :
Then too, the Spirit from above,
Descending on thee as a dove,
Call'd on the world in thee to own
Messiah, Christ, the promis'd one.
    All wisdom's thine;
    While pow'r divine
    And goodness join,
That here in flesh the God may shine.

- 5 In mercy is thy pleasure still,
No flames of vengeance at thy will
Against revilers burning :
So, when for fire disciples pray'd,
Thy tender pity was display'd,
Their thoughts to mercy turning.
But, sinners, dare not to presume !
He, who triumphant bursts the tomb,
Whom God from grave to glory brings,
And there enthrones him King of kings, —
Will ever reign
The pride to stain
Of mortals vain
Who treat his gospel with disdain.
- 6 To earth thou yet wilt come again,
Before the gather'd sons of men
To work thy greatest wonder.
Enthron'd on clouds wilt thou appear,
When friend and foe thy doom shall hear, —
Then, ever part asunder.
Let sinners dread that final doom !
To saints thou wilt with favor come :
By thee they find a mercy-seat,
And now in faith thy coming wait.
Thy wondrous pow'r,
Thy wisdom's store,
Thy goodness, more,
And truth, dear Savior, we adore.

110. JESUS ON TABOR.

1 CHRIST, our bliss — all joys combining,
 Thy face above the sun is shining,
 A glitt'ring robe thy form arrays :
 Glory bright from thee is beaming,
 The voice of truth thy worth proclaiming,
 While from the Father's mouth it says
     In love's endearing tone —
     " This is my only Son,
     " Me well pleasing :
     " His word regard !
     " And your reward
     " Be endless glory with the LORD ! "

2 Can one glimpse, so quickly over,
 Suffice us, Jesus, to discover
     The splendors of thy high estate ?
     All thy glories to be telling,
 We need to build for thee a dwelling,
 And evermore around thee wait.
     Dear Savior, at thy side
     Joy, health and peace abide —
     Hallelujah !
     Here, Lord, with thee
     'Tis good to be,
 From ev'ry care and sorrow free.

3 Lord of life, to earth returning,
 Our bodies with thy light adorning,
     Give us thy splendor then to see !
     When our dust, from dust awaking,
 And, in his glories too partaking,
     Shall splendid and immortal be, —

Far brighter light shall shine
Than, Tabor, e'er was thine !
While Hosannas
Of higher praise
Our tongues shall raise,
On Zion's hill, through endless days.

111. TEARS OF JESUS.

---

- 1 OUR Lord wept o'er Jerusalem
In sin yet unrelenting ;
Think, then, what joy it gives to him
When sinners are repenting :
And how to his own people's cry
Can he a gracious ear deny ?
These tears, too, fully manifest
That Jesus Christ —
He is the faithful Great High-priest.

- 2 Yes, Jesus, and these tears of thine
For me make intercession,
When I from duty's path decline,
Too heedless of transgression.
Their price in God's esteem is high,
And none who thither turn their eye
Of hope, — for guilt sincerely grieve,
And sin will leave,
But that from God shall grace receive.

- 3 And have they not a voice to speak
    Their solemn admonition ? —
A voice that in my soul should wake
    A deep, sincere contrition ?
O suffer not that earthly cares
At once command my ready tears,
While, in this erring heart of mine,
    Sorrow for sin
Can brief admission scarcely win.
- 4 Full oft my spirit is depress'd,
    And bitter tears are flowing ;
The sight of crime afflicts my breast,
    The world their malice showing :
But 'neath such trials ere I sink,
Be it my comfort then to think,
The hatred which to thee they prov'd
    Whom thou hadst lov'd,
To tears thy tender pity mov'd.
- 5 Lord, all my tears thyself dost see,
    Each in succession counting ;
Though many are forgot by me,
    To thee not one is wanting :
These never from thy view depart,
So move with sympathy thy heart,
That, while through trials I proceed
    Where thou hast led,
Thou cheerest me in all my need.
- 6 The Christian, who with pious tears
    Is to the Spirit sowing,
Shall reap, when his reward appears,
    A harvest overflowing.

Shall reap such blessings as excel
All we conceive, or tongue could tell, —
For trifling sorrows of an hour,
    Abundant store
Of joys to last forevermore.

- 7 Thee, after grief and shame endur'd,
    Now praise and bliss are crowning :
Tears were by thee in torrents pour'd,
    While for our sins atoning ;
But, when thy sorrows here were past,
In heav'n was found thy perfect rest :
And thither soon thou'lt welcome me,
    To honor thee,
For all thy tears, eternally.

112. SEIZURE OF JESUS.

---

- 1 GREAT thy sorrows, injur'd Jesus,
    That with joy we might be crown'd :
Thou, from bondage to release us,
    Art as malefactor bound.
Schemes of cruel foes thou knewest,
Back, to shun them, never drewest ;
    But, in holy courage strong,
Goest forth to meet their wrong.
- 2 More than twelve of angel-legions,
    That surround thy Father's throne,
Quick would leave the heavenly regions,
    For the rescue of his Son :

At thy call would fly to save thee,
Crush the foes that scorn and brave thee, —
Yet, for vengeance or defence,
Callest thou no legions thence.

3 Nor the strength of thy high nature
Leaves thy manhood now alone :
But, redeeming thy lost creature,
Boundless might in grace is shown.
Only let the word be spoken,
All thy fetters soon were broken, —
And the throng of scoffing foes
Plung'd in helpless, hopeless woes.

4 On they come — now, backward flying,
Prostrate fall before thy word —
“ I am He ! ” — sure proof supplying
Of thy pow'r and courage, Lord.
Thee to die no one has driven,
Life for us by choice is given : —
And, our guilty souls to free,
Shame and bonds are borne by thee.

5 'Tis to break our chains forever,
Thou art bound by wicked hands ;
To complete God's scheme of favor,
Sparest thou the soldier-bands ; —
Aid of friendly sword repellst,
Wound of eager foe-man healest ;
Freely takest fetters on, —
Though no evil thou hast done.

- 6 Should thou here account me worthy
For thy sake to suffer shame ;
Grant me, Jesus, I implore thee,
Grace to honor thy dear name :
Bonds, reproach — all — I can bear it,
Only give thy cheering Spirit,
And with joy I'll spend my breath,
Ever faithful until death.

J. J. Rambach.

JESUS DESERTED.

- 1 How trying to the heart
The wound that friends impart !
To thee, Lord, far more bitter
Than buffet, stripe, or fetter,
That, when thy foes assail thee,
Thy chosen twelve should fail thee.
- 2 The danger scarcely near,
These all are fill'd with fear :
They who could boast so loudly,
And were so ready — proudly
To prove their faith by dying,
Their safety seek, by flying.
- 3 Who boldly drew his sword, —
E'en Peter — leaves his Lord ;
He flees, with panic taken ; —
Sham'd thee to have forsaken,
Returns ; — but on new trial,
Falls deeper by denial.

- 4 Is faith in Peter found ?
When safe, he Jesus own'd,
Him as the Christ proclaiming,
With zeal and courage flaming, —
But now, when danger tries him,
He, with an oath, denies him.
- 5 But soon thy look, O Lord,
Him to himself restor'd,
His guilt most deeply feeling :
— Sorrow his lips is sealing, —
While tears, in torrents pouring,
For mercy are imploring.
- 6 He sought, — he found it there :
O then, let none despair,
But ask forgiveness rather !
God is a gracious father,
And sins, felt as a burden,
Through Christ may find a pardon.
- 7 Had e'en the traitor too,
After his deed of wo,
Sought grace, with godly mourning,
To the betray'd returning, —
What hasted his perdition,
That blood had seal'd remission.
- 8 But he who mov'd the plot, —
Satan, — forsakes it not,
Exciting guilty terrors,
Till Judas' growing errors
Make him of self the hater,
To his own soul, a traitor.

- 9    How dreadful his award !
      Mortals, be on your guard !
      Still Satan frights, entices.
      Lord, show us his devices !
      Be thou our strength and tower,
      To save us from his power.

- 10   Should any guilt divide —
      ( O may it ne'er betide ! )
      Me from thy holy keeping ;
      Make me like Peter, — weeping,
      For grace to thee repairing, —
      Not, Judas-like, despairing !

114.*PETER'S DENIAL.

---

- 1   URG'D, Lord, by sinful terror,
      Peter denied thy name :
      Soon, conscious of his error,
      He mourn'd his guilt with shame :
Thy look with sorrow fill'd his breast,
      He sought thy pard'ning mercy,
      And was with pardon bless'd.
- 2   After, how grew this martyr
      In faith and hardihood !
      He scorn'd thy truth to barter,
      But seal'd it with his blood :
For thee his Lord he spent his breath,
      In life declar'd thy glory,
      And honor'd thee in death.

3 My soul is in disquiet,
'Tis fill'd with constant pain :
'T were useless to deny it,
From thee concealment's vain ,
And, Lord, with grief I own to thee
Thy name I have dishonor'd,
O pardon, pardon me !

4 When loud the bold blasphemer,
Amid the scoffing crowd,
Revil'd thee, my Redeemer,
Thy name, my Lord and God !
I durst not own myself to be
A Christian ; — basely fearing
Their scoffing, more than thee.

5 Lord, thou hadst freely offer'd
Thy life's blood in my place, —
And still by thee was proffer'd
For me all needed grace.
What vile ingratitude in me,
That I, the scoff of sinners
Should more regard, than thee !

6 I own, deep sorrow feeling,
My fear was strangely base :
Pardon me, Lord, revealing
The strangeness of thy grace.
On Peter fell thy pitying eye —
O may thine eye of pity
Pass my transgression by !

7 And may this time of sorrow
Be ever in my mind ;
Thence may thy service borrow
New cords my love to bind.
My Lord and God, thee to deny
Fills more with dread my spirit,
Than for thy name to die.

8 May but thy favor arm me,
Then all reproach is vain :
Who is it that would harm me ?
God makes it work my gain.
Let all my foes their strength unite,
And marshal all their terrors,
I'm fearless in thy might.

9 From thee what shall divide me ?
Henceforward I will own,
Should all the world deride me,
Jesus my Lord alone :
And when before thy judgment brought,
If here I shall confess thee,
Thou wilt deny me not.

B. Muentert.

115. JESUS BEFORE THE COUNCIL.

- 1 THE Lord of our salvation
Must now to judgment go !
At such humiliation,
Shall we no wonder show ?
'Gainst Jesus, the unspotted,
Of Jews the promis'd Head,
Their council long had plotted,
He's now their pris'ner led.
- 2 With impious haste and daring,
To glut their cherish'd hate,
Their scheme afore preparing,
They hurry on his fate.
Their wrath, to fury raging,
The innocent condemns :
His blood alone assuaging
Its fierce malignant flames.
- 3 His holy words and living —
To whom were these unknown ?
Who most, their favor giving,
Were bound his worth to own ?
Who most ow'd him protection ?
None more should guard his cause,
Than they who claim'd direction
Of worship and its laws.
- 4 But here false proofs were render'd
By base and perjur'd men ;
The holy one was slander'd,
As if the slave of sin :

Here justice was denied him,
The Judge's seat disgrac'd ;
As falsehood had belied him,
The guilty doom was pass'd.

5 The place bore degradation,
The court, a shameful blot,
From Jesus' condemnation, —
His innocence, no spot.
He spoke not, — his not speaking
Their calumny disprov'd ;
While they their rage were wreaking,
His spirit was unmov'd.

6 O that, to wrong perverted,
Were found no judges still,
Whose pow'r is e'er exerted
To work the righteous ill !
No place, though once devoted
To virtue and to God,
That now is strangely noted
For violence and blood !

7 Keep me, Lord, from deceiving !
Whate'er is right and true,
Thy guidance never leaving,
I onward would pursue :
In speaking, or refraining,
Would own thy gentle yoke,
From ev'ry thing abstaining,
Resentment to provoke.

- 8 Reproach guard me from saying
 To those reproaching me ;
 From hate with hate repaying :
 Thus may I follow thee !
 I will no inj'ry offer,
 And if, in duty's place,
 I still must inj'ries suffer,
 I'll trust me to thy grace.

H. J. Heeren.

116. JESUS BEFORE PILATE.

- 1 BEHOLD the man ! How heavy lay
 On him the sinner's burden !
 What grievous price had he to pay
 That we might hope for pardon !
 Such sorrows, since the world began,
 Before were never seen by man,
 Nor since on earth been witness'd.
- 2 The Prince of life, to glory born,
 Our Savior here, hereafter,
 Now bears the Jewish rulers' scorn,
 Their taunts, and jeering laughter ;
 As malefactor he is seiz'd,
 Accus'd, defam'd, — the crowd are pleas'd,
 And join the proud derision.
- 3 Their fury, raging unrestrain'd,
 To grosser insult urges ;
 With fetters bound, with blood distain'd,
 With buffets bruis'd and scourges,

A reed his sceptre, thorns his crown,
In purple robes for mock'ry shown, —
He stands before revilers.

4 His heathen Judge, of foreign birth,
Is with compassion taken ;
He brings him to his brethren forth,
Their pity to awaken : —
“ Behold the man ! — there's no offence,
“ I can't condemn while innocence
“ So strongly pleads to save him.”

5 'T was vain ! — alas, 't was all in vain,
This plea of gentile stranger ;
The mad, infuriate, Jewish train
Grow bold in Jesus' danger.
His death alone can satisfy
Their rage : — with deaf'ning shout they cry
To Pilate, — “ Crucify him ! ”

6 Thou canst not, but with horror, think
That this devoted nation
Thus mix their cup of wrath to drink
To distant generation.
Think too, my soul, how 't is with thee !
What are thy sins ? — and art thou free
From guilt for death of Jesus ?

7 Behold the man ! — it was for thee
His shame and griefs were suffer'd ;
Now hear him say — “ Behold, in me,
“ The victim for thee offer'd !

“ The guilt was thine, — its fearful load
“ I bore, atoning with my blood,
“ I died, from death to save thee ! ”

8 Blest Jesus, God's beloved Son !

Who all my sins removest, —
Exalted to thy Father's throne,
Show that my soul thou lovest !
And let thy griefs and death, O Lord,
New life and peace to me afford, —
Thus glorify thy mercy !

9 And when the world, when flesh and blood

To paths of sin allure me ;
That I may keep the heav'nly road,
From wand'ring to secure me,
In mercy cry to me — “ Behold
“ The man, who suffer'd ills untold
“ For thee ! — Wilt thou forsake me ? ”

10 Redeemer, I have sworn to thee,

— Let not my purpose waver ! —
As my God liveth, — that in me
Thy love shall rule forever :
And may the mem'ry of thy death
And sorrows, while I have my breath,
Constrain me to be faithful !

B. Muentert.

117. CHRIST ON THE CROSS.

- 1 COME now, my soul, thy thoughts engage
On what by Christ was spoken,
When on the cross man's deadly rage
With griefs his heart had broken.
His words may prove
A gift of love,
The best his love could offer;
Keep them in store,
And learn their pow'r,
When call'd thyself to suffer.
- 2 What then employ'd his care the most,
Of his first pray'r the burden,
Was that the scoffing, cruel host
From God should find a pardon.
“Forgive! forgive!”
“And let them live!”
“My Father, O forgive them!”
“They little know
“What 't is they do, —
“Their darken'd hearts deceive them.”
- 3 How good, for hate to render love, —
'T is what his pray'r would teach us, —
Nor seek, by inj'ry, to remove
The injuries that reach us.
'T would also teach —
In grace how rich
The man who, when with rudeness
Malignant foes
His good oppose,
Opposes only goodness.

4 To Mary then he made address,
Where she with John was mourning;
And from his cross sooth'd her distress,
His heart with pity yearning;
    "Mother, thy son
    "Behold! — this one
    "Belov'd by me, will love thee!" —
    "Thy mother see!
    "And do for me
    "As love to both shall move thee!"

5 So, Lord, thy friends shall ever share
Thy love, nor meet denial:
Thou watchest them with tender care,
In seasons of their trial.
    By deed and word,
    Thou'lt help afford,
When sorrows may depress them:
    In all their grief,
    Thou'lt give relief,
And with new mercies bless them.

6 Then, next, our Savior spake the word
To one this pray'r addressing —
"Remember me with favor, Lord,
    "And grant me then thy blessing,
    "    When thou the throne
    "    And glorious crown
    "Shall take, as Prince of Heaven!"
    "    To thee the bliss
    "    Of Paradise" —
He said — "this day be given!"

- 7 How sweet this promise to assuage
The cares of saints who hear it!
Should Death redouble all his rage,
No longer shall they fear it.
With all his pow'r,
What can he more
Than soul and body sever?
While they shall rise
To perfect joys
In Paradise forever.
- 8 But while the malefactor's joy
Thy words, O Lord, awaken,
Yet deeper griefs thy soul employ,
Now by thy God forsaken.
"Eli! my God!
"How great the load
"I here am doom'd to suffer!
"And when I cry
"To thee on high,
"No answer wilt thou offer!"
- 9 Learn hence this lesson, O my soul, —
When griefs from God assail thee,
When waves of sorrow o'er thee roll,
Let not thy patience fail thee!
Till life be past,
Hope to the last
To see the storm abating!
In faith abide; —
Through Him who died,
For mercy pleading, waiting.

- 10 He speaks again, and feebly cries,
— His thirst from anguish growing, —
“ I thirst ! ” — Thus spake he whose supplies
Of life to all are flowing.
What can it mean ! —
It thence is seen
How he was bow'd with curses,
For crimes of thine
Through years of sin,
That thou might sing of mercies.
- 11 And further, too, well may it teach —
How much it meets his pleasure,
That still his cross, in all and each,
Of good should work its measure.
Be ye aware !
Whose anxious care
Your thirst for grace is showing, —
To give you drink,
Himself would sink
With thirst — his blood bestowing.
- 12 And when his strength well nigh was gone,
His soul with griefs replenish'd,
Then said he — “ Now the work is done ! ”
But, What work then was finish'd ?
'T was often told
By seers of old, —
Through ages 't was predicted,
That on the Son,
For sins our own,
Such griefs should be inflicted.

13 'Tis finish'd ! What for thee remains ?

Would thou the work go over,
As if the sinner's toil and pains
Could help his guilt to cover ?

The work is done !

Well be it known —
Naught can be added to it.

'Tis thine, by faith,
To trust his death,
And by thy living show it.

14 His sorrows now approach their end, —

“Receive,” he cries, “my spirit !
“This, Father, I to thee commend,
“Thy glory to inherit.
“My soul receive,
“When it shall leave
“My heart, which death is chilling ;
“And thus shall close
“My heavy woes,
“Thy plan of grace fulfilling !”

15 Grant, O my God, that such an end

May, when I die, attend me !
That I with joy into thy hand
Of mercy may commend me !
O let my Lord's
Last spoken words
My last words too be spoken !
Then let me rise
To take the prize
Of bliss that's never broken !

Paul Gerhard.

118. LAST WORDS OF JESUS.

---

- 1 “’Tis finish’d !” — thus, in tortures dying,
Spake Jesus with triumphant voice ;
Words, from our fears relief supplying,
Which bid confiding souls rejoice
That now the off’ring is complete
By which they find a mercy-seat.
- 2 Our Savior dies ! — the rocks are rending,
In darkness hides the glimm’ring sun ;
Down to the dead new life descending,
The graves of saints are open thrown :
Earth quakes, — the temple-veil divides, —
Nothing the seat of mercy hides.
- 3 How much, O LORD, art thou fulfilling,
While Death and Hell their pow’r display !
Thy agonies the wrath are stilling
Which on a world of sinners lay.
The work is done ! there needs no more,
But that for mercy we implore.
- 4 Our all to thee, O Lord, we tender,
No less thy benefits require ;
Help us, that we the service render,
To which our grateful hearts aspire :
With needed strength our weakness meet,
That we our off’ring may complete.

5 Oft, painful fears of Death alarm us : —

O nerve us for that trying hour !

May then the courage fully arm us

Wherewith thou hast subdued his pow'r :

Thus, by thy strength brought conq'rors through,

We will exclaim — “ 'Tis finish'd ! ” too.

DEATH OF JESUS.

1 LET tears descend !

Man's noblest friend,

In deeds of love untiring,

Now, amid reproach and shame,

Is with thieves expiring.

2 Let tears descend !

Man's injur'd friend

In snares of Hell is taken :

What the grief his soul endures,

While by all forsaken !

3 Let tears descend !

Man's suff'ring friend

His soul to God is breathing :

Ransom for a guilty world

By his death bequeathing.

4 Let tears descend !

Man's faithful friend

In dreary grave is lying :

Weep no more ! Sweet sleep is there

Rest and strength supplying.

- 5 Weep, weep no more !
Our Lord, with pow'r,
Without corruption seeing,
Shall from death, in glory new,
Rise to endless being.

BURIAL OF JESUS.

---

- 1 Now to the tomb
Thyself art come,
Who, for us death enduring,
Didst bear the curse for sin,
Eternal life procuring.
- 2 Death wrought his will
On thee, and still
Our life in thee reposes,
As of weak mortals now
The grave thy form incloses :
- 3 Yet, in the grave,
Thy God shall save
Thee, from corruption seeing :
And soon be shown thy pow'r
From death thy body freeing.
- 4 Yes, and at last,
When Time is past,
Us from the grave thou'lt waken ;
And why should now our hearts
With fear of it be shaken ?

- 5    Nay, we will there
      Till thou appear,
In peace and hope recline us ;
      Then, through thy death, to thee
From death and grave will join us.
- 6    Ye, whom in chains
      The world detains,
May at corruption tremble :
      Through Christ, our moulder'd flesh
His body shall resemble.
- 7    No, — nothing's lost,
      Sure is our trust,
The very dust that's sleeping,
      For glory purified,
Shall leave the earth's safe keeping.
- 8    Then let the grave
      Our bodies have,
This matter nothing grieves us :
      The thinking on thy grave
From all such care relieves us.

121. RESURRECTION OF CHRIST.

- 1 DYING a guilty world to save,
 Jesus the shout of vict'ry gave,
 With his last breath "'Tis done!" he cried.
 In silent wonder, round the throne
 The angels stood, when to the Son —
 "The work is finish'd!" — God replied.
 The heavens heard, and raise
 New songs of sacred praise
 To God the Son.
 He conquers, — for the vict'ry dies!
 Thus Judah's Lion wins the prize!
- 2 He left the tomb, with glory crown'd,
 God, reconcil'd, the ransom own'd; —
 The curse of Sinai rules no more:
 Who now thy triumphs, Grave, shall sing?
 Relentless Death, where is thy sting?
 Ye're captives to the victor's pow'r.
 'Tis done, in Hell's despite,
 This work of grace and might, —
 Jesus be prais'd!
 Great Death-destroyer! with thine aid,
 Of Death who now shall be afraid?
- 3 Assert, victorious King, thy throne!
 A people shall thy sceptre own,
 Unnumber'd as the morning dew:
 They're safe who put in thee their trust!
 Zion, all glorious from the dust,
 Thou wilt restore with honors new.

Though fire and sword impede,
 The church shall rise : — the deed,
     Jesus, is thine !
 Hell rages, — this but swells thy praise,
 Thy vict'ries all its fury raise.

- 4   Thou wilt appear to judge our race, —
     Grant me, Redeemer, then a place
 Among the saints upon thy right !
     Thou Savior from avenging doom
     When flames shall earth and skies consume,
 Afore prepare me for thy sight !
     High-seated on thy throne,
     The Conq'ror, God's own Son,
     Thy grace bestow !
 That I may love thy service here,
 And with thy saints at last appear.

122.   RESURRECTION OF CHRIST.

---

- 1 My Savior lives! — and through death's dreary gloom
     Now streams the dawn of day,
 The Prince of life to us with life is come !
     The grave has lost its prey !
     In death awhile he slumber'd,
     Now wakes with strength to save ;
     No more with sorrows cumber'd,
     He left them in the grave.
- 2 My Savior leads! — and Hell, and Grave, and Death
     Are driven back to Night !
 My soul he strengthens now with cheerful faith,
     To seek his home of light.

Through shades of Death, — beside me, —
And through the grave, — still on,
He heavenward will guide me,
The path himself has gone.

3 My Savior reigns! — on high in glory reigns!
His throne shall ever last!

With power divine the sceptre he sustains,

His trials all are past.

At death my trials closing,

My soul with him shall rest;

My flesh, in hope reposing,

Shall wake, with glory blest.

Hopfensach.

123. RESURRECTION OF CHRIST.

---

1 Who is this with glory gleaming,
His features bright with vict'ry beaming,
That shines amid sepulchral gloom?
Mortals! — of your dread annoyer,
Of Death — it is the great Destroyer,
Who now triumphant leaves the tomb
His grave is empty now, —
His foes are lying low
All around him.
His praises tell!
O'er Death and Hell,
In grateful songs, his vict'ry show!

- 2 Sin brought Death and desolation, —
Thou Prince of life and of salvation,
Of Death thou hast subdu'd the might :
That to earth peace might be given,
And man enjoy the hope of heaven,
Thyself didst leave the realms of light.
Thy struggle not for thee, —
Thy vict'ry, Lord, for me —
Me a sinner !
Thy death endur'd
My life secur'd,
And set my prison'd spirit free.
- 3 Jesus, shall I not adore thee ?
My thanks shall never cease before thee,
Thy praise my heart can ne'er decline.
Thou for me the fight sustaining,
In death a perfect vict'ry gaining, —
Thy vict'ry, Conqueror, is mine.
My love shall endless be,
For boon so rich and free,
Mighty Hero :
Songs too of praise
And thanks I raise
To thee, eternal God, to Thee.
- 4 Now, this Conqueror addressing,
Come, sinners, humbly seek his blessing,
And fix your faith on Him alone !
Each with me now bow before him,
With songs of grateful praise adore him,
And tell what he for us has done !

His word let all believe,
As God's own truth receive
All his teaching !
He won the prize,
And bids us rise
That in his glory we may live.

5 When the cup of Death is tasted,
For us his terrors all are wasted, —
Where is his sting ? What can he do ?
Jesus lives ! — His saints he numbers,
His voice shall wake us from our slumbers,
And then our graves be empty too.
Those who his promise trust, —
He'll raise them from the dust —
Vict'ry shouting.
The voice — it comes —
“ Leave now your tombs !
“ Arise, and triumph with the just ! ”

6 What a day of bliss surprising,
When now the Sun of glory rising,
Shall scatter Death's long-gather'd gloom !
O what joy and wonder blended,
When, all our night of darkness ended,
The morn shall break upon our tomb !
Great Leader, guide our way
On to that glorious day, —
Lo, we follow !
Yes, though thy path
Shall lead through death,
We'll follow thee without delay.

- 7    Terror, Lord, to Hell thou givest, -
       Thyself hast died, — and yet thou livest;
       Thy life and reign shall ever last:
       Vict'ry, life, a throne in heaven,
       His world to rule, thy God has given: —
       And till thy glory shall be past,
           In it, 't will be thy care
       That all thy friends shall share
           Here, hereafter.
       By thy behest,
       We here are blest,
       And look for endless blessings there.

B. Muentzer.

124.            ASCENSION OF CHRIST.

- 1 REJOICE, ye saints! — your fears be gone!
       Your Lord ascends to take his throne, —
       He conquers! — with triumphant voice,
       Proclaim his vict'ry and rejoice!
- 2 His conflict here is finish'd now,
       Death is disarm'd, a vanquish'd foe, —
       Peace to the world from God is giv'n,
       And He with glory crown'd in heav'n.
- 3 Now all abroad, and to the sky,
       Extol his pow'r and majesty;
       The seraphim resound his praise, —
       To him your highest anthems raise!

- 4 All nations are his purchas'd right,
His sceptre rules with grace and might,
Will ever rule, till at his feet
All foes shall to his pow'r submit.
- 5 In ev'ry strait He is at hand,
The guardian of his faithful band ;
He is their Head : — your honors bring,
And let the skies with echo ring !
- 6 Jesus, accept our honors due !
While we, with praise and rapture, view
The glories of the heav'nly throne,
To which thy God exalts his Son.
- 7 In thee our store of blessings lies,
And faith in thee secures the prize
So dearly purchas'd, with thy blood,
For all who seek a pard'ning God.
- 8 What should we fear ? Thou art our Lord,
Thy pow'r and skill shall be our guard,
Thy grace, all needed mercies grant,
Thy fulness, meet our ev'ry want.
- 9 We joy, — in hope, when life shall end,
Eternal life with thee to spend ; —
On earth our pilgrim-service done,
To serve with angels round thy throne.
- 10 O draw us to thee more and more,
That upward our desires may soar,
And seek the things that are above,
Where sits the Savior whom we love.

- 11 And may thy throne of glory there
So sink all earthly joy and care,
That, from a life of faith below,
We may ascend to glory too.
- 12 Then will we, O thou sinners' friend,
With nobler pow'rs thy fame extend ;
And, to thy praise, new songs employ
In regions of eternal joy.

125. JESUS, KING OF GLORY.

---

- 1 LIFT up now your heads for the Prince ever glorious !
Wide open, ye gates of the world, to your King !
He comes, — over Hell and his foes all-victorious,
He comes his salvation to bring.
- 2 He comes, who alone spoiling Death of his terrors,
Can quell our alarms of the opening grave ;
Who sinners, from bondage to ruinous errors,
By grace is almighty to save.
- 3 Their hands, stead of bonds, the glad palm-branch
are bearing ;
And hopes, stead of sorrows, are filling the breast :
For prison-groans, songs now their joys are declaring,
Their troubles are follow'd by rest.
- 4 His heralds haste onward the message of heaven,
Proclaiming salvation, and life from the dead :
Away the dark clouds of delusion are driven,
And night's gloomy shadows are fled.

- 5 May we, King of glory, our honors now bringing,
For all the rich tokens to man of thy love ;
In life and in death here thy praises be singing,
Then sing nobler praises above.

126. THE KINGDOM OF CHRIST
ON EARTH.

---

- 1 CAN human thought thy secret counsels measure,
Our King at God's right hand, our sov'reign Lord ?
We see thee form a people for thy pleasure,
Thy little flock from ev'ry mischief guard.
Where is a work of wonder like thine own ?
An humble work, and yet of glory too !
So still, — on earth 't is heeded but by few,
So great, that angels hail it round thy throne.
- 2 Celestial principalities and powers
Here learn thy wisdom deep, and manifold :
While, over sinners, righteous vengeance lowers,
Proposing terms of peace, thee they behold.
Thy law and grace together must unite —
Can light and darkness then be made agree ?
Faith wonders : — naught but darkness can we see,
But all thy darkness only leads to light.
- 4 Yes — 't is through death that thou to life art leading,
The vict'ry is alone for them who yield :
The shadows thick must first abroad be spreading,
Before thy morning star can be reveal'd.

Here clouds and darkness circle us around,
Through deserts wild and drear lies oft our way, —
Till we will hail of light a single ray,
Rejoice, when one poor blade of comfort's found.

- 4 Thine eye of fire the universe pervading,
To Thee the secret thoughts of all are known ;
How oft the hearts, our confidence persuading,
Are to thy view unsound and faithless shown.
Thy call and choice, what's scorn'd by others, raise,
The lowly are preferr'd : — men would not spare
The plant, that in thy garden wins thy care,
And, more than proudest tree, yields fruit of praise.
- 5 The poor man, not the rich, thy gifts replenish, —
That praise to thee may ne'er be mix'd with pride ; —
Before thy light must human glory vanish ;
The glory of thy grace alone abide.
Thou teachest all — thine all-sufficiency ;
For humble souls thou keepest open door,
Against the proud thy gates wilt doubly bar,
Our weakness make us feel in victory.
- 6 No change or weakness do thy plans discover ; —
Who shall presume to form thy council-board ?
Thou dost thy will : — and only when 't is over,
We then may learn the pleasure of our Lord.
Here is a land ; — for harvest ripe it seems ;
Thou sendest thither messengers of grace, —
“ 'Tis Midnight ! ” — is the cry, — but in its place,
Behold thy mercy spreads its morning beams.

- 7 A station here — thou lettest foes destroy it, —
    'T was one, perhaps, of which thy flock were proud :
There, guardest well from all that would annoy it,
    A barren field where scarce a blossom blow'd.
Here, with thy host display'd in martial line,
    Struck down in midst of life, their champion died, —
There, lone and feeble, for relief applied
A sickly guest, — where now thy temples shine.
- 8 As river courses, human hearts thou turnest ; —
    That secret wisdom, Lord, is only thine :
The vict'ry, oft, with striving long thou earnest,
    But, oft, one word of grace will vict'ry win.
The wildest tempers to thy beck are tame, —
    How many foes receive thy gentle sway !
The strongest now are led thy willing prey, —
They stay to bless thee, who for cursing came.
- 9 The age of wonders never yet has ended ; —
    Thy name is " Wonderful," nor suffers loss,
They see it not, whose glare themselves has blinded,
    When shine abroad the wonders of the cross.
Still by thy angels are the light'nings sped —
    Lo ! Sennacherib, with his dauntless host,
    Of scorn to thee and people makes his boast, —
The morning comes, — th' insulting foe has fled.
- 10 To testify, — with joy thy people hasten, —
    That Israel's Hero thou abidest still ;
And though thy hand may bow them oft, and chasten,
    They leave thee not, — thy Spirit rules their will.

So much of light upon our hearts has shone,
How could we wish to live in darkness more !
Who once has known thee, and thy saving pow'r,
A thousand times will trust thee — thee alone.

- 11 We of thy glory now can only stammer,
Although in glory thou art ever great.
Blest he who, in these times of doubt and clamor,
By faith maintains allegiance to thy state.
Now fitful glimpses break the gloom of night, —
But earth from pole to pole shall own thy sway :
Thy triumphs then shall show, in endless day,
Thyself art wisdom — all thy darkness, light.
A. Knapp.

127. JESUS IN GLORY.

---

- 1 OUR Jesus, now at God's right hand,
Is high in glory seated :
He reigns in that dear father-land
From far with transport greeted,
Whither our warm affections move,
And where celestial spirits love
Him, as their Lord, to honor.
- 2 Above all principality
His shining throne he raises,
The angels' highest minstrelsy
In vain would reach his praises :
To Him the songs of cherubim,
Responded by the seraphim,
Cry " Holy ! Holy ! Holy ! "

3 All things are subject to his reign,
The earth and skies together, —
What is, and what has ever been,
The upper world and nether ;
All pow'r and might of ev'ry name
Shall own, dear Lord, thy sov'reign claim —
Thy rule is universal.

4 Thou must too be our great High-priest,
Thy blood, our soul's oblation ;
None else can show our guilt releas'd,
Or bless us with salvation.
The grace we need none else can give,
For none, like thee, a priest shall live
To intercede forever.

5 Bright hopes to us thy love affords,
To faith thou naught deniest ;
Thou reignest now the Lord of lords,
Above all kings the Highest :
Thy throne of righteousness secure
Through endless ages will endure,
Dispensing grace and judgment.

6 Immanuel ! ever at our side
Thou'lt be, till time is ended,
Through all our pilgrimage to guide,
With pow'r and mercy blended :
In ev'ry strait wilt bring us through, —
For us contend and conquer too, —
Till Death himself is vanquish'd.

- 7 Thou say'st — “ Him that shall overcome
 “ None from my joys shall sever ;
 “ A child of God I'll bring him home,
 “ To share my throne forever ;
 “ E'en as I too have vict'ry won,
 “ And sit upon my Father's throne
 “ In majesty and glory.”

128. CHRIST COMING TO JUDGMENT.

---

- 1 THE trumpet sounds ! — the day is come !
 In glory Christ revealing ;
 To men the day of final doom —
 Their state forever sealing.
 He comes ! The Son of man is here,
 Borne on a cloud, see him appear
 Array'd in robes of judgment !
- 2 Earth's fleeting schemes of error fail,
 But firm the truth of ages ;
 Now right decides with even scale,
 And sin receives its wages ;
 Repentance has no longer space,
 Art and deception find no place, —
 'T were vain to seek false witness.
- 3 Here, on the brink of endless fate,
 Each takes his sev'ral station :
 All who have lived, both small and great,
 Since first the world's creation ;

Each by th' Omniscient seen, they stand,
Though countless as the ocean's sand, —
All wait the solemn sentence.

4 He speaks ! — the list'ning skies are still, —
All eyes on Jesus centre,
While awe and dread the bosom fill : —
“ Come ye, your kingdom enter ! ”
He says to those who mercy sought :
And then, — to all who priz'd it not, —
“ Depart from me, ye cursed ! ”

5 O Lord, with what resistless might
Thy doom of justice sounded !
The sinners, who refus'd thy right,
Sink down to Hell, confounded ;
Where meets them deep, unmingled wo, —
Ah ! who can ever save them now ?
All hope is gone forever !

6 But lo ! The saints ascend on high,
Cloth'd with the light of heaven ;
Their Savior leads them through the sky —
What burst of joy is given !
For now they see, with raptur'd eyes,
That faith and love receive the prize,
Through grace rich, free, abounding.

7 And see ! — they take the mansions bright,
Where God prepar'd their dwelling :
Like angels now, — and, to their sight,
Their joys are onward swelling :

They knew in part, — now, all is clear, —
Nor doubt, nor sorrow enters here,
To break their bliss unceasing.

- 8 Oft, Jesus, from thy judgment-seat,
Would I reflection borrow :
That thus my soul may fearless meet
The waves of earthly sorrow.
O teach my hopes above to mount,
While, mindful of my last account,
I search thy truth for guidance !

I.

- 1 To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
While angels bow before him,
With joy let all the ransom'd host
Sing praises and adore him.

(Hymn 38.)

II.

- 2 To God,—the Father, and the Word,
And Holy Ghost, — with one accord,
Let us with angels join to raise
The song of gratitude and praise.

OR

WHEN angels “Holy ! Holy !” cry,
“Supreme in grace !” let saints reply,
And strive in praise to honor most
The Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

(H. 52, 83, 96, 124.)

III.

- 3 To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost sing praises,
     The God whom christians love ;
 From sin and fear, from death and Hell he raises,
     To endless joys above.

(H. 59.)

IV.

- 4 To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, sing praises !
 He is the God of grace : — and from the mazes
 Of sin, and death, and Hell, he bids us come
 To joys on high — a bright, eternal home.

(H. 80.)

V.

- 5 Now to our God — the Father, Son,
     And Holy Spirit, sing !
 With praise to God, the Three-in-one,
     Let all creation ring.

(H. 87.)

VI.

- 6 Now to Father, Son, and Spirit,
     Let the earth her praises sing !
 And, ye angels, as ye hear it,
     Let the skies your echoes ring !

(H. 91.)

VII.

- 7 To Father, Son, and Spirit,
     From earth let praise arise !
 Ye angels, as ye hear it,
     Prolong it through the skies !

(H. 101, 104.)

VIII.

- 8 To God, — to the Father, the Son, and the Spirit,
 Let saints now with angels in praises unite !
 Beginning the joys they shall fully inherit
 Forever in regions of light.
 (H. 125.)

II. OF FIVE LINES.

I.

- 9 To God, the Father of our Lord,
 To God, the Son, the living Word,
 To God, the Holy Ghost,
 Let saints their grateful notes prolong,
 “ The God of grace ” their only song.
 (H. 36.)

II.

- 10 LET saints below their honors bring
 To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost ;
 Here tune their voice the praise to sing
 That shall employ the heavenly host,
 Forevermore.
 (H. 46.)

III.

- 11 To God, the Father of our Lord,
 To God the Son, the living Word,
 To God, the Spirit of all grace,
 Our songs we raise,
 While heav’n resounds with higher praise.
 (H. 82, 85.)

IV.

- 12 To Father, Son,
And Spirit, — One, —
As by the host of heaven,
Honor, thanks, and ceaseless praise
By the earth be given !
(H. 119.)

V.

- 13 To God alone,
The Three in One,
On earth be praises given,
As by the saints redeem'd,
And angel-hosts in heaven.
(H. 120.)

III. OF SIX LINES.

I.

- 14 To Father, Son,
And Spirit, — One, —
The God who reigns in heaven, —
As done above,
May praise and love
By all on earth be given.
(H. 6.)

II.

- 15 Now to the Father-God, who gave us
His Son to bear away our guilt ;
To God the Son, made flesh to save us,
Whose blood was for our ransom spilt ;
To God the Spirit of all grace,
Let praise ascend from ev'ry place.
(H. 8, 12, 39, 49, 53, 62, 74, 84, 86, 89, 106, 118.)

III.

- 16 COME, let us now our honors bring,
To Father, Son, and Spirit sing, —
The song of angels raising !
Let all below, and all above,
Unite in holy joy and love,
Our God Jehovah praising !
(H. 11, 73.)

IV.

- 17 PRAISE to the Father-GOD, who gave us
His SON to seek and save the lost ;
To GOD the SON, who died to save us, —
Nor less to GOD the Holy Ghost :
Eternal praise, for grace abounding,
To GOD, the Three in One, be sounding !
(H. 25.)

V.

- 18 PRAISE to GOD the Father bring, —
Well our praise his favors merit ;
And with equal praises sing
GOD the SON, and GOD the Spirit :
Praise in song, ye heav'nly host,
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost !
(H. 26, 60.)

VI.

- 19 To GOD, whose boundless favors
Demand our best endeavors
In songs of grateful praise, —
To Father, Son, and Spirit,
As well their glories merit,
Let earth and skies loud anthems raise.
(H. 35.)

VII.

- 20 OUR GOD, who from heaven
His blessings has given, —
The Father, the Son, and the Spirit we sing :
While angels before him,
And saints too adore him,
Exalting with praises Eternity's King.
(H. 45.)

VIII.

- 21 To GOD the Father, GOD the Son,
And GOD the Spirit, — Three in One, —
On earth be praises given ;
While angels raise
Their higher praise
With the redeem'd in heaven.
(H. 63.)

IX.

- 22 HIM, who gave his only Son ;
Him, who died from death to raise ;
Him, who makes the Savior known,
All ye ransom'd join to praise !
Praise in song, ye heav'nly host,
Father, Son and Holy Ghost !
(H. 78.)

X.

- 23 LET GOD the Father, GOD the Son,
And GOD the Spirit be ador'd,
By saints and angels round the throne,
By all on earth who love the LORD.
To Him, whose grace all good supplies,
Now let our Hallelujahs rise !
(H. 81.)

XI.

- 24 FATHER, Son, and Holy Spirit,
 Now ye saints exalt with praise :
 And, ye angels, as ye hear it,
 Higher still your anthems raise !
 Striving how to honor most
 Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

(H. 103.)

XII.

- 25 To God, — the Father, Son,
 And Holy Spirit, — One, —
 Be honor, glory, blessing,
 With songs of praise unceasing !
 Let all on earth adore him,
 And angels bow before him !

(H. 113.)

IV. OF SEVEN LINES.

I.

- 26 THOU GOD and Father of our Lord,
 We bring our praise before thee ;
 Thou equal Son, the living Word,
 With praises we adore thee :
 Thou Holy Ghost, accept the praise
 Which, taught of thee, alike we raise
 To Father, Son, and Spirit.

or

- Now to the Father, and the Son,
 And Holy Ghost give praises !
 To God, whose grace to sinners shown
 From death to glory raises :

Let saints below, and saints above,
 With angels vie in showing love,
 'Tis man alone finds mercy.

(H. 1, 9, 13, 22, 24, 23, 40, 47, 49, 54, 55, 67, 77, 79, 90, 100, 102, 107, 116, 127, 128.)

Another doxology of this measure may be found, H. 22, stanza 13.

II.

27 LET all, with heart and voice,
 To Father, Son, and Spirit
 Sing praises and rejoice !
 To Him, his Son who gave,
 To Him, who died to save,
 To Him, who works our peace,
 Our honors we address.

(H. 15.)

III.

28 GLORY now to God who gave us
 His Son to bear away our guilt !
 To God the Son, made flesh to save us,
 Whose blood was for our ransom spilt,
 To God the Spirit of all grace,
 Let saints resound, in endless praise,
 Glory !

(H. 17.)

IV.

29 To God be praise ! — The Father of our Lord,
 The Son and Spirit, too,
 With grateful songs of honor be ador'd,
 By all who dwell below ;
 While hosts above, with joy unceasing,
 To Him give glory, honor, blessing :
 To God be praise !

or

PRAISE Him that's true ! — The Father of our Lord,
 The Son he loves so well,
 And Holy Ghost — forever be ador'd !
 Let saints His praises tell
 Whom angels, for his truth unbending,
 Extol with praises never ending, —
 Our God is true !

(H. 23, 63, 70.)

V.

30 PRAISE ye the LORD ! — To Father, and the Son,
 And Holy Ghost — be sacred honors done !
 He is the God of grace, — and bids us come
 From all our wand'rings to a peaceful home.
 Praise ye the LORD !

His praise, his praise
 Shall there employ our songs through endless days
 (H. 27.)

VI.

31 IT here must pleasure be,
 O Father, Son, and Spirit,
 To all who grace inherit,
 Their praise to offer thee.
 But when to us in heaven
 Angelic notes are given,
 What must our pleasure be !
 (H. 92.)

VII.

32 NOW to our God in heaven, —
 The Father and the Son,
 And Holy Ghost, — be given
 Our praise for mercy shown :

Let all his saints on earth adore,
 And saints above be singing —
 “Glory forevermore !”

(H. 114.)

---

V. OF EIGHT LINES.

---

I.

33 JEHOVAH, GOD! — The Father, Son, and Spirit, —
 Accept our humble sacrifice of praise !
 For all the good we have, or shall inherit,
 To thee our song of gratitude we raise.
 The Father gives for us his only Son,
 The Son to pay our ransom freely dies,
 The Holy Ghost the purchas'd grace applies, —
 Eternal praises to the Three in One !

(H. 2, 126.)

II.

34 Now God, the Father, praise,
 On earth as done in heaven ; —
 To Jesus, his dear Son,
 Be equal praises given ;
 Help us, thou Holy Ghost,
 Whom we with praise adore,
 The Father, Son, and Thee
 To praise forevermore.

(H. 3, 18, 20, 21, 37, 51, 105.)

III.

- 35 ALL ye who grace inherit,
 The God of grace adore !
 To Father, Son, and Spirit
 Give praise forevermore !
 Of mercies here, the treasure
 Demands our praise and love ;
 And praise shall be our pleasure
 Before his throne above.

(Hymn 4, 93, 115.)

IV.

- 36 SAINTS and angels bow before thee,
 Singing praises near thy throne ;
 So, O LORD, let earth adore thee,
 Praising God, the Three in One !
 GOD the Father, grace supplying, —
 GOD the Son, the way of grace, —
 GOD the Spirit — sanctifying, —
 Aid and own our songs of praise !

(H. 5, 31.)

V.

- 37 IT was the Father's wondrous love
 That gave his Son to die,
 And sent his Spirit from above
 To train us for the sky :
 Now to our GOD, — the Father, Son,
 And Holy Ghost, — we sing, —
 With praise to GOD, the Three in One,
 Let all creation ring !

(H. 7, 53.)

VI.

- 38 PRAISE to Him, his Son who gave us
 Here to seek and save the lost !
 Praise to Him, — who died to save us !
 Praise to Him — the Holy Ghost !
 Ever praise the Three in One !
 He is God, — and He alone !
 Saints and angels bow before him,
 Let the earth with songs adore him !
 (H. 10, 19, 94.)

VII.

- 39 COME let us now our honors bring,
 To Father, Son, and Spirit sing, —
 The song of angels raising !
 Let all below, and all above,
 Unite in holy joy and love,
 Our God Jehovah praising !
 'Tis He who first our being gave, —
 He gives his grace our souls to save.
 (H. 14.)

VIII.

- 40 THE LORD is GOD ! — To Father, Son, and Spirit,
 Let saints unite their grateful songs to raise ! —
 Till all the nations of the world shall hear it,
 And too shall learn to swell the notes of praise.
 Let earth and skies rejoice
 To spread his name abroad, —
 And shout with thankful voice, —
 “ The LORD is GOD ! ”
 (H. 16.)

IX.

- 41 IT was the Father's wondrous love
That gave for us his Son to die,
And sent his Spirit from above,
To train us for his joys on high :
Now to our God — the Father, Son,
And Holy Ghost — our praise we sing,
Let saints below, to Him alone,
And saints above, their honors bring !

(H. 28.)

X.

- 42 COME, Holy Spirit, aid our songs,
While we our praise are singing
To Him — to whom all praise belongs, —
To GOD, our honors bringing :
Your praises join, ye ransom'd host
From ev'ry tribe and nation,
Of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
Proclaim the great salvation !

(H. 30.)

XI.

- 43 SAINTS and angels bow before thee,
Singing praises near thy throne ;
So, O LORD, let earth adore thee,
Praising GOD, the Three in One !
God the Father, source of blessing,
God the Son, of love unceasing,
God the Spirit of all grace, —
Now accept our song of praise !

(H. 43, 55, 112.)

XII.

- 44      HIGH let us now our voices raise,
         The Father, Son, and Spirit praise, —
His gracious aid and ear imploring !
         Let angels, as they hear the song,
         The notes of joy and love prolong,
Jehovah, God alone, adoring.
         The wonders of his grace and pow'r
         Demand our praise forevermore.

(H. 57.)

XIII.

- 45      FROM GOD the Father, through the Son,
         And by the Holy Spirit,
Believers shall around the throne
         Eternal joys inherit.
         Here let them raise
         Their songs of praise,
Till nobler songs be given,
         To swell their praise in heaven !

(H. 64, 65, 97.)

XIV.

- 46      NOW to our God in heaven, —
         The Father, and the Word,
And Holy Ghost, — be given
         Our praise with one accord.
         Let all on earth adore,
With saints their honors bringing,
And with the angels singing —
         “Glory forevermore !”

(H. 69.)

XV.

- 47 Now to the Father-God who gave us
 His Son to bear away our guilt;
 To God the Son, made flesh to save us,
 Whose blood was for our ransom spilt;
 To God the Spirit of all grace,
 Let praise ascend from ev'ry place!
 This God is ours! — let earth adore him,
 While saints and angels bow before him!
 (H. 72.)

XVI.

- 48 Now to God, the Three in One,
 Songs of glory raise!
 God the Father, God the Son,
 God the Spirit — praise!
 The God of love!
 Boundless wisdom, grace, and pow'r
 Give to Him, as evermore
 Is done above!
 (H. 98.)

XVII.

- 49 PRAISE ye the LORD! — The Father, and the Son,
 And Holy Spirit praise!
 To Him be everlasting honors done,
 For matchless pow'r and grace!
 Our life — 't is He who gave it,
 'T is his to take away; —
 Our soul — 't is his to save it,
 And bless with endless day.
 (H. 95, 122.)

VI. OF NINE LINES.

I.

- 50 To GOD — the Father, and the Son,
And Holy Ghost — sing praises !
The GOD, whose sov'reign grace alone
From death to glory raises.
Saints below, above,
Sing Redeeming love !
Angels, swell the song !
Our notes of praise prolong !
Sing " Holy ! Holy ! Holy ! "

(H. 66.)

II.

- 51 Now to the Father, and the Son,
And Holy Ghost give praises !
The GOD, whose wondrous mercy shown
From death to glory raises :
Let saints below, and saints above
With angels vie in showing love !
Sav'd, when on waves of ruin toss'd,
The saints should most
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

(H. 111.)

Here many wise and prudent grow.....	40
He who once came as suff'ring man .....	14
How could I wish a greater blessing .....	25
How great the wonders wrought by thee .....	109
How heedless, how secure is man. ....	83
How sad will be the sinner's part.....	13
How trying to the heart.....	113
I AM redeem'd! — .....	23
I hail the day, in prospect bright .....	97
I love thee, Lord, with love sincere .....	42
I 'm but a weary pilgrim here.....	90
Impart, O Lord, thy light.....	15
In glory bright, O God, thou dwellest .....	8
I now have found abiding rest.....	30
I now have found the Rock of ages.....	32
In thee, O God, I find my joy .....	63
I too through Jesus may in peace.....	102
I trust the Lord.....	6
JEHOVAH is my light! his grace revealing, .....	2
Jesus, my chief pleasure.....	34
Jesus, my Lord and God.....	61
Jesus, of what we should approve.....	107
Jesus, our Lord, when thou art near .....	46
KING , to Jews and gentiles given.....	103
Know ye the land? .....	27
LET tears descend! .....	119
Lift up now your heads, &c. ....	125
Lord Jesus Christ, my spirit's health .....	44
Lord, on the soul's enduring worth .....	11
Love, honor, praise and thanks to Thee, .....	41
MAN were better nam'd a spirit.....	10
Most High, with reverence to fear thee.....	62
Most holy Jesus, fount unfailing.....	108
My life is but a pilgrim stand .....	57
My richest comfort, here while living,.....	53
My Savior lives, and through Death's dreary gloom,.....	122
Now in thy presence I appear.....	52
Now one in health Death instant crushes..... :	12
Now to the Lord sing praises,.....	75
Now to the tomb.....	120

Hymn.

O BETHLEHEM, O Bethlehem.....	160
O tell me not of glitt'ring treasure .....	39
O that I had a thousand voices.....	74
Our blessings come, O God,.....	51
Our God is true! — .....	70
Our Jesus now at God's right hand .....	127
Our Lord wept o'er Jerusalem .....	111
REJOICE, ye saints, your fears be gone .....	124
Remember Jesus, God's dear Son .....	48
Repent! nor still delay.....	18
Robes of white thy form inclosing .....	94
Rule thou my portion, Lord! my skill .....	65
SHALL I not his praise be singing.....	76
Sinai flames its awful wonders .....	31
Soon in the grave my flesh shall rest .....	87
Steep and thorny is the way .....	60
THAT I shall die, full well I know.....	81
That men to truth might not be strangers .....	106
The day is gone, the weary sun declining.....	80
The fountain flows! — .....	16
The Holy Law and Gospel both .....	9
The Lord of our salvation .....	115
The poor are waiting at your door.....	77
The reaper now is waiting.....	93
The Savior comes, sing praise to Him.....	99
The trumpet sounds, the day is come .....	123
The way of Christians leads through deserts dreary.....	59
The world enslav'd to sin.....	105
This man sinners doth receive.....	26
Though manhood's feeble nature.....	104
Thou God the Father, now in love .....	54
Thou Great First Cause, when of thy skill.....	1
'T is finished! — thus in tortures dying.....	118
To thee, Lord Jesus, now I come.....	29
To us salvation now is come.....	22
Upon a hill there stands a tree.....	7
Urg'd, Lord, by sinful terror .....	114
WE are but pilgrims here below .....	58
Weary now, that Home of pleasure.....	91
We give this body to the dust.....	96
We 're thine, O God, forevermore .....	85
Whate'er God does is fitly done .....	64

	Hymn.
What meanest thou my soul .....	20
What without thee would I have been ? .....	23
When they may chance to meet together .....	72
Who is this with glory beaming .....	123
Who knows how near my life's expended ? .....	86
Who, Lord, has any good whatever .....	49
Who, Lord, thy deeds can measure ? .....	4
Why is my heart so far from thee .....	47
Why so alarm'd my deathless spirit .....	84
Why vex thyself with anxious fears .....	36
Why weepest thou ? — .....	95
Will it no pleasure be .....	92
Without true faith, O Lord .....	21
YEs, I was born to live forever .....	89
Ye who with years are sinking .....	101

DAY OF JUDGMENT.

---

JUDGMENT comes! — that day of mourning!
Earth in flames! — to ashes turning!
So the Scriptures give us warning.

How will fear the soul be rending,
When the Judge is seen descending,
Angel-hosts their Lord attending!

Hark, — the trump! — its blast of wonder
Tears the graves of Earth asunder!
These their prison'd charge surrender; —

Death and Nature frightened, quaking,
While the dead, their tombs forsaking,
Are their place for trial taking!

Then, before the world collected,
Books are open'd, ~~and~~ inspected,
And by these the doom directed.

When the Judge, for judgment seated,
Marks for vengeance unremitted
Open crimes, and crimes secreted ; —

Guilty — what can I be pleading ?
Who for me be interceding ?
Saints themselves are mercy needing.

Savior, thron'd in exaltation,
Thou hast wrought a free salvation, ---
Save me from that condemnation !

Think of all thy way from heaven
That my sins might be forgiven, —
Must I still to wo be driven ?

Seeking me, thy strength oft fail'd thee,
On the cross, ills thick assail'd thee, —
Have thy suff'rings naught avail'd thee ?

Righteous Judge of retribution,
Grant to me thine absolution,
Ere that day of execution !

For my sins my soul is sighing,
Guilt with shame my cheek is dyeing,
While for mercy I am crying.

Weeping Mary met thy pity, —
Thou didst hear the thief's entreaty, —
Still to save thou art almighty.

Nothing all my pray'rs are earning,
Teach me ! — that, thy mercy learning,
I may 'scape eternal burning.

With thy friends my station give me,
Nor with those thou hatest leave me,
But upon thy right receive me.

When the curse, thy foes oppressing,
Sinks them into wo unceasing,
May I hear thy voice of blessing!

Sad and prostrate, I adore thee,
And with contrite heart implore thee, —
“Let me then rejoice before thee!”

When, O LORD, at thy assizes,
Man from dust for judgment rises,
Though our crimes deserve thy curses,
Show us then thy tender mercies!

Jesus, Savior, Prince of peace,
Bid our grief and terror cease! — Amen!

MARY AT THE CROSS.

---

NEAR the cross was Mary weeping,
There her mournful station keeping,
Gazing on her dying son:
There in speechless anguish groaning,
Yearning, trembling, sighing, moaning, —
Through her soul the sword has gone.

O what grief on her was pressing,
Lately blest beyond all blessing,
Mother of that promis'd seed;
Sorrow, agony unbounded,
Horror all her thoughts confounded,
While she saw her darling bleed.

Who, with heart to love another,
Could have seen this weeping mother,
And could yet remain unmov'd?
Who have kept from sympathizing
With her spirit agonizing
For the pangs of him she lov'd?

What he for his people suffer'd,
 Stripes, and scoffs, and insults offer'd,
 His fond mother saw the whole ; —
 Never from the scene retiring,
 Till he bow'd his head, expiring,
 And to God breath'd out his soul. * * *

[ But we have no need to borrow
 Motives from the mother's sorrow,
 At our Savior's cross to mourn.
 'T was our sins brought him from heaven,
 These the cruel nails had driven, —
 All his griefs for us were borne.

When no eye its pity gave us,
 When there was no arm to save us,
 He his love and pow'r display'd :
 By his stripes he wrought our healing,
 By his death, our life revealing,
 He for us the ransom paid.

Jesus, may thy love constrain us,
 That from sin we may refrain us,
 In thy griefs may deeply grieve :
 Thee our best affections giving,
 To thy glory ever living,
 May we in thy glory live !

DOXOLOGY.

Who, with deepest adoration,
 Should extol the great salvation
 Wrought by grace for sinners lost ?
 Sinners sav'd ! — your honors bringing,
 Swell its praises, ever singing
 Father, Son, and Holy Ghost ! ]
